

Greenbrier Leadership
Training Event
Saturday, March 3, 2018
8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.
Lewisburg United Methodist Church

Classes Include:

Plenary will be led by Rev. Dr. Barry Steiner Ball. This region has been caught in a deadly, debilitating and constantly changing opioid epidemic. This epidemic has cost us thousands of lives, millions of dollars and for many, any hope of a future. It is easy for the local church to retreat into our sanctuaries and keep doing things the way we have always done them, hoping the epidemic will go away. Barry will challenge, the Body of Christ, the local church in each community, to partner with God in bring understanding and healing in the midst of the brokenness of addiction.

Ministry Outside the Walls of the Church will be led by Rev. Amy Shanholtzer, from our conference staff, Director of Evangelism and Congregational Development. Realizing that less than 20% of people are in Sunday morning worship, Amy will help to explore creative ways to reach new people in our communities as we seek to grow the kingdom.

Transformational Leaders will be led Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball who is the current resident bishop for the WV Annual Conference. The United Methodist Church's mission "is to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world." The church needs Christian transformational leaders if we are going to live into this goal. Come and learn from the Bishop's experiences and passion around leadership in the church.

Pastor Parish Relations will be led by Rev. Martha Ognibene who is currently the superintendent of the Northern District. She is also the spouse and child of a pastor. She brings keen insight, a great sense of humor and wisdom to PPRC training.

Youth Ministry 101 will be led by Rev. Shea James, from our conference staff, Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries. Learn about resources the conference offers the local church looking to start or enrich a current youth program. Shea will provide good, practical advice for churches of all sizes and contexts seeking to reach the youth in their community.
