II. AGENCIES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND RELATED or AFFILIATED AGENCIES

The following pages contain information concerning over one thousand persons, lay and clergy, who have been elected by the West Virginia Annual Conference to serve in many different ministries with the intent of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

The Conference Secretary maintains a database that serves as a resource for identifying persons who are to be recommended to the Annual Conference for election. Lay and clergy persons in local congregations are invited to submit their own names and/ or suggest persons who should be considered for short- term as well as long-term ministries of the Conference. This information should include name, address, telephone number(s), e-mail, local church, district, inclusiveness information and a brief statement telling of skills and areas of interest. A form for submitting this information is available on the conference website.

Mail to:

Conference Secretary

PO Box 2313

Charleston, WV 25328

or e-mail to: JKenaston@wvumc.org

A note about phone numbers: Two numbers are listed for clergy. The first is the home phone number. The second is an alternative phone number, usually the church phone number or a cell phone. Alternative phone numbers for lay persons are listed if they have selected to use their cell phone. Work numbers for lay persons are generally not shown.

VI. RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY THE FORTY-EIGHTH REGULAR SESSION

Resolution Number 1

Urging Holiness, Civility and Respect in Conversation

WHEREAS in a democratic society clear communication and accurate information are necessary for the will of the people to be implemented in society and in government, and

WHEREAS in today's cultural and political climate, many issues have strongly divided people and led to extreme polarization among and within various groups, and

WHEREAS labels and epithets serve to further polarize and alienate and do nothing to encourage meaningful and substantive dialogue, and

WHEREAS media outlets, including broadcast and electronic sharing services, frequently contain inaccurate and misleading statements, and

WHEREAS sincere Christians, seeking guidance from scripture and the Holy Spirit, may still disagree on important issues, and

WHEREAS true spiritual discernment takes place when disagreeing parties have respect for those who disagree, are willing to hear every side of an issue, and are open to the Spirit's leading, even when challenged to question fondly held ideas,

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED that we, the people of the West Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church, agree to conduct our discussions, both in this body and in our private lives, in a manner that reflects the values held forth in our sacred scripture, including, but not limited to, Jesus' desire that we love one another, that we indeed love our enemies, even as we may strongly disagree on some point.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we refrain from attempts to categorize people in order to dismiss their arguments, that we minimize the use of words and phrases designed to offend, that we strive to persuade by reasonable argument; and that we check our sources and references carefully, so as not to carelessly "bear false witness".

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we refrain from "guilt by association", wherein we reject a person's ideas by connecting that person with other people who might be unpopular, again distracting us from the ideas themselves.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we conduct our discourse and interactions in a manner that brings honor to God and God's church, and refrain from any comments that might tend to alienate those who disagree with us, realizing a careless comment may drive a lost soul further from the salvation we desire for them.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we use scripture carefully, making our best effort to interpret wisely, not using our personal prejudices to mold scripture to our purposes, for such action is a way of taking God's name in vain.

Resolution Number 2
Scott's Run Settlement House

WHEREAS, in response to changing times in the late 1880's, the Doctrine of Social Christianity came from England to America, emphasizing social injustice and not individual failings; and

WHEREAS, the Settlement concept began to develop centers for providing education and social services to persons brought from other countries to work in the mines; and

WHEREAS, in a nine mile section of Scotts Run in Monongalia County, comprised of eight coal mining communities, those needs were identified as many of the 37 mines opened and closed due to mechanization, leaving a high rate of unemployment; and

WHEREAS, with permission from the Methodist Episcopal minister and School Superintendent, Methodist Deaconess Edna Muir used a portable schoolhouse and began teaching Bible stories and music to children in the area; and

WHEREAS, space was later rented above Possner's store in Osage which burned in 1925, and

WHEREAS, the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church raised funds to build the current Scott's Run Settlement House; and

WHEREAS, the West Virginia Presbyterian Synod was also involved in its support and organization, sending Mary Behner, a missionary, to work in Scotts Run from 1928 until 1937; and

WHEREAS, the Settlement House was home to Scout troops and Methodist Church Services as an extension of Wesley Church in downtown Morgantown; and

WHEREAS, through the years, pastors of Riverside, Westover and other area churches have provided leadership and taught classes at the Settlement House; and

WHEREAS, Scott's Run Settlement House continues to provide education and social services to the community; and

WHEREAS, the Commission on Archives and History of the West Virginia Annual Conference recommends that Scott's Run Settlement House be designated as a United Methodist Church Historic Site;

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the 2016 Session of the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, meeting at West Virginia Wesleyan College, June 9-12, does recognize Scott's Run as a United Methodist Historic Site; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that an appropriate application, signed by the Chairperson of the Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History, the Annual Conference Secretary and the Bishop, shall be submitted to the General Commission on Archives and History for registration, assignment of a Historic Site Number and to secure a United Methodist Historic Site Marker; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the West Virginia Annual Conference Commission on Archives and History arrange for a service of dedication when the official United Methodist Historic Site Marker is presented to the Director of Scott's Run Settlement House.

Resolution Number 3

Settlement Resolution Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the West Virginia Annual Conference

The West Virginia Annual Conference (the "Conference") adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the "Church"), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church ("Clergypersons");

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED:

1. THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the "Discipline"), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits ("GBOPHB"), during the year 2017 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and

2. THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergy person rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergy person of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergy person to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergy person's pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergy person's gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergy person's employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergy person to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

Resolution Number 4
Abandoned Properties, and the Sale and Other Disposition of the Same

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees of this Annual Conference has been and is in the process of compiling a list of church property, both real and personal, within the bounds of the Conference which is no longer used, kept or maintained for church purposes; and

WHEREAS, it is deemed desirable by this Annual Conference to declare under what circumstances certain properties may be deemed to be abandoned, placed in the hands of the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference and sold, or otherwise disposed of; and

WHEREAS, The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church sets forth procedures that should be followed with regard to such matters;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED:

1. When a local church property is no longer used, kept, or maintained by its membership as a place of divine worship, it shall be considered abandoned, if no action has been taken by the Annual Conference to declare it abandoned.
2. When a local church is abandoned and is, therefore, deemed to no longer serve the purpose for which it is organized and incorporated, with the consent of the Bishop, a majority of the District Superintendents of this Conference and the District Board of Church Location and Building, the Annual Conference Trustees may, upon such procedures as may be prescribed by them, assume control of the property.
3. If circumstances make immediate action necessary, the Conference Board of Trustees may sell or lease said property; provided, however, that the Conference Board of Trustees must first give an option to purchase the property, at the price for which it is otherwise to be sold, to other denominations represented in the Commission on Pan-Methodist Cooperation, and, provided further, however, that the Board of Trustees shall retain the proceeds of any said sale or lease in an interest-bearing account and recommend the disposition of the proceeds by the Annual Conference, in keeping with Annual Conference policies, if any, heretofore adopted regarding the disposition of proceeds of sale of church properties. If circumstances do not make immediate action necessary, the Conference Board of Trustees may sell, transfer, lease or mortgage such property in accordance with the applicable provisions of The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, as revised from time to time.
4. For purposes of this Resolution, the circumstances which make immediate action necessary shall be deemed to include the following: the possibility that the property will decline materially in value prior to the next meeting of the Annual Conference; the need to expend substantial funds for repair, alteration, safety and health precautions; excessive costs of insuring the property; the need for funds by the Annual Conference or the Board of Trustees for uses previously authorized by the Annual Conference or the Board; the existence of an exceptional offer of purchase which is not likely to reoccur in the immediate future; and such other unique circumstances which the Board determines, in its discretion, justify the sale of such property as being in the best interest of the Annual Conference and its members. (The foregoing Resolution is based on the 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church).

Resolution Number 5

Abandoned Property Funds

WHEREAS, the Annual Conference annually approves the Discontinuance and Abandonment of specific church properties upon recommendation of the Cabinet and the Conference Board of Trustees; and,

WHEREAS, said properties are sold by the Annual Conference Board of Trustees; and

WHEREAS, not all proceeds from the sale of said properties are designated by the Annual Conference and are thus placed in a Property Account of the Annual Conference; and;

WHEREAS, requests are made to the Annual Conference Board of Trustees for these funds by local churches for capital improvements; and,

WHEREAS, the Board of Trustees makes recommendations to the Annual Conference at a regularly scheduled session of the Annual Conference for the dispersing of these funds, thereby delaying many local churches in securing the funds for their needed capital improvements;

NOW, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that 10% of the net proceeds from the sale of abandoned church property shall be allocated for the purpose of creating an endowment fund for capital improvements, repair and restoration of ethnic minority local churches. These funds shall be invested through the United Methodist Foundation of WV, Inc., and that the income shall be administered by the Ministry Team on Religion and Race (Fiscal Policy 47).

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that 40% of the proceeds from the sales of abandoned properties, after all expenses related to the sales have been paid, be allocated to the New Church Development and Congregational Revitalization Fund of the Annual Conference. (2002 Conference Journal, page 244 - "Recommendations from the Conference Treasurer").

FINALLY, BE IT RESOLVED that the Annual Conference authorize the Annual Conference Board of Trustees, upon recommendation of the Cabinet, to disburse up to $50,000 a year of those funds between sessions of the Annual Conference. Said disbursement is to be reported to the Annual Conference at its next regularly scheduled session.

Resolution Number 6
Unlawful Appropriation of Church Property

WHEREAS, at the 1970 through 2015 annual meetings of the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, certain Resolutions were adopted with reference to the unlawful appropriation by former members and Trustees of local church congregations of real and personal property formerly used in the ministry of The United Methodist Church (said Resolutions being 1970 Resolution No. 4; 1973 Resolution Nos. 5 and 12; 1974 Resolution No. 17; 1975 Resolution No. 22; 1976 Resolution No. 23; 1977 Resolution No. 17; 1978, 1979 and 1980 Resolution No. 11; 1981 Resolution No. 2; 1982 Resolution No. 7; 1983 Resolution No. 2; 1984 Resolution No. 2; 1985 Resolution No. 9; 1986 Resolution No. 11; 1987 Resolution No. 7; 1988 Resolution No. 9; 1989 Resolution No. 5; 1990 Resolution No. 1; 1991 Resolution No. 17; 1992 Resolution No. 11; 1993 Resolution No. 3; 1994 Resolution No. 4; 1995 Resolution No. 2; 1996 Resolution No. 5; 1997 Resolution No. 4; 1998 Resolution No. 2; 1999 Resolution No. 7; 2000 Resolution No.2; and 2001 Resolution No. 8; and 2002 Resolution No. 3; 2003 Resolution No. 7; 2004 Resolution No. 7; 2005 Resolution No.7; and 2006 Resolution No. 7; 2007 Resolution No.11; 2008 Resolution No.7; 2009 Resolution No. 5; 2010 Resolution No. 5; 2011 Resolution No. 7; 2012 Resolution No. 7; and 2013 Resolution No. 4; 2014 Resolution No. 5; and 2015 Resolution No. 6 (hereinafter sometimes referred to as the “1970 through 2015 Resolutions”); and

WHEREAS, said 1970 through 2015 Resolutions authorized, empowered and directed the Board of Trustees of the Annual Conference to take such action as might be necessary to establish the legal rights of The United Methodist Church in and to all of the real and personal property formerly used in the ministry of The United Methodist Church or its predecessors, which had been or might thereafter be unlawfully appropriated and made provisions as to the disposition of such property and the proceeds thereof; and

WHEREAS, the Conference has heretofore paid and will be hereafter obligated to pay legal fees, expenses and court costs in connection with litigation instituted and to be instituted by the Board of Trustees pursuant to said Resolutions and it is the opinion of this Annual Conference that the proceeds of any sale, lease or other dispositions of any such real or personal property coming into the hands of said Board of Trustees should be used to reimburse the Conference for any such legal fees, expenses and court costs heretofore or hereafter paid by the Conference and authority for such use of said proceeds was contained in said 1970 through 2015 Resolutions, which use this Conference desires to ratify and confirm by this Resolution, all as hereinafter provided.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED by the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church as follows:

1. That the Board of Trustees of this Annual Conference after establishing and securing its ownership of and title to any real and personal property formerly used in the ministry of The United Methodist Church, or its predecessors, by any local church as a result of action under and pursuant to any of the above-mentioned Resolutions or this Resolution, shall report thereon to the Bishop of this Annual Conference and Bishop's Cabinet who are hereby expressly authorized and empowered on behalf of this Annual Conference to direct whatever disposition is to be made of said real and personal property, including without limitation, the right to authorize said Board of Trustees to sell any or all of said real or personal property or to enter into appropriate agreements as to the use thereof as in the judgment of said Trustees and said Bishop and Cabinet would-best preserve said property from loss, damage or destruction and provide for its use in accordance with the best interests of and subject to the usage and discipline of The United Methodist Church.
2. That the funds derived from any sale, lease or other disposition of any real or personal property recovered by or coming into the possession of the Board of Trustees as a result of action taken under and pursuant to said 1970 through 2015 Resolutions or this Resolution shall be remitted to the Treasurer of this Annual Conference and be by him deposited in a special account in the name of the Board of Trustees of the West Virginia Annual Conference; and that the Treasurer be and is hereby authorized from time to time to use said funds to the extent necessary to reimburse the Annual Conference for funds heretofore or hereinafter paid by the Conference for legal fees, expenses and court costs in connection with action taken under and pursuant to said 1970 through 2015 Resolutions or this Resolution; that any balance in said special account from time to time in excess of that required to meet anticipated payments shall be invested by the Treasurer in accordance with the direction of the Board of Trustees; and that the Board of Trustees shall report to each Annual Conference hereafter the balance in such special account.
3. That except as heretofore and herein modified, said 1970 through 2015 Resolutions shall be and remain in full force and effect.
4. That if, prior to the next regular meeting of this Annual Conference, any local church within the bounds of this Conference, or any such of the members of the congregations of any such church, should withdraw or declare their intention of withdrawing from The United Methodist Church and retain or seek to retain possession and control of or otherwise appropriate real or personal property formerly used by such local church in the ministry of The United Methodist Church or its predecessors, such local church is hereby declared to no longer serve the purpose for which it was organized, and, therefore, is deemed to be abandoned as a local church in the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, and the Board of Trustees of this Annual Conference is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to take such action as may be necessary to establish the legal rights of The United Methodist Church in and to such real and personal property,

- and to eliminate all claims of any and all persons asserting a right of ownership or right of possession adverse to the rights of this Annual Conference including the authority, upon the advice of counsel, to institute legal proceedings and pursue said proceedings to the extent necessary to conclude the issues with finality; and that such real or personal property or the proceeds thereof coming into the possession of said Board of Trustees shall be disposed of, administered, managed and invested as provided in this Resolution.
5. That until the next regular meeting of this Annual Conference the presiding Bishop and Bishop's Cabinet are hereby further authorized, empowered and directed on behalf of this Annual Conference to take any and all such action and to instruct said Board of Trustees to take any and all such action. In addition to the actions hereby authorized, as said Bishop and Cabinet may deem necessary and appropriate to safeguard and protect the interests and rights of this Annual Conference and The United Methodist Church with respect to any real or personal property now or formerly or hereafter used by any local church within the bounds of this Annual Conference.

Resolution Number 7

Parsonage Allowances - Clergy in Extension Ministries

(Also Appears in CFA Report)

WHEREAS, The West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church is the qualified employing organization of its clergy; and

WHEREAS, The Internal Revenue Code, Section 107, provides for clergy to exclude (a) the rental value of a home furnished as part of compensation, and (b) the rental allowance paid as part of compensation, to the extent used to rent or provide a home,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that in the calendar year 2017, the actual expense for housing, not to exceed $18,000, be designated as the parsonage allowance excludable under Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as part of the compensation of clergy employed by the West Virginia Conference in positions other than local churches such as Director of Administrative Services, Conference Secretary, Conference Staff, and Administrators of Conference Programs and Projects. District Superintendents shall have $4,000 be designated as the parsonage exclusion excludable under Section 107 of the Internal Revenue Code as part of the compensation of clergy employed by the West Virginia Annual Conference in positions other than local churches.

AGENCIES OF THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE
(Listed alphabetically by area of accountability)
Commission on Archives and History

First of all, please join with the Commission in helping celebrate the 125th Anniversary of West Virginia Wesleyan College, one of our Annual Conference Historic Sites! Wesleyan, a figurative “Home Among The Hills” for many of us, is a literal home among the hills for our Annual Conference Archives which are housed on the second floor of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Library. The College graciously provides the space and Brett Miller, Wesleyan’s Archivist, is currently assisting with plans to transfer our collection to a different area on the second floor and, in the process, better arrange areas for research, media conversion, and basic storage.

During this past year, the Commission adopted an “Archives Collecting Policy & Collection Access Policy/Usage Agreement” as well as an “Archives Deaccession Procedure” with the goal of identifying objects that will help document Methodism in the West Virginia Conference while at the same time, in the interest of being good stewards of available space, declining to receive materials that are not relevant to the collection.

Questions about the relevance of any proposed donation to the Conference Archives should be addressed to Brett Miller, Wesleyan Archivist, Annie Merner Pfeiffer Library, 59 College Avenue, Buckhannon, WV 26201.

Brett was honored in Charleston during the West Virginia Legislature’s 2016 History Day at the Capitol by being named a 2016 History Hero for his work as College Archivist, resource volunteer for the Upshur County Historical Society, Archivist for the West Virginia United Methodist Conference and other relevant activities.

With the assistance of Work Study students at Wesleyan, and in cooperation with Rev. Cliff Schell and records of Annual Conference Trustees, Brett is preparing a list of closed, merged or sold churches within our Annual Conference from 1943 through 2015.

Throughout this year, files of all local churches are being transferred to new folders and each congregation is invited to provide the Commission with up to date history information.

In addition to concentrating on the Archives Collection at Wesleyan, the Commission has continued to give attention to ongoing responsibilities relative to Rehoboth Heritage Landmark, the Hamrick Barn, Portia Hamrick Trust with the United Methodist Foundation and plans for hosting the 2017 Annual Conference of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Commission on Archives and History.

The Commission expresses appreciation that the 2015 Session of the Annual Conference approved our request that four at-large member positions of Commission membership be replaced with four ex-officio positions: Director of the Annie Merner Pfeiffer Library, Wesleyan’s Archivist, and the President and Secretary/Treasurer of the Historical Society of the West Virginia Annual Conference.

Christian Unity and Inter-Religious Concerns

In 2015 Christian Unity and Interreligious Concerns continued to work with the Faith and Order division of the West Virginia Council of Churches to seek ways for an ecumenical forum for young adults, particularly college age students. Christian Unity was represented at the Annual Assembly of the Council of Churches, the West Virginia Council of Churches Board retreat at Huttonsville, all other meetings of The West Virginia Council of Churches, and meetings of Faith and Order.

Denominational dialogues continue between United Methodists in West Virginia and a variety of other denominations. We are excited to have been granted entry into the LARC (Lutheran-Anglican-Roman Catholic) dialogue(s), now renamed LARCUM (Lutheran – Anglican – Roman Catholic – United Methodist) and we have participated for the last two years.

In April 2015, I attended the National Workshop on Christian Unity in Charlotte, North Carolina, and by the time this report is printed will have attended the 2016 NWCU in Louisville, Kentucky.

Respectfully Submitted,
Timothy Allen, Chairperson

Conflict Transformation

The Conflict Transformation Team began in 2001 under the leadership of Bishop S. Clifton Ives who was very aware of the need for a group of trained individuals who could work in conflicted church situations, including those which a bishop and cabinet member are not seen as impartial, or in situations where a bishop and cabinet member are parties to the conflict, or where the bishop and cabinet want to use the expertise of a trained Team.

Since its beginning, Team Consultants have been trained by staff of JustPeace Center for Mediation and Conflict Transformation (Washington, DC) and the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center (Lombard, IL).

Consultants are available to visit your congregation to prevent destructive conflict; help people engage conflict constructively; teach strategies to engage the present crisis and in doing so, prepare for any future conflicts.

Currently the Team offers: Mediation, Facilitation of Large Groups in Dialogue, Facilitation of Circles of Healing and Accountability and Consultation. The model uses clergy and laity, who not only are trained in conflict management/transformation, but may have experience in labor arbitration, mediation and ethics.

Coordination of assignments is handled through the Coordinator who is contacted by a districts superintendent or pastor to assist in addressing the organizational development needs of congregations and/or agencies within the WV Annual Conference. The Conference has established a fee standard for these services, which are paid by the church or other parties.

As of this date, thirty West Virginia conference churches and/or church-related agencies have been served by Team Consultants to help reconcile conflicts, transform congregations and provide education. Five consultations were held during the 2014-2015 church year.

You are encouraged to contact the Team Coordinator, Rev. Janet Harman at 304/343-2115 for further information.

Congregational Development

In almost every congregation the pastor and church leaders will say they want their churches to grow. Yet we continue to struggle to see this become a reality. We changed our mission statement to the statement we currently have, "To Make Disciples of Jesus Christ for the Transformation of the World." However, for the most part we continue to operate under the Membership Model from the 1950's. Now, 20 years after adopting the new mission statement, 80% of our churches are still declining or plateaued.

The Congregational Development Team is following the lead of several transformation leaders (Doug Anderson, Bob Farr, Gil Rendle, Reggie McNeal, Robert Schnase) and others that are communicating what it looks like to grow churches and conferences in the current situation. We are continually looking for ways that will help leaders and churches reach the rapidly changing culture we are dealing with today.

Listed below are some of the topics and ideas that today's transitional leaders are teaching and seeing work in growing, vibrant, fruitful churches:

- Identify your mission field
- Understanding present reality of local church
- Pastors learning new skills;
 - Pastor as leader not manager
 - Networking methods for pastors
 - Continuous learning in peer group
 - Coaching for performance
- Leadership training (new learning);
 - The return to spiritual formation
 - Disciples making disciples
 - Coaching for leaders and churches
 - Networking methods for laity

- Accountability
- Practicing radical hospitality
- Fruitful measurement

The local church is key to all we do in mission. Therefore, we must learn from what is working to allow us to make an impact toward the transformation that is so desperately needed today. The Congregational Development Team is available to work with those churches that want to connect with their communities and make a difference.

In 2015, we helped 17 new users identify their mission field through the powerful research tool MissionInsite. We now have a total of 164 registered users. If you are interested in this research tool contact Amy Shanholtzer at the conference office. You can find more information about MissionInsite on page 27 of the Conference Workbook

Last year we helped to provide coaching for two larger churches that are growing and added a third Sunday morning worship service. One recipient said, "The coaching experience has been better than any conference I've ever attended." We also utilized Jim Griffith for "Exploring Your Ministry Style" workshops with the spring Residency class and Little Kanawha District. A third area where we use coaching is in the "New Places for New People"/or "Grow Your Church" program for seven churches last year.

One of our most exciting ventures is the Ignite Morgantown ministry that continues to move forward reaching WVU students and young adults in Morgantown. Ignite has helped to nurture one worship leader who has left his secular job and taken a job in Kentucky as a worship leader on staff at a church. They have identified students who are called to ministry. Students are leading Bible studies in their homes and inviting dorm friends to worship. We are grateful for the work that Matt and Beth Johnson are doing in this area.

The Lay Mobilization Institute discipleship training process is underway with six teams participating. This training is going back to our "Wesleyan Roots" of disciples making disciples in a small covenant group. This is one of the first endeavors in our conference to use the L3 process at the local church level.

The Kingdom Builders is a new ministry opportunity that is developing out of the earlier work of the Builders Club. We've made the change from Church Builders to Kingdom Builders to represent a shift in focus. Our current focus is on building God's Kingdom, and less on the construction of buildings. The Kingdom Builders funds will allow us to support emerging ministry opportunities that demonstrate fruitful outcomes. We have partnered with the United Methodist Foundation in order to make online and regular giving to the Kingdom Builders a possibility.

We are also in the process of looking at what a welcoming congregation looks like.

The Congregational Development Team wants to help churches, pastors and laity to learn essential methods and have the tools they need to meet today's unique challenges to make disciples for the transformation of the world. If we can be of some help contact Amy Shanholtzer (ashanholtzer@wvumc.org) or myself (fishcoal@cwv.net). You can do it and we can help.

J.F. Lacia

Director of Connectional Ministries

I thought it good fortune to go to the Magic Monastery for Christmas. But at the foot of the hill sat a blind beggar, and when I drew near to give him some money, I heard him ask, "Who will lead me into the heart of God?"

I couldn't go on. Who would lead him into the heart of God?

I sat down in front of him. I took his hands. "Together," I said. "Together we'll go into the heart of God."

[from Tales of a Magic Monastery, Theophane the Monk, (New York: The Crossroad Publishing Company), 1981.

Who will lead us into the heart of God? Who will lead you? Who will you lead? Yes, who will lead us into the heart of God for are we not all blind beggars who Christ calls into the heart of God?

This brief story from Tales of the Magic Monastery is one of the heart stories of the Mission of Peace, the annual pilgrimage of young people seeking to discover the heart of God in new places and with new people. It can be our heart story too if we consider each one of our daily walks with Christ as a new pilgrimage to new places and new people where we extend our good news to others who live outside the heart of God. Then, together, we lead others into the heart of God.

With a goal of 2400 new professions of faith, our annual conference is inviting and witnessing to neighbors, modeling a life that reflects the heart of God; a life that is passionate about the Church as the place where faith is best lived out.

The vision of the West Virginia Conference is to be a Christ-led spiritual breath of fresh air that transforms the world. The Director of Connectional Ministry serves the annual conference as the steward of the vision, leading the conference through transformation and renewal in order that the church will stay faithful to Christ in a changing world, aligning the conference's resources with the vision, and helping connect the local church to the parish, the district, the conference, and the global church.

This past conference year has involved many transformations in the structures that support our ministries: Following the decision to "shutter" Spring Heights Camp during the coldest months of the year, we reopened camp under new leadership from Amy Mullins, the Site Manager for the Conference's largest piece of property. Amy jumped right into her new position, hiring staff and directing a successful camping season that left us in the best financial shape we have been in for many years. With the Trustees, we have built up Spring Heights reserves through the careful management of its salable resources.

Complementing this shift in personnel in January of this year we hired Shea James to be Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries. She is an elder in the Kentucky Conference who has entered this newest conference staff position which increases our capacity to bring all outdoor ministries under one umbrella of planning and management, while remaining nimble as we lead youth through faith and disciple formation. Shea James, Joe Hill, conference youth coordinator, Lauren Shanholtzer, CCYM president, and the other members of the youth council are a strong team of leaders moving youth ministry to new heights. The Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia, a year-round commitment to spiritual mentoring; Rally on the Mountain, our summer conference coming soon to Snowshoe Mountain; and After the Altar Call: Confirming Your Faith, our own published confirmation resources, are three expressions of the opportunities we are providing for faith formation and increasing the number of young people making professions of faith.

After the departures of Laura Allen, Director of Communication, and Adam Cunningham, Communications Specialist, the Covenant Council Leadership Team and members of the Communications Lead Team conducted a nationwide search for a Director of Communications. Whitney Cherry was hired as the Acting Director of Communications as we continued our negotiations to hire Deborah Coble as the full time director. Deborah is an elder serving Waverly United Methodist Church in Waverly, Iowa, and will join our staff when her pastoral responsibilities conclude in her current appointment, July 1, 2016. I am very excited about the future of communications for our conference.

I celebrate the formation of the Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM), a conference agency that was approved by the conference early in this quadrennium and is rapidly reaching maturity. The formation of a CONAM is a complex matter that requires the participation of First Nation people, many from outside the UMC. We have excellent leadership and networking capacity in Ellesa High, chair of CONAM and faculty in the Native American Studies Department at WVU. Under her leadership, the WV CONAM has provided ministry and comfort to Native people here and on reservations far removed from our Conference. We are also honored to be the host Conference for the upcoming gathering of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries Committee in October in Wheeling, WV. During our session of Annual Conference this year we will gather for a Service of Reconciliation and Repentance in order to face the harsh realities of our history and commit to turn and tread new pathways that are directed toward the Beloved Community that God and Christ intends for all Creation.

In 2013, our vision for the Annual Conference session was New Beginnings, and from that point we have followed the Spirit's call to Discover, Develop and Deploy passionate spiritual leaders who are committed to make disciples of others. Together, we go into the heart of God. Within our strategies of deployment resides the task of nominating people to serve on our conference agencies. I have had the privilege of facilitating the Nominations Operational Team, a very special team of clergy and laity that wrestles with the more difficult questions that surround the work of nominations, e.g., discovering new leaders, developing leaders into the best they can be, helping every leader find their best place of service, helping servants end their time of service well.

Connectional Ministries

In my role as Assistant to the Bishop I have undertaken many different tasks that Bishop Sandra has assigned, and I have represented our annual conference at various gatherings of the denominational assistants. I continue my service to West Virginia Wesleyan College as a member of the Board of Trustees. I will be attending General Conference as an alternate to our delegation and Jurisdictional Conference as a delegate. I have remained very active in Cross Lanes United Methodist Church, preparing the liturgy for the first service, playing in the early worship band and teaching an adult Sunday School Class.

As the 2012-2016 quadrennium comes to a close, I give thanks to God for all the wonderful leaders that have supported me and blessed our Annual Conference: Marsha Murray, convener of the Covenant Council, Kim Matthews, Rick Sale, and Pat Mick, the other members of the Covenant Council Leadership Team. I am blessed with marvelous staff persons not yet mentioned, leaders who are deeply devoted to the local church, excellence in clergy and lay leadership, a conference that is diverse and inclusive reflecting Creation in its multiplicity. Amy Shanholtzer, Bonnie MacDonald, and Felica Wooten-Williams are your staff, working for your churches and our conference and a renewed United Methodist Church. In all the work we do we are provided great support by Chris Ridgway and Karen Thaxton, our Administrative Assistants. We said goodbye to Thomasina Stewart as she retired from the staff at the end of last year, but she has not gone far: Thomasina and I will be teaching The Bible and Human Sexuality during Mission U, the summer study of United Methodist Women.

Finally, let me say what an enormous privilege it has been to serve the West Virginia Conference as Director of Connectional Ministries. Alongside Jim Berner and under the direction of Bishop Steiner Ball, I have been blessed ten times over, following in the footsteps of so many great leaders. This June my responsibilities will shift to the work of the Assistant to the Bishop and Ken Krimmel will come to be the Director of Connectional Ministries. He will be an excellent director as he was an excellent Dean of the Cabinet for the past four years. There is no place of service that I can imagine that provides a greater blessing as service within the West Virginia Annual Conference; so, together, let us go into the heart of God.

Whitney Cherry Communications Specialist

“The two words ‘information’ and ‘communication’ are often used interchangeably, but they signify quite different things. Information is giving out; communication is getting through.”

—Sydney J. Harris, American Journalist

In such a noisy communications environment, it is the hope of the communications team to break through the idea of only sending out information and to reach all people, in every church and every community, to share our story and spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ. And now more than ever, with the 2400+ Initiative in full swing, we feel that it is our mission to disperse Conference information.

The Communications Team has expanded greatly since 2015 and will continue to develop into 2017. We are blessed to have a Communications Lead Team, and District Communications Coordinators around the Conference helping to tell our story, take photos, write copy, and share our vision.

The world of communications is truly changing every day! No longer is it a behind the scenes function writing press releases. Today, communications is one of the most critical and visible functions within a successful organization. The importance of the church’s strategic communications function is vital to a spiritually healthy Annual Conference.

As a new communicator for the Conference, I am in the process of doing research to understand what people are concerned about and what faith means to them. With a vast amount of information sent out on a daily basis, we are trying our best to be relevant and compelling in our messaging.

People are undoubtedly using social media, along with email, blogs, and any other news source on the Internet. If we aren’t present in this wider environment where people are, then we are not communicating with them. We are developing our social media and Conference website presence to reach a more electronic generation, as well as keeping our print pieces intact for those who prefer tangible material.

With the arrival of our new Director of Communications, the Rev. Deborah Coble, on July 1, 2016, I foresee us continuing to create and collect content related to faith and spirituality, and sharing that content so that people can get the most relevant information about Christian faith and the perspectives of The United Methodist Church on important issues we face in the world in a more interactive and visual way.

Rev. Shea James

Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries

Hello! Though I'm new to the conference, in many ways it is good to be home. I'm originally from Stockport, Ohio - just a 45-minute drive from Parkersburg. It warms my heart and soul to be back in the land of pepperoni rolls, egg noodles, and venison jerky. While my taste buds have rejoiced at being reunited with all this delicious food, I'm still experiencing a learning curve as I live into this new position.

As the Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries, my position is filled with different responsibilities, many of which I'm only beginning to understand. Thus far, I've enjoyed meeting with the Conference Council on Youth Ministry and hearing about their hopes and dreams for youth ministry in the conference. This summer the youth celebration has been shaped by the ideas and the pioneering spirit of our CCYM. Giving them more room and voice in the planning process has led us to try a fresh approach and a new location. Our summer event will be held at Snowshoe Mountain July 14-17, 2016, and is going to be called Rally on the Mountain, the theme is Change 2016. Youth will eat meals with their local churches which can be prepared in their rooms at Snowshoe because every room comes with a fully equipped kitchen (including pots and pans, utensils, etc)! Groups can join together for meals and lodging purposes. Don't be afraid to get creative! For more information, please visit the website www.wvumc.org/about/youth/ROM.

Fall workshop will be November 18-20, 2016 at Cedar Lakes Camp. The theme for this year will be announced July 1. For more information, please visit the youth section of the conference website.

Another source of joy has been connecting with our outdoor ministries. Spring Heights is geared up for another wonderful summer of camp. Amy Mullins served as our Interim Director from March through December 2015, and because of her leadership the camp came through the summer of 2015 strong. She is passionate about Spring Heights and her skills will continue to serve her well as the camp's site manager. Asbury Woods continues to grow and reach out to more campers each year. Recent renovations make the property a year round retreat center and they are looking forward to utilizing the property every season. Crossroads Camp in the Little Kanawha District is blessed to have increased camper involvement and to have wonderful volunteers. Please learn more in the reports found in Outdoor Ministries.

If you take a moment to look around at Conference, you'll see the faces of young people. These fine folks are our Youth Members of Conference, and our pages. They are here to learn and to serve. These faithful youth want to be here because they care about the church, and it is my honor to work with them! Give them a high-five, pat on the back, or a "well-done" with a smile.

The more I learn about the wonderful people and ministries of the West Virginia Conference, the more excited I am to be a part of the good work being done here!

Bonnie G. MacDonald

Director of Leadership Formation and Ministry Support

As I complete my third year in this role, I am happy that West Virginia is my home conference, and consider myself blessed with the ministry I have been given. I am grateful to be part of a conference that wants to be a “spiritual breath of fresh air bringing transformation to God’s people, the church, and the world” (see the Bishop’s opening letter).

My contribution to this vision focuses on how we can most effectively develop transformational leaders who create disciples and thus impact their communities with the love of Christ. This is an exciting, challenging question, which has involved many people praying, learning, reflecting, and taking steps to turn us in the direction of this kind of leadership development. Here are some hopeful examples from 2015-16:

- The Develop Team, a child team (sub-group) of the Bishop’s Lead Team, has claimed its vision of a culture of leadership development is hopeful, innovative, invitational, and generative, believing culture change is essential to developing transformational lay and clergy leaders in the West Virginia Conference. This team will continue to work to bring this vision to reality. Members of the team include David Donathan, Steve Hamrick, Martha Hill, Junius Lewis, Marsha Murray, and Scott Sears. Felica Wooten Williams also served on this team throughout 2015.
- The Effective Ministry Assessment through Covenant process in the Northern, Southern and Little Kanawha Districts is teaching our full-time pastors and SPPRC committees about ministry leadership within the context of covenant and the Body of Christ. I am hopeful and excited about what we will learn from this newly revised online covenant-based assessment. We hope to utilize this same assessment on a rolling basis in the remaining districts over the next three years.
- Our Conference Candidacy Retreats, held twice yearly, continue to be fruitful opportunities for those exploring their ministry calling. Participants, placed in a mentor groups for sharing and discernment, have the opportunity to share their experience of God’s calling with others. For some, this is the first time to have their experience and gifts validated by those outside their church or small community. Some participants hear their calling to licensed pastoral ministry confirmed, others are guided toward ordination, and still others pursue faithful lay leadership. Many discover resources for support they did not know existed. In 2015, 26 participated in two retreats. Who do you know that might need encouragement to pursue their calling?

I am blessed to support the calling, candidacy, credentialing, continuing formation, and changes in conference relationship for clergy through the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry (BOOM) and our District Committees on Ministry. From the person exploring a sense of calling to the clergy person preparing to retire, this Board and its DCOMs carefully support those whom God calls to many forms of ministry leadership.

Connectional Ministries

I also celebrate ministry happening on campuses throughout West Virginia. Campus ministry changes lives! All of us can support campus ministry through our prayers and financially. If your congregation is anywhere near an existing campus ministry, I urge you to make contact and find out how you can help. If there is a campus near you without an existing United Methodist presence, yours may be the congregation that can offer a home away from home for students who need to know someone cares. Need resources or ideas? I'd be happy to help.

I look forward to what's next for us as we continue to develop disciples who become leaders: who burst forth, bringing that spiritual breath of fresh air; leaders that reflect a culture that is hopeful, innovative, invitational, and generative. I look forward to working with each of you!

Rev. Amy Shanholtzer

Director of Evangelism and Congregational Development

The view from my seat – usually the car window – is always changing. I see so many parts of this Annual Conference each month that make me grow to love this place and the people here even more. I am always amazed at the courageous and creative acts that people are taking in order to reach people in Jesus' name. I love hearing people ask for ideas, best practices and the expertise of others who are trying something new. It's a pleasure to search for resources for churches seeking to try a new project.

In the midst of creativity and innovation, I believe that there are a few constants. At the center of any healthy, transformative body of Christ are leaders who dedicate themselves to God and one another, allowing God to transform their hearts and open their eyes to vision and mission.

“Leaders in the church should not have disciples. When they do, the community of faith all too often degenerates into a personality cult. When the leader leaves, the church falls apart. The leader's call is not to gather people around himself or herself, but to gather them around Jesus. The word disciple implies a teacher. It is not the leader, but Christ the teacher, at whose feet the disciples – and the leader – also need to sit.” (Michael W. Foss, Power Surge: Six Marks of Discipleship for a Changing Church, Augsburg Fortress, 2000, pg. 85)

The systems and process that work most effectively for long-term health and growth of the church have at their center a group of leaders who pray, study, are personally accountable to one another and self-less about the things they need to do in response to God's calling. It's a model that gave rise to The United Methodist Church and one that we need to reclaim.

Connectional Ministries

The Evangelism Team has focused much of its work in this manner over the last several years. Facilitators have been meeting with the McDowell County Lead Team, as they seek to bring connection between community outreach ministries, area churches and community needs. They are hoping to fill in the gaps and connect people as they seek the best for their local area.

Congregational Development is pleased to see the first cohort of the Lay Mobilization Institute take place in the Southern District with 6 charges, including one church from the Western District, engaged in coaching. We're excited to see how the L3 process works in this way, facilitated with tools from Spiritual Leadership, Inc., and Asbury Theological Seminary. We are also planning for another cohort in the coming year.

Coaching has become an important factor to assist churches along their transformation journey. The presence of some outside eyes that can see the field differently has proven invaluable as churches have taken next steps in their transformation journey. The follow-up coaching to "Grow Your Church" - "Reaching New People" and "Reaching Younger Adults" - has enabled churches to implement the new things that they learn, ask questions, deal with bumps in the road and accomplish forward progress. We have studied churches who attended the workshops. They have shared with us that without coaching, little changes.

We are also continuing to look for opportunities to create new ministries that might develop into new faith communities and churches. The work that Matt Johnson is doing with Ignite Morgantown is showing us a new way to create community and reach millennials. We are grateful for all that he is doing and for the partnership of Suncrest UMC in this new effort. In several areas of the conference, folks are considering the creation of new faith communities in buildings that once served other congregations. We seek to learn from that work and find ways to come alongside as a partner in support. Several places are seeking to create communities that will focus on recovery ministries for people overcoming addiction.

The Congregational Development team has also begun an effort to rework the Builders Club. The new name, Kingdom Builders, is reflective of our focus on building up the kingdom, rather than the construction of new buildings. We've partnered with the UM Foundation of WV, Inc., to offer online and mail opportunities for contributions, seeking to grow our financial abilities to support new ministries and faith communities. Our vision is to one day have this movement undergirded by an endowment that will provide funds for new ministries. If you would like to have more information or become a Kingdom Builder, please look for our display at the Ministry Fair or contact Amy Shanholtzer or Les Fish or the UM Foundation at info@umfwv.org.

We are working on some future projects as well. We'd like to find a tool that will help churches discover their current reality in such a way that we can guide them to a process that helps at the appropriate point in time in the church's life. We are also working on a potential tool that will help churches look at their hospitality ministries to get an objective look and some tools to improve.

Connectional Ministries

I continue to be involved in the adaptive work that the Conference is doing to assess our own strengths and needs through the L3 process, seeking to discover, develop and deploy spiritual leaders. The Discover Team is forming at this time. It's an exciting group to be with. I also helped to shepherd the development of the confirmation resource that is available on the website. This was a faithful, dedicated group that attempted to develop a useful, free resource that would especially help small churches. The group would love to have your feedback about the resource, as it was written with adaptability in mind. Ultimately, it is our hope that this will help more people begin their journey with Christ.

I'm excited and hopeful about the efforts and transformation that I see happening in many, many places across the conference. Churches are finding ways to create new spaces to welcome new people and address the pain in their communities. If there are ways that I can be helpful, please contact me – ashanholtzer@wvumc.org or one of the chairs of the teams with which I work – Les Fish (Congregational Development) at fishcoal@cwv.net or Okey Harless (Evangelism) at okeyharless@suddenlinkmail.com. Thank you for the privilege of doing this work.

Rev. Dr. Felica Wooten Williams Director of Diversity and Inclusion

Greetings! I currently serve as the Conference's part-time, interim Director of Diversity and Inclusion as well as pastor of Simpson Memorial United Methodist Church and St. Stephen's United Methodist Church in Charleston, WV.

Allow me to begin this report by noting that I am proud to be a coal miner's daughter. My father was a coal miner and the music director in our church. My family was actively involved in the church and my parents taught me to always seek a closer walk with God. We had and still maintain strong ties with Christian friends in various denominations throughout the state of West Virginia and beyond. Yet, growing up in the coalfields of southern West Virginia in the 1960s and 1970s, I had no idea that The United Methodist Church was open to African Americans. Subconsciously, I thought that it was an exclusively White denomination. In those days, I didn't give much thought to this perceived exclusivity because in my hometown we were unaware of any minorities who attended The United Methodist Church; thus, it was somewhat irrelevant. During my college years, I became vaguely aware of the UMC because a close friend attended Simpson Memorial United Methodist Church in Charleston, WV. By providence, I became acquainted with the UMC in adulthood. This causes me to pause, ponder and wonder. Selah.

Connectional Ministries

While it seems that eons have passed since I was a child, is it possible that people in contemporary society still remain unaware of the church with “open hearts, open minds and open doors?” How many people are missing the opportunity to engage in United Methodist ministry simply because they do not know that our churches are open to all people? I dare say that I am not an anomaly and that many minorities in the West Virginia Conference have no idea that they are welcome in our churches, in our monolithic shrines or in our mostly homogeneous congregations. One might argue that counties in our Conference have so few minorities that it is difficult to reach them. Wouldn't it be amazing to put as much effort into reaching people across town or across the railroad tracks as we put into reaching people across the oceans or around the world? So, the question of the moment is: how do we reach diverse populations right here in our own hometowns? How do we reach people across the social strata who differ in terms of race, ethnicity, gender, age, socioeconomic status, physical ability, and so forth? How do we embrace people who differ from the typical congregation in the West Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church to raise up a new generation of diverse leaders who will advance the legacy of United Methodism as a reflection of God's beloved community?

Considering these types of concerns, Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball hosted The Bishop's Summit on Diversity and Inclusion on October 22 - 24, 2015. Bishop Steiner Ball stated that “The Summit was an invitation to people of faith to step up to the plate and live into the image in which we are created, the image of God. God creates diversity, loves diversity, values diversity.” Through the Summit, Bishop Steiner Ball encouraged people in the West Virginia Conference to “intentionally work at building relationships. Through relationships we can come to know people, all kinds of people, as those who also are created in the image of God, people who are sacred, holy, beloved, and valuable.” Despite our outward differences, we are unified through our inward personal relationships with God by faith in Jesus Christ. Our faith in the Lord is our commonality or what we have in common; that is, our faith in Jesus Christ is our common culture. With Bishop Jonathan Holston as the primary teacher and preacher, the Summit focused on building relationships across the spectrum of differences in our communities and in our congregations. Participants were challenged to work together in a common culture of faith that is not divided along the lines of race, ethnicity, gender, age, socioeconomic status, physical ability, etc. Throughout the additional presentations from the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR), the General Board of Church and Society (GBCS), and various Conference representatives, empowerment was the operative word. Empowering all constituent groups is critically important in broadening the scope and reach of United Methodist ministries in our conference. Additionally, the program centered on making room at the table for diverse leaders by looking for potential in unexpected places and within unexpected people. The vision involves raising the lid to allow new leaders to leap to new heights of excellence.

Leadership development and intercultural competency will continue as themes in the Bishop's Summit on Diversity and Inclusion on September 16 and 17 of 2016. The 2016 Summit will take place at the Charleston Conference Center adjacent to the Holiday Inn situated at 400 2nd Ave, Charleston, WV 25303. The site is actually in South Charleston, but it has a Charleston address.

Connectional Ministries

In addition to designing, developing, and coordinating the Bishop's Summit on Diversity and Inclusion, I served on the Conference Nominations Committee, the Midland South District Lead Team in 2015 and the Conference Develop Team in 2015. The work involved Covenant Council, CCORR, and CONAM. I interacted with Rev. Giovanni Arroyo, GCORR's Team Leader for Program Ministries, to bring GCORR training to our Conference. I participated in the CCORR activities that re-established the West Virginia unit of Black Methodists for Church Renewal on September 12, 2015, and I am currently working with Dr. William White, WV-BMCR President, to acquire resources to assist our African American congregations. I attended the Transformational Leadership Conference of the Northeastern Jurisdiction (i.e., the See, Know, Love event in Hershey PA). I attended the annual meeting of the Northeastern Jurisdiction Native American Ministries Committee in New York. I was inducted into the West Virginia Wesleyan College Board of Trustees. I attended the annual joint meeting of the Cabinet, the Board of Ordained Ministry, and the Conference Commission on Religion and Race on October 25, 2015. I participated in the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR) Board of Directors Retreat on February 25-27, 2016 in Baltimore, Maryland. I presented information on diversity and inclusion to the Conference Nominations Committee and offered presentations to various agencies and boards. I also led a session on diversity and inclusion during the Pastor's Ministry Licensing School in April. The Diversity and Inclusion project in Basecamp continues as a mechanism for sharing information about issues and opportunities related to diversity within the Church. Please consider joining the project to learn more about ways to broaden the scope and reach of our Conference. I would also like to use the Basecamp project as a forum for sharing the innovative things pertaining to diversity and inclusion that are happening in our congregations and in the districts. In fact, I would like to showcase your efforts in next year's report. Moreover, it would be nice to have a Diversity and Inclusion Team in the future. If you are interested in joining the Basecamp group or serving on a team, please notify me via email to fwilliams@wvumc.org.

As the work ensues, I am increasingly concerned about the stained-glass ceiling in our conference. And, I wonder what can I do to make a difference? I ask you, what can WE do to improve conditions for diverse populations within the West Virginia Conference? If we keep doing what we have always done, we will keep getting what we have always gotten.

Episcopacy

The West Virginia Conference Committee on Episcopacy met three times during the past conference year, October 27, 2015, March 3, 2016, and May 31, 2016, for the important ministry of supporting, encouraging, and interpreting the work of Bishop Sandra L. Steiner Ball, Resident and Presiding bishop. We are grateful to God for her energy, vision, commitment, wisdom, and her positive spirit as she serves as our West Virginia Annual Conference Episcopal leader. She, and often with her husband Barry, has traveled throughout the Annual Conference visiting, preaching, teaching, and worshiping, demonstrating her commitment to be a leader who is among us in our places of worship and ministry. We appreciate her continued ministry and presence even as she mourns the loss of her mother, Marjorie Steiner, whose Memorial Service was celebrated January 28 in Delaware. Several members of the Episcopacy Committee, Cabinet, and Staff represented the Annual Conference at the service.

At each meeting we hear updates and concerns from Bishop Steiner Ball relating to: family, work and ministry since our last meeting, looking ahead to the next six months, Episcopal responsibilities beyond the Annual Conference, and any maintenance concerns at the Episcopal residence. We also discuss ways the committee may be helpful and supportive.

The committee affirmed Bishop Steiner Ball's division of her quadrennial Episcopal Renewal Leave July 29 through August 19, and December 14 through early January 2016. The division of the renewal time both accommodated her schedule and the leadership demands of our Annual Conference.

During the past year, Bishop Steiner Ball scheduled preaching/teaching events in each district, participated in a Cabinet Mission Trip to Haiti, met once a month for a day with an SLI covenant group with other bishops, met regularly with the Annual Conference Cabinet and Lead Team, led the Bishop's Summit on Diversity and Inclusion, served as a Trustee at West Virginia Wesleyan, served as a member of the Board of Directors of the United Methodist Foundation of WV, plus effectively cared for the day to day work and ministry of the office of resident bishop.

In the wider connection, our Bishop was chosen again to be one of the leaders of the District Superintendent/Director of Connectional Ministries Training held yearly at Lake Junaluska, as well as the New Bishop's Training Event. She is currently serving the second year of a two-year term as President of the Northeastern Jurisdiction College of Bishops. Bishop Steiner Ball is a member of the Worship Team for the 2016 General Conference and was on the planning team for "See, Know, Love," the NEJ Transformational Leadership Conference, held last fall in Hershey, PA. She was a presenter at Summer Institute 2015 sponsored by Collegiate United Methodist and UMCMA Institute for Community Engagement Wesley Downtown, Washington, D. C., the Holston Annual Conference Poverty Summit and the LARCUM Conference held in Charleston. In February, Bishop Steiner Ball was the inaugural lecturer at Dickinson College's Wesleyan Lecture Series, Carlisle, PA, her alma mater.

The quadrennial Episcopal Review and Evaluation document prepared by the Northeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy for the purpose of self-evaluation, assessment, enhancing and supporting the work of our Episcopal leader was completed by members of the committee, the extended Cabinet, members of the Bishop's Lead Team, District Lay Leaders, and the Chairs of the Order of Elders, Deacons, and the Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors. The "results" affirmed the positive leadership and ministry of the Bishop.

In preparation for the 2016 Northeastern Jurisdictional Conference to be held in Lancaster, PA, in July, the committee prepared a profile of the annual conference containing demographic information, ways the annual conference is responding to changing demographics, area strengths and weaknesses, how the conference is helping local congregations reach new, younger, and more diverse people, and needed characteristics desired in an Episcopal leader. Input was sought from the Cabinet and the Conference Staff, as well as Bishop Steiner Ball.

Officers of the committee are: Ellis Conley, Chair; Judi Kenaston, Vice-Chair, and Joe Hill, Secretary. Ellis Conley and Judi Kenaston also serve on the Northeastern Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy representing the West Virginia Annual Conference and will be involved in the assignment process for bishops within the jurisdiction at the NEJ Conference this summer. I am grateful for the honor as serving as the chair of the committee during this past quadrennium.

The committee continues to affirm the energetic, positive, and spirit-filled leadership of Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball as the West Virginia hills have become home to her and Barry. We give thanks that she is our Bishop.

Grace & freedom,
Ellis E. Conley, Chair

Equitable Compensation

Members of the West Virginia Annual Conference: I bid you greetings from the Equitable Compensation Team and praise God with thanksgiving for your dedication and determination to pay your apportioned gifts to the West Virginia Annual Conference. It is through this connectional giving that we are able to provide well educated and equitably compensated full-time clergy in all areas of our conference. Whether aid is long term, designed for growth, or short term emergency situations, we stand ready to help and support the local church.

The 2012 Book of Discipline charges the Commission on Equitable Compensation to support full-time clergy serving as pastors in the charges of the annual conference by: a) Recommending conference standards for pastoral support; b) Administering funds to be used in base compensation supplementation; and c) Providing counsel and advisory material on pastoral support to district superintendents and committees on pastor-parish relations. To fulfill these responsibilities, the West Virginia Conference Commission on Equitable Compensation meets twice a year to review applications from churches for assistance in meeting the base compensation for their pastors. A church wishing to make such an application should be in consultation with their superintendent. We monitor and distribute information, as needed, to the Bishop and Cabinet for help in the appointment process and long term strategy development of the West Virginia Annual Conference.

During the 2015 session of the West Virginia Annual Conference, the Equitable Compensation Team was asked to include in their report, the trending of claims and specifically the use of the reserve amounts for paying of claims. The table shown below will show the trends of the last five years of Equitable Compensation. Since Equitable Compensation operates on a claim basis, control of expenses is not an exact science and can differ from year to year without major indicators.

Budget	215,000	157,300	157,300	157,300	157,300	150,000
Received	183,665	137,942	137,103	138,400	137,737	131,831
Expended	173,871	158,248	138,429	178,066	205,802	154,310
Claimants	37	40	35	45	45	35
Yr. End Res.	463,293	442,988	441,662	401,996	333,931	311,452

As indicated by the chart, equitable compensation continues to grapple with less than expected revenue, more than expected claims and the need to draw down our reserve. We urge the Bishop and Cabinet to continue to work with charges to eliminate the need to rely on Equitable Compensation as a subsidy so that Equitable Compensation is more readily available for emergency situations. We are fortunate to have a reserve account well managed by our conference treasurer's office but this trend cannot continue.

Our thanks to the local churches of the West Virginia Annual Conference for the love and support you give the clergy families. The Equitable Compensation Team recommends and presents for adoption the following:

1. The Equitable Compensation budget for 2017 is set at $150,000.00.
2. The 2017 minimum salaries of full time appointed clergy are approved as follows:
 - Category I -- $36,000.00 Members in Full Connection; Provisional Members who are Seminary Graduates serving under full-time appointment (1992 Discipline) Commissioned Provisional Members who are Seminary Graduates serving under full-time appointment (2004 Discipline, ¶324, ¶325)
 - Category II -- $33,800.00 Associate Members
 - Category III -- $33,500.00 Full-time Local Pastors; Student Provisional Members; Student Associate Members
 - Category IV -- $29,900.00 Ministerial Students
3. Accountable Reimbursement Plan - The minimum amount for Accountable Reimbursement Plan will be $2000.00 per charge.

STANDARDS FOR CLERGY SUPPORT FOR FULL-TIME PASTORS OF THE WEST VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The West Virginia Annual Conference Standard of Clergy Support for Pastors appointed to a full-time ministry shall include the following:

- A parsonage furnished as recommended by the Conference Parsonage Standards.
- Parsonage utilities as defined by Conference Fiscal Policy #7.
- The means to participate in the Clergy Retirement Security Plan (CRSP)
- The means to participate in the Ministerial Pension Plan.
- The means to participate in the Comprehensive Protection Plan. · An "accountable reimbursement plan" (sometimes called an expense allowance) to cover the costs of a pastor's performance of pastoral duties including educational requirements.
- Base compensation for the work required and in consideration of ministerial competence, skill development, and years of experience.
- The means to participate in the conference sponsored hospital and medical insurance programs. NOTE: Where a charge elects to pay part or all of a pastor's self-employment tax the amount of that tax paid for the pastor by the charge shall be considered part of the base compensation. (This is in keeping with IRS regulations and provides for parity of compensation levels among charges.) If a charge elects to pay this optional amount for one pastor it shall be required to pay the same for any pastor appointed to the charge.

ELIGIBILITY/APPLICATION FOR EQUITABLE COMPENSATION: (Guidelines are established by the Annual Conference)

To be eligible for Equitable Compensation churches/charges shall: have a minimum of 125 members; pay 70% of the total compensation; be encouraged to pay their Fair Share Giving; submit to the Commission on Equitable Compensation:

- a. Charge Request Form
- b. The Budget adopted by the Church/Charge for the year, containing an accountable reimbursement plan for the pastors' expenditures
- c. Progress Report with plans for underwriting budget if it is first time pastor is receiving assistance be a full-time appointment having one pastor/ ministerial student, provided that no member in good standing, who is appointed to a pastoral charge, is denied the minimum base compensation. (2012 Book of Discipline paragraph 625.9)

GUIDELINES FOR PROCESSING FORMS: Every charge requesting compensation support for a pastor shall submit all forms listed under #4 above to their District Superintendent. These forms are to be submitted 6 weeks prior to the beginning of the appointive year or when a new appointment is made and assistance for financial support is needed to maintain the minimum compensation support set by the Annual Conference. Changes in classification must be cleared through the Board of Ordained Ministry upon recommendation of the District Committee and approved by ministerial members in Full Connection. The Time Table for processing of the charge request form by the charges is as follows:

MAY 15: The District Superintendents forward ALL forms to the Chairperson of the Equitable Compensation Commission

JUNE 15: The Chair of the Commission on Equitable Compensation will forward the forms to the Conference Treasurer's office for processing.

FALL: To expedite the processing of forms in a timely manner, District Superintendents shall place church/charge conferences that are requesting support from the Commission on Equitable Compensation at the beginning of their Charge Conference schedules.

DECEMBER 1: The District Superintendent shall process all new Charge Request Forms or Continuation Forms requesting financial assistance from the Commission on Equitable Compensation to the Chairperson of the Commission for processing and forwarding to the Conference Treasurer's Office. The pastor of each church/charge receiving compensation support shall also submit a Progress Report to the District Superintendent on or before December 1 of each year. Failure to process the Request Forms on time will cause a delay in payment of compensation to the pastor.

LIMITATIONS OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT: The maximum amount the Commission will pay to any one pastor is 30% of the total compensation (base compensation, medical insurance over 75%, personal pension contribution). No churches/charges or pastors receiving funds from General or Conference Board of Global Ministries, Black Ministries Fund, or any other Conference Agency for compensation support are eligible to receive funds from Equitable Compensation. The only exceptions to this rule will be churches receiving non-recurring grants from the General Board of Global Ministries for Church Extension.

EXPECTATIONS: Churches making application for supplement from the Equitable Compensation Fund shall: Assume an increasing share of total compensation in each of four years as follows: 75% the first year, 80% the second year, 85% the third year and 90% the fourth year. This effectively limits compensation support to four years for any particular charge. Initiate evangelism programs that will promote membership growth. Implement programs that are designed to meet the social, physical, and spiritual needs of church members as well as persons in the surrounding community. Develop an effective program of Christian stewardship. Pay the Fair Share Giving. Standards 1 through 5 are given provided that no member in good standing, who is appointed to a pastoral charge, is denied the minimum base compensation. (2012 Book of Discipline paragraph 625.9) The Commission on Equitable Compensation shall provide assistance to and monitoring of the progress of each church/charge receiving compensation support. A support team consisting of a District Superintendent, one member of the Commission on Equitable Compensation, and a member from the Lay Ministry Team responsible for stewardship shall be available to visit each church/charge upon their request.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS: The Commission on Equitable Compensation will cooperate with the Cabinet to provide support in making open/ethnic itinerancy appointments with $17,500 reserve for: meeting necessary expenses for making open/ethnic itinerancy appointments; provide compensation support where needed to assure or continue an appointment where compensation is temporarily insufficient or withdrawn. Extenuating circumstances may indicate a need for a church/charge to remain on Equitable Compensation support for one additional year. Such extension may be granted upon approval of the Commission on Equitable Compensation and the Cabinet. Each church/charge will be reviewed on an annual basis. Where a church/charge is less than 125 members or when special consideration is requested by the District Superintendent as an instrument in helping that church/charge become self-supporting, emergency requests from the District Superintendent will be considered.

Evangelism

In 2015 the Evangelism Team continued to focus on work in McDowell County. The County has 21 United Methodist Churches with approximately 600 people. The Evangelism Team believes and would like to convince the Annual Conference that if something is not done quickly we could have a county in our conference with no United Methodist Churches! A leadership Incubator has been working for over a year. Some progress has been made. In 2016 our work with McDowell County will continue!

The team also worked with the Midland South District to offer The Growing Church Leader Seminar. This was well attended and created much excitement. Churches went home with great ideas. As my time of serving on the Evangelism Team comes to an end, I want to thank the team for their hard work and service!

I would like to thank the team for their work and commitment.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Global Ministries

The Board of Global Ministries is well on its way to putting its restructure in place by July 1, 2016, when the new quadrennium begins. The approval of the rule changes at last year's Annual Conference allowed this move to take place. There will be fewer members on the board, but each member will have a defined role to carry out the local and global mission and purpose of Global Ministries. This approach will keep the board more focused and operating more efficiently and effectively.

Please read all of the reports by the Global Ministries chairpersons, mission project directors, church and community workers, Burlington UMFS director, VIM coordinator, disaster response coordinators, Global AIDS task force, and the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries. These reports will inform you of all the good work going on in our conference and around the world through Global Ministries. As chairperson of the Board, I thank each one of these persons for all that they do to take the church into the communities where physical, emotional, spiritual, and justice needs abound whether that place be next door, or across our conference, or in other lands where our missionaries serve.

The purpose of Global Ministries, which is to connect the church in mission, no doubt is happening in our conference as the reports referenced above affirm. The vision of the General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) is our vision as well --- to equip and transform people and places for God's mission around the world. We adhere to the mission goals of GBGM:

1. Make disciples of Jesus Christ;
2. Strengthen, develop, and renew Christian congregations and communities;
3. Alleviate human suffering;
4. Seek justice, freedom, and peace.

We ask that every church strive with us to engage in God's mission as we carry forth these goals.

May God bless as we move forward in mission.

“Changing lives by preventing harm and providing hope and healing to hurting children and families”

All things are possible to him that believeth. Mark 9:23

GOD is good. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they shall be filled. Matthew 5:6

After a busy 2014, we thought we could sit back and regroup and get refocused. God had other plans for Burlington United Methodist Family Services. With so many hurting children and families needing God and us in their lives, we continue to increase our programs.

Our Martinsburg office consisted of two rooms located in the Trinity United Methodist Church. As our staff went from three persons to ten, we soon found we had outgrown the office. Our Foster Care, Parents as Teachers and Safe at Home (new) programs have all expanded. With this increase, it was time to get something bigger. So, we purchased an office building in downtown Martinsburg. We continue to reach out and make positive changes in people's lives.

Recently, we received our letter for Re-Accreditation from the United Methodist Association EAGLE Commission. We are in the process of preparing for our site visit in November 2016. It's hard to believe that it was five years ago when we became EAGLE Accredited. We are a better Christian Agency.

The Cline Family Chapel and the Greg and Darlene Darby Family Community Services Annex on the Beckley Campus are fantastic. Worship services are well attended by residents and staff. With the Annex, this has given us the additional space for offices. GOD is pleased. Donations are still needed.

In September, the new school on the Burlington Campus was opened. Children and staff were so excited. The learning environment for our children is second to none. This project came in under budget, so the loan needed was less than expected, but funds are still needed to pay for this. Any financial help is appreciated.

Spring Heights Summer Camp was a success again this year. Our goal was for all 81 residents to attend. However, we did not reach our goal but we did increase it to 65 which was up from 60 the year before. This experience is made possible by donations from you. Thank you for continuing to make memories for God's children that will last forever.

This past years Apple Harvest and Pumpkin Festivals was not a huge success due to rainy weather all weekend. We experienced some of our smallest crowds ever but staff and our children's spirits were still positive and uplifting. Both events are in much need of volunteers. I challenge you to attend this year's event and bring a friend – preferably a friend who is ten years younger than you. This request is the same as last year, as our volunteers are getting older, and we need to give them a much needed rest.

Health and Welfare Ministries

Thank you for your support in providing prayers, money and gifts for our children at Christmas. This is one time during the year that the children forget about their hurt and are seen smiling and enjoying life. I invite any and all to visit Christmas on Campus to see the excitement and joy in every child.

Through your support, we were able to provide a good Christmas for the children in

- Residential (91)
- Foster Care (90)
- Right From the Start (40)
- Parent as Teachers (36)

Last year we started a new program; “Parents as Teachers”. Starting with five staff, we are now up to eight. Staff go in to homes to work with parents that have kids from one to five years old. The goal is simple: if we can interact with the kids at this age, they will need reduced services later in life. Our program has become the model in the state with people from West Virginia University doing studies to learn from our successes. Our female staff do a fantastic job, but our male staff are meeting the needs of the growing single fathers that are raising children.

The newest program this year is called “Safe at Home.” Twelve new staff have been hired to work with youth providing wrap-around services to children. This will help keep them out of jail or residential facilities by keeping them in their own communities and linking them up with the services they need.

Last summer, the Staggers family donated a house to BUMFS that we plan to use as a Drug Recovery House. It will be for females ages eighteen and up who are addicted to drugs and/or pregnant. This is a volunteer program for girls wanting to stay off drugs and get their life back on track. Drugs are a major problem in this area. This is yet another thing we believe God wants us to do.

SARAH’S House staff have increased from two to four. The Forensic interviews are still on the rise with more disclosures of some form of mal-treatment. The anti-bullying support groups continue to meet with the Mineral County Alternative School and Rees-Headlee Cottage.

The facility in Old Fields that houses children ages 5-10 is open. Our success rate of these kids is beyond our original expectations. We had ten discharges last year. One went to a more appropriate setting due to IQ. One aged out and had to be moved. Eight went to loving families.

The need is always there for more Foster Care Families. Our numbers are up to ninety kids in Foster Care. We need more Christian families who are willing to open their homes.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Our Transitional Living Program serves youth ages 16-21 that have been in long-term, out-of-home placements and are transitioning into independence. Three of the residents earned enough money to buy their own car and pay the insurance. Seven of the nine now have a driver's licenses.

The music programs on both campuses are going strong. Residents are playing instruments including drums, guitars, bowed psaltery, piano and the dulcimer. Between the tone chimes, guitar players and Rainbow Choir, we manage to perform at many churches. Ask; And We Will Come! The music room addition to our Burlington Chapel which is currently under roof is being named after the Rev. Andy Agnew who previously served as CEO/President of BUMFS.

We continue to be good stewards of God's gifts as we have had a clean audit. John Burdette, auditor for JB&A, was quick to point out that there were no discrepancies.

Projects we are still trying to fund include:

- The Chapel on the Beckley Campus ($500,000) to pay off the loan
- Burlington Chapel Music Room Interior ($15,000)
- Roofs for Seven Cottages ($90,000)
- Purchase of the Keyser Community Based Services ($550,000)

I end with asking for your continued prayers and support for our mission "Changing lives by preventing harm and providing hope and healing to hurting children and families." Thanks again for allowing me to serve God through you.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Conference Secretary of Global Ministries

I have had an exciting year learning about the role of the Conference Secretary of Global Ministries in the WV Annual Conference. I have been able to apply my passion for international missions with many other people around the conference, the jurisdiction and around the world. The primary role of the CGSM is to facilitate the connection between our United Methodist missionaries from around the world to the churches in our Annual Conference. Our missionaries visit us every three years to share their work and build those relationships. I feel that it is easier for our congregations to connect with the work of our missionaries and are more willing to support them with prayers and resources when they have a personal and ongoing relationship with them. I would encourage each church to develop a covenant relationship with one of our United Methodist missionaries who are serving God around the US and around the world. I have a goal to improve communications between our missionaries and our local churches. Your church should be able to share its passion for children's ministries or health ministry or agricultural ministry with a missionary in that field. You might also be interested in a particular region of the world and connect with a missionary who works there. I would like to have a volunteer from each district to assist in this work as we coordinate matching up a church with a missionary. If you have an interest in helping with this work please email me at jeff@pbo.bz.

Working off the success of the Imagine No Malaria program, which along with other global partners has reduced malaria deaths by 50% around the world, there is a new emphasis from the General Board of Global Missions (GBGM) in global health. This program will focus on reducing preventable deaths around the world including in the United States.

GBGM has also created some new opportunities for missionary service through a program called Generation Transformation. This program has three potential opportunities for people to get involved in God's work. The shortest program is the Global Justice Volunteer which lasts 2 months and is designed for people from 18 to 30 years old. The second opportunity is Global Mission Fellow and they are 20 to 30 years old and serve for two years. The third program is Mission Volunteers which is a flexible mission for people 18 and older. More details about each of these programs can be found at www.umcmision.org/Get-Involved/Generation-Transformation. These short term programs are a great way to get involved with work in the United States and around the world.

Thank you for your continued support and prayers for our missionaries,

Jeff Matheny

Community Development Outreach Ministries

Our mission at CDOM is to demonstrate the love of Christ as we assist those who live among us and seek to alleviate poverty, oppression and injustice in all of its forms. With this mission in mind, we are able to positively impact the lives of our neighbors each day.

Community Development Outreach Ministries benefits from office space provided by St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Charleston. We cover all administrative support for the programs under the direction of CDOM. Our seasonal programs include backpacks and school supplies, tuition and transportation for children to Spring Heights Camp, and distribution of the annual "Undies Sunday" effort. In 2015, CDOM distributed the Midland South District's collection of over 7,000 undies and socks to those in need at Roarke-Sullivan Lifeway Center, Sojourners Shelter, Union Mission Crossroads, Hurricane High School, Mary C. Snow Elementary, Piedmont Elementary, Poca High School, and Christmas distribution at Heart & Hand South Charleston, Heart & Hand Putnam County, and Coal Branch Heights Community Center. Collections were also distributed in other areas of the Midland South District. Our thanks to all the churches for participating!

Coal Branch Heights Community Center is a free after school and summer program located in space adjacent to and furnished by St. Stephens United Methodist Church. Meals are provided daily by Shiloh Baptist Church. Students are provided with a supportive, nurturing environment as they do homework, enjoy educational activities, and have supervised playtime. In 2015, we provided a free four-week Summer Day Camp that included daily visitors or field trips. Our special visitors included a WV State Police Trooper and a former NFL Football player. The children interacted with the visitors and were exposed to a variety of things from gardening to soccer to Geocaching. Fridays included trips to the Secretary of State's office, swimming, and Pottery Place. We hosted a Summer Vista member and then an AmeriCorps Member.

Heart & Hand Community Service Center in South Charleston celebrated 50 years of service to the community. Heart & Hand founder Rev. John Campbell returned from Florida to enjoy some of the many festivities that commemorated this special anniversary.

Our food pantry and social services office assists low income residents of the South Charleston/Alum Creek area. We help Dunbar and St. Albans residents with utility assistance and serve as the intake site for the Dunbar/Institute Samaritan Center. We are a processing site for Dollar Energy Fund. Our Thrift Store provides an affordable retail alternative for the community with profits supporting Heart & Hand assistance programs. Families that cannot afford even Thrift Store prices are provided vouchers for free clothing and household items.

In 2015 Heart & Hand assisted over 7,000 individuals with food, utility bills, rent, baby supplies, work shoes & work clothing, school supplies, household items and clothing. Christmas baskets provided food for 873 individuals and toys were provided for 709 children.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Missions

Heart & Hand Putnam County opened January 20, 2015, in space provided by Winfield United Methodist Church. Our only cost of operation is a part time program manager, telephone, and office supplies. As we are located next door to the DHHR, those in need have had no problem finding us. In the first year of operation this office helped 1,796 individuals avoid homelessness through assistance with rent or utilities. In October a special need was brought to our attention and we responded by bringing the community together to provide Christmas toys for 185 children that had missed the Salvation Army deadlines.

It is such a blessing to be in a position to bring communities together to help their neighbors. CDOM is proud of our affiliation as a mission project of the WV Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church. We appreciate your prayers, time, and financial support. Your mission project is thriving and expanding due to your continued support. Thank you!

Approximately 450 people are served through the various programs and services we offer to parents, children and the community, on a monthly basis.

Fifty-three children are enrolled in the Learning Center, including preschool and the after school program.

Our preschool children engaged in many activities such as Trick-or-Treating with Mayor Williams, safety day with local police, fire and ambulance responders, a health fair at WIC, story hour at the Library, Vacation Bible School, and celebrating Christmas with a party, bible stories and a pajama party.

Youth Energized for Success (after-school/summer program) enjoyed many exciting activities during the summer. Youth were introduced to fishing and paddle boats as an all-day activity. This was a first for many of the children. In connection with Goodwill Industries, approximately twelve children improved their reading levels through the Reading Dog Program. Four children (fifth graders) participated in the Banker's Club Program sponsored through Fifth Third Bank. Time spent at Steele Memorial for Vacation Bible School, safety day with police, fire and ambulance responders, learning history and a nature hike at the local museum.

Westmoreland UM Church's Wesleyan Group continued to sponsor a family to help subsidize their childcare payments.

Our clothing closet has provided clothing to parents, children and the community at no charge. Ebenezer also continues to provide Branches Domestic Violence Shelter and the City Mission with clothing.

The Baby Bassinette has provided over 100 baskets with baby essentials to new mothers through Huntington Housing Authority and Cabell Huntington Hospital. School Supplies, including backpacks and binders were given to over 120 children. And through the generous support of First UMC (Huntington), Central UMC, Steele Memorial UMC, Beverly Hills UMC, First Baptist Church, HIMG, Bella Consignment, and individuals from the community. Ebenezer was able to provide Christmas gifts to 79 families of the community.

A special thank you to ECOC's Board of Directors, The Board of Global Ministries, West Virginia Annual Conference, Western District Office, local UM Churches and individuals for their continued support of Ebenezer's mission to our parents, children and the community. These programs continue to provide a relief for many families on a daily basis.

Please remember the mission projects work is not complete and would not survive without YOU! The Lord's work still needs to be done whether it is through your skills, time or money; please continue to reach out and help those in need. May you be blessed in all that you do!

“Reaching Out To Others”

Celes L. Sheffield
Executive Director

Heart and Hand House, Inc.

In 2015, Heart and Hand responded to more than 1,400 requests for emergency assistance from Barbour County families, and provided additional assistance through our Home Repair and Construction Program, Thrift Stores, Christmas Basket distribution, Backpack Feeding Program and Community Garden Market. More than 1,000 food boxes were distributed to local families last year, providing meals and snacks for over 3,200 individuals. During the summer, Home Repair and Construction volunteers completed 35 repair projects and constructed one new home in the county.

We were particularly blessed last year with the donation of a building in Belington, West Virginia. In March, we moved our Belington Thrift Store into the new location where it has flourished with more floor space, no leaks in the ceiling, and a better parking area. Both the Belington and Philippi Thrift stores enable us to distribute essential items, such as clothing, shoes and household goods, to those in need, but they also generate income to support our other ministry programs through the sale of excess and non-essential items to those who can afford to shop. The dollar value of items donated and sold by our two thrift stores in 2015 totaled over $203,600.

At our Community Garden Market, more than 130 producers brought in fresh, locally-produced foods and craft items last year, collectively earning more than $50,000. While the market is open to the public, low-income community members, in particular, are able to use their SNAP EBT, WV Farmers Market Nutrition Program coupons, and food pantry vouchers to increase their access to fresh, healthy foods.

Throughout the year, 26 layettes were given to families with newborn babies, and an additional 42 families received other baby items, such as diapers, wipes, formula and baby food. Partnering locally with Corley UMC, we continued to provide food to more than 80 elementary school children each week through our Backpack Feeding Program. Our board of directors specifically supported this effort by committing to bring donations of designated items, such as pudding cups, fruit cups, juice boxes, etc., to our monthly board meetings.

This was the second year for our Christmas Basket distribution program, through which we distributed 196 boxes in December containing food for a holiday meal, plus laundry baskets full of hygiene and cleaning items, and devotional material. In addition, gift bags containing hats, gloves, coloring books, crayons, and other small items were distributed to 116 students in the local Head Start Program.

It was a very busy year! We are grateful to all who supported our work with your gifts and prayers. We were, indeed, blessed to be a blessing in 2015!

Scott's Run Settlement House

Scott's Run Settlement House is continuing to live out our mission to serve our brothers and sisters in need in Monongalia County. Our service numbers for our food pantry and backpack program continue to grow. In 2015, over 6,400 individuals were provided with a week's worth of groceries and 750 children were provided over 30,000 bags of food during the school year. We hope to expand our program into the middle schools by 2017.

Our seasonal outreach programs also continue to make a huge impact in Monongalia County. Over 1,000 people in 334 families enjoyed a Thanksgiving meal; 218 people in 87 families were sponsored at Christmas; 98 people in 41 families were able to prepare an Easter meal and have treat baskets because of the generosity of churches, businesses, and sponsors; Forty people had their taxes prepared free of charge. SRSB's Senior program continues to be a success and there are 30 regular individuals who attend the monthly covered dish lunch.

The services provided by Scott's Run Settlement House continue to make a difference in the lives of those who struggle to meet their most basic needs. Your continued generosity and unwavering support of our work is what makes all of this possible. Thank you for illustrating God's grace and abundance through your continued support of our ministries.

Tyrand Cooperative Ministries, Inc.

Tyrand Cooperative Ministries continues to be an active presence in the lives of those who are less fortunate in Randolph County. Our staff and volunteers believe that because we are disciples of Jesus Christ, we are to make a difference in the lives of the individuals and families we serve.

Our Food Pantry continues to be busy. We are appreciative of all the individuals, churches and civic groups who continue to collect food for our pantry. Once again this Thanksgiving the Vietnam Veterans Association of America, Chapter 812, donated enough food to fill 25 of our Thanksgiving Baskets. We are grateful to our local churches for collecting canned food for our Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets. During the month of August, we had two truckloads of fresh corn donated to the Food Pantry from the Bishop Hodges Pastoral Center. This past summer the work crew inmates at Huttonsville Correctional Center planted a giant garden and Tyrand was the recipient of fresh squash, corn, beets, green beans and potatoes. We had enough potatoes to put in food orders and our Thanksgiving and Christmas Baskets. We were down to our last 12 bags of potatoes at the beginning of February and once again God has supplied. A representative of the Department of Agriculture brought us about 2000 pounds of leftover potatoes from their potato project. We also received a truck load of corn from the Bishop Hodges Center. We appreciate the Hunger funds we receive from the Conference and other sources, but without the donated food items we would not be able to keep up with the demand on our Food Pantry.

We continue to have success with our Thrift Store and with E-bay. We are blessed to have a dedicated group of volunteers that operate the Thrift Store and have loads of fun doing it. We advertise the Thrift Store with the local newspaper and each year they run an "I Shoppe Local" event. This event has changed a little. Instead of a weekly cash drawing from the tickets collected from all the businesses, each business was given a trip to give away at the end of the 10-week promotion. We encourage you to check out our E-bay items at: tyrand2009

We have seen another increase in the families needing assistance with rent and utilities. This is an area that we have to limit the amount that we can help with because paying one or two bills in full would wipe out our funds. Lots of prayers are needed as we explore other ways to receive funds for rent and utility assistance.

We are very appreciative of all the church families in the Conference for their participation in the Celebration of Mission and Undie Sunday. Please know that each dollar donated, each pack of underwear, each toy, clothing and other items help the mission projects serve the less fortunate. Without this support it would be very difficult to meet the needs of the communities that we serve.

We were forced to build a new Pole Building during the summer of 2015. Our old barn where we stored our tools, furniture and other items started caving in and was not safe. I am so humbled by the community's assistance in helping with our Cakewalk and Auction to raise money toward the new pole barn. Work teams helped construct the barn and we now have everything moved to the new building. We are looking for someone to tear down the former barn for the lumber. If you know of someone who would be willing to do this, please contact me.

I want to thank Jeff Taylor and the UM Foundation for getting the mission projects included in the "Leave a Legacy Campaign." If you wish to include something in your will for one of the mission projects you can contact me or Jeff Taylor at the United Methodist Foundation.

Our slogan "Faith and Action Joined in Love" is a constant reminder for us to be disciples of Christ and to help our brothers and sisters in need. I encourage you to continue to support the ministry of Tyrand Cooperative Ministries and especially to keep all the missions in your prayers as we struggle to serve the less fortunate. I also invite you to visit Tyrand and all the mission projects to see firsthand what each of us do. Make it your goal for the next year to invite a project director to speak at your church.

Grace and Peace,

Upshur Cooperative Parish House/Crosslines, Inc.

Throughout this past year the Upshur Parish House has been a busy place. Our biggest effort is in the ecumenical ministry of Crosslines, Inc., a help agency housed in the Parish House, serving low-income families in a variety of ways. In 2015 we assisted over 9200 families, with emergency help, including 3110 food packages, 1709 clothing vouchers, 1365 holiday food baskets for Thanksgiving and Christmas. We helped 336 new families. In addition, we paid out $67,456.00 in utility assistance, $13,321 in transient/homeless housing, $7,585 in housing assistance, and purchased $26,698 in food for our food pantry. So, our total cash payout for our emergency assistance for 2015 was $133,521.75. I am proud of the work that we do through Crosslines and am especially proud of the dozen or so volunteers that make it possible to help out area families in need.

One hope that we have for 2016 is to offer more short term classes and mentoring moments that will help our families create and budget money more easily. We are looking for several folks that might be willing to use their financial expertise to develop a mentoring support relationship that will help families use their money wisely and effectively.

We continue to offer meals on Monday and Friday for anyone who needs a hot meal.

Missions

One of the challenges of our area is the amount of folks and families that find themselves suddenly homeless. This is a project that we are working on with the Upshur County Homeless Coalition. Hopefully, we will have good news to report in this year.

Our Clothes Closet provides gently used clothing and other articles for low prices. We also provide vouchers to many of our families to help provide clothing at no cost. With the addition of a building for storage and sorting we are looking for more ways to continue to meet the needs of area families. Our Clothes Closet operates with manager Heather Geisler and a host of volunteers, doing the hard work of sorting, stocking, pricing, and selling the items.

Our paid, part-time staff works tirelessly in so many ways. Connie Cutright is our office manager and along with Marilyn Walton keeps our operation and finances up-to-date. Roy Mick, our home repair coordinator, works to host work teams that do home repair in our community. Roy also works with Kenneth Harvey, our food pantry manager, to keep maintenance up on all of the properties.

This past summer we again partnered with Create Buckhannon to offer community garden spots to people in our community to grow food. Most of our community gardeners grow food for our food pantry and help us to maintain the spaces that we use to grow food. Our dream for a more expansive garden in Adrian will not be realized, but we are looking at another place to build a community garden and we are holding on to a small grant that will help us to put another community garden in place, when the right spot opens up.

Our Home Repair program will be exciting this summer as we have more than doubled our work teams from the number we had last year. Some of our teams will be using the bunkhouse that we completed last year with the financial support of Dr. Greenbrier Almond. Many of our families will receive ramps, roofs, and other repairs to make their homes safe and sound.

We continue to work with the Center for Community Engagement at West Virginia Wesleyan and offer placements for service scholars and opportunities for students to gain experience working with non-profits. This year students have worked at the Clothes Closet, our food pantry, and on several different projects including cooking and providing extra meals and short term classes. Through the fall we had 7 Wesleyan service scholars placed with us.

In November of 2014 we applied for and received a grant through the Revolving Grant fund of the Division of Missions to replace and upgrade the heating system in the Parish House. The new furnace/air conditioning system was in place last winter. Our neighbor families, staff, and volunteers have been much more comfortable in all types of weather.

In March 2015, several folks representing the Upshur Cooperative Parish made a visit to the East Belfast Mission in Belfast, Northern Ireland, a project of the Irish Methodist Church. K Almond, Roy Mick, Jalna Jones, Sara Loughney, and myself, along with Jane and Keith Ensminger, who work with our sister mission project, Heart and Hand, visited the Mission. We were hosted by Gary and Billy of the EBM, who took time to arrange meetings, transported us to various mission sites, hosted us at the annual "Mothering Service” (their Mothers’ Day) and helped us to visit some of the most beautiful places in the world including the Giant’s Causeway, the Antrim Coast, Ulster-American Folk Park, and Nendrum, a historical holy site where St. Patrick once walked. We look forward to more opportunities to share in ministry together with our Irish friends here and across the pond!

In May of 2015, the WV Annual Conference UMW had a mission event here at the Parish House. Around 15-20 women came and helped to do some spring-cleaning in preparation for our Annual Conference lunches. This group was the first group to stay in our newly renovated bunkhouse. Their visit was a boost for all of us and helped us to get some much-needed work accomplished.

We had another great opportunity to host a German friend, Lisa-Maria Reuter. Lisa-Maria's cousin Luka had been with us last year and her brother Florian was a fixture around here when he was in school at WWWC. Lisa-Maria helped us out in the food pantry and also helped out at the Union Elementary School. She is a delight and now a good friend of the Upshur Cooperative Parish.

This past fall we have worked hard to upgrade publicity options. We have a new facebook page that can be "liked" at Upshur Cooperative Parish: Parish House and Crosslines, Inc. We have a new web page that can be visited at www.parishhouse.org. We also are blogging and archiving our weekly newspaper articles at prayersofmyheartblog.wordpress.com. We are hoping that these three avenues of publicity will help get the word out about us in a timely fashion.

Lastly, on Christmas Day, the coordinating team of Debbie Huber, Carol Baxa Meese, Bill Nicholson, and myself, along with about 80 volunteers, prepared and served Christmas dinner to around 450 people. This year, one of the blessings of this event was the hard work of B-UHS Pro-start class that helped with the preparation and decorating for the meal.

To God alone be glory!

Celebration of Mission Event

The Celebration of Mission Event is an outreach ministry of the Conference Global Ministries Team, Division of Missions. 2016 marks the 19th year the events have been held across the West Virginia Annual Conference. Since the events take place in late spring, it is not possible to provide 2016 financial reports for the Pre-Conference Workbook. However, we gratefully report that a record $110,903.33 was raised for our WV Conference Mission Ministries by the 2015 Celebration of Mission Events, exceeding our $100,000.00 goal. Thanks, WV Conference Churches! The cash gifts provided $11,318.00 for each Conference Mission Project and Volunteers in Mission, and $5,659.00 for each Church and Community Ministry. The cash figures do not include an estimated $50,000.00 in donated material goods provided by the Celebration of Mission Events, which were held in each of our nine districts. During the past 7 years the Celebration of Mission Event has raised $714,903.81 for our Conference Mission Ministries.

Ten % of undesignated funds is placed in the UM Foundation Trust Fund for Mission Projects ($8,476.33 in 2015). 3.5% of the annual average market value is distributed to our Conference Mission Ministries each year. At the close of 2015 the market value of the Trust Fund was $251,697.11.

Church and Community Workers

“I am telling you the solemn truth: Whenever you did one of these things to someone overlooked or ignored, that was me – you did it to me.” Matthew 25:40 (The Message)

Church and Community Workers are commissioned missionaries of the General Board of Global Ministries of The United Methodist Church, who in response to God’s call, are devoted to uplifting the poor and disenfranchised in rural and urban areas throughout the United States. They work to change the social inequities of poverty, racial injustice, and domestic violence. As their name implies, they take the church into the community and bring the community into the church. Church and Community Ministry is a kaleidoscope ministry, ever-changing and never remaining the same. It is a partnership between the General Board of Global Ministers, the annual conference, the project and the worker. Support for Church and Community Workers in the West Virginia Conference is shared between the General Board of Global Ministries, the conference, United Methodist Women, and the Cooperative Parishes in which the projects are housed.

The West Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church has been blessed by Church and Community Ministry for over 130 years, at times with over 100 Church and Community Workers serving within the boundaries of the West Virginia Conference. The West Virginia Conference is committed to and looks forward to the placing of four church and community workers within the conference.

The West Virginia Conference Church and Community Worker Advisory Committee is pleased that the General Board of Global Ministries has assigned Amy Purdom, as a Church and Community Worker to the House of the Carpenter, and that Gayle Lesure continues her assignment to the Greater Clarksburg Cooperative Parishes.

Prior to coming to the House of The Carpenter, Amy Purdom was a special education teacher in Virginia. She is a graduate of Ohio University with a Master's Degree in Special Education and a B.S. in Environmental Geography. From a young age, Amy has been called to work in the mission field and is blessed to share her love of teaching kids and adults by serving at the House of The Carpenter. Amy is developing programs meant to alleviate poverty and support those trying to make a better life for themselves and their children. She is facilitating the Relatives as Parents program, as well as developing other programs to support those needing a hand up from poverty. The inspiration for her work comes from Jesus: "Whatever you did for one of the least of my brothers and sisters, you did to me." (Matthew 25:40) For Amy, the House of The Carpenter, through its many ministries, embodies this teaching.

Gayle Lesure is a Deaconess and a Church and Community Worker in the Wesleyan District of the West Virginia Conference, serving in the Greater Clarksburg Cooperative Parish, a parish consisting of 20 churches. The parish conducts training/leadership events for laity and clergy, sponsors youth and children's activities and shares worship experiences. There are 3 food pantries and several backpack programs. Open Heart Ministries is a shared outreach project that has provided over $100,000 to help more than 2,500 people with rent and utilities. Gayle expresses her joy of serving in the Greater Clarksburg Cooperative Parish through comments such as, "It is really great to experience churches and communities working together to live out the gospel by responding in loving ways with persons who struggle to provide for their families' needs."

Let us each be alert to the calling of God on our lives and quick to respond to God's call!

Global AIDS Task Team

The Global AIDS Fund (GAF) quarterly meetings have been held in Charleston with planning carried out for both fund-raising and how to better involve the faith community around the conference. Currently, planning is ongoing for having a table with information and a presentation during Annual Conference in Buckhannon, WV. T-shirts will be sold and congregations around the conference are preparing Just Save One “kid” posters.

Margo Friend and Idress Gooden presented for the annual meeting of the WV Annual Conference United Methodist Women in Morgantown, WV, in the fall of 2015. One hundred and thirty-five United Methodist Women from around the state learned facts about HIV/AIDS and learned how their local groups can become more involved and contribute to helping “Save One” in under-developed countries. Children of HIV infected mothers are often left behind when medication and treatment are not available. We are committed to saving more than “Just One!” - Idress Gooden, Task Team member

Children from Fairview United Methodist Church in Lubeck, WV, have taken on the mission of saving the lives of children. Each first Sunday of the month during the offering, the congregation is asked to put its spare change in the collection plate. This money will accumulate to be an offering to the Global AIDS team’s “Just Save One” campaign. For each $10 collected, they will be able to decorate one character figure to represent one life saved from maternal –infant transmission of HIV. At Annual Conference, the total number of children will be displayed in the chapel during business sessions.

So far this year, the Fairview children have collected enough for medicine for two children. Theirs will be among the dozens and maybe hundreds of decorated characters from other churches in our Conference to make a joyous celebration of the support by the West Virginia Annual Conference for eradicating HIV/AIDS in our time.

What is your success story? Remember, every $10 to the Global AIDS Fund is another life saved. - Randy Mitchell

The UM Global AIDS Task Team and the WV GAF Task Team invites you to:

- Join the movement of AIDS Ambassadors! More than 3,000 volunteers have become AIDS Ambassadors. They reach out to people marginalized by HIV/AIDS, raise funds for AIDS projects, advocate for stronger laws related to AIDS, and broker partnerships between congregations and AIDS organizations around the world.
- Be a social justice advocate! Learn about what’s happening in your part of the world and let your legislators know about your interest and concern. Attend district legislative meetings, write to your legislator, and voice your concern for persons living with and affected by HIV and AIDS. Voice your concern about the lack of prevention education for children and youth.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

- Becoming an informed and welcoming congregation! Welcome everyone into your church, including people living with HIV/AIDS who are often marginalized and stigmatized by the community. By extending love and acceptance, transformation can happen. Then —
 - Encourage your pastor to preach on AIDS.
 - Sponsor an educational class on HIV and AIDS.
 - Explore how your congregation can become more involved in this ministry.
 - Invite your members to give to UMGAF – an act of stewardship and mission.

Just Save One: The Equipping Conference, organized and facilitated by the United Methodist Global AIDS Fund Committee, was held from September 11 to 13 at the Renaissance Hotel in Denver. About 120 people attended the event which offered plenaries, workshops, panel discussions, displays by key organizations, and informal networking and problem solving over meals. Idress Gooden and Margo Friend attended on behalf of our Annual Conference.

An Important part of the conference was the keynote: A Theology of Hope: Both Dr. Edward Antonio, Associate Professor of Christian and Social Theory, Associate Dean of Diversities, Director of Justice and Peace Programs at Iliff School of Theology, and his wife, spoke movingly of their own tragic losses through the pandemic in Zimbabwe. He suggested the Church start with a theology of mourning, remembering and lamentation. Hope that does not face lamentation and inequality is only optimism. The way of hope is not about escape but engagement with reality. The Road to Zero has barriers like poverty, hunger and poor education. We are called to be creative and transformative through the power of the Divine, creating space for people of faith and people impacted by HIV to be together.

“Do not even think of pausing...human dignity is depending on it.” Rev. Joan Carter-Rimbach, First UMC, Hyattsville, MD and member of the United Methodist Global AIDS Fund Committee, shared at the closing worship service: “The church must affirm every human life as a reflection of divinity.”

May Christ’s love surround you and be a constant reminder of your beloved-ness as we work together to create an AIDS-Free world.”

Volunteers in Mission

The UMVIM Motto is “Christian Love in Action” taken from 1 John 3:18, in which Christians are asked to love “not in word or speech, but in truth and action.”

Volunteers in Mission is a very active ministry in our Northeastern Jurisdiction and in the West Virginia Conference. The Lord continues to touch hearts of the faithful. As the Volunteer in Mission stories are shared, people’s hearts are moved and the ministry expands. The ministry reaches beyond just building churches, clinics and schools. Many team members teach workshops on specified subjects, first aid-medical, music, cooking, sewing, and agriculture. Those on the receiving end learn new skills so they can become more self-sufficient to help their families and communities. Change then happens!

There are four areas of focus identified by the General Conference, and the Volunteers in Mission program is involved in each of these areas. There are places for all ages and people to join in. The Four Areas of Focus are:

- 1) Creating places for new people and revitalizing existing congregations*
- 2) Developing Principled Christian leaders for the church and the world*
- 3) Engaging Ministry with the poor*
- 4) Combating the diseases of poverty by improving health globally.*

Many in our churches are moved to serve, take VIM training and then form teams. There have been several VIM trainings this past year and more are being scheduled for the coming year. It is very important that when teams are sent out that they have trained and qualified team leaders to represent our Conference. It is now possible for all team leaders to register their team on the NEJ UMVIM website as well as secure the UMVIM insurance.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

Volunteers in Mission offers many opportunities to get training for those who want to learn more. Several Conference members attended the first NEJ UMVIM/UMCOR Academy this past March. They learned about Disaster Relief/Recovery and about how to put together a VIM team. One Academy is to be scheduled each year.

This past year many team members used their gifts and talents throughout the world to teach, build, give medical attention, help in disaster recovery and much more. These are the teams that registered and went out from our WV. Conference.

- Peru
- El-Salvador
- Haiti (Bishop's cabinet and others team)
- Kenya
- Czech Republic
- Costa Rica

Many teams outside our conference came into to help our "In-Conference Ministries." Buildings were repaired and painted, clothes sorted, things organized and people learned they could become friends with strangers and develop relationships that can last for a lifetime.

There are many mission programs and opportunities for youth also to be involved. "How involved are your churches youth?" VIM has Youth Scholarships that can be applied for.

Where can you get Volunteer in Mission information and resources? There are many places to learn about VIM and learn where the mission opportunities are. There are two websites for Domestic and International mission project opportunities where states and countries are listed. Take a look at: <http://umvimnej.org/>

We also have a UMVIM West Virginia Conference Facebook page where you can find mission team openings and other mission resources. A VIM Newsletter comes out several times a year with mission information.

Some goals for VIM in the coming year:

- NEJ Board will be hiring a new NEJ UMVIM for the Jurisdiction
- Encouraging all team leaders to be trained and register their teams on line and secure the VIM insurance
- Continuing to work with WV Conference Disaster Coordinator with training and bringing in teams to help in the event of disaster
- Distribute VIM and mission opportunities and resources throughout the Conference using technology and other means
- Celebrate VIM in the Districts
- Share the VIM ministry when invited in our Conference

I count it a great blessing to be involved and a part of this wonderful ministry that saves, gives hope and changes lives!

New Vision Depot

Flood Buckets collected at Annual Conference were put to good use when massive flooding occurred throughout the Conference area two weeks later.

Disaster Response Ministries

The Conference year 2015 was an extremely busy year for the Conference Disaster Response Ministries. Spring flooding started early in March and extended into July. In this time there were flooding issues that occurred in March, April, and July 2015 affecting a total of about 1100 West Virginia families. The situations of these families ranged from minor damage to total destruction. Along with other agencies from WV VOAD, the West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Ministries responded to aid these families. At the present time, we can account for 339 families who were directly assisted by the West Virginia Annual Conference. Of these there were 202 children and 355 adults receiving assistance. During this period, UMCOR awarded the West Virginia Annual Conference Disaster Response Ministries with a Relief Grant totaling $11,343. These funds provided necessary goods and temporary housing to help families have the basic needs of life during their recovery. In total, the West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Ministries invested $53,352 in bringing relief to these families. Aid ranged from providing relief supplies, food, and water, to paying rent for motel stays or temporary housing. Along with monetary help, the West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Ministries provided over 200 flood buckets, 300 health kits, and a number of pillows and blankets.

Many congregations from around the Annual Conference helped with this labor. These congregations provided funds, donated goods, purchased gift cards and donated time to help their neighbors. At this time, we can account for 9,235 volunteer hours provided by our

WV Conference congregations and I am sure there are many more hours going uncounted. A special thank you to all the congregations, pastors, and laity for all you do to keep this ministry viable.

In 2015, the West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Ministry added a new tool in our ability to help families around the conference. The opportunity came from Believe WV for the disaster response ministries to purchase a new Coleman ATV. The ATV was purchased for $750 and is being shared with Spring Heights. With West Virginia's rugged topography, there are many occasions when during a disaster segments of communities are cut off from regular access. This ATV will allow us access into such communities to bring in necessary supplies and goods.

Another exciting opportunity for the WV Conference Disaster Response Ministries is the addition of a 6,000 square foot warehouse located in Beaver, West Virginia, in the Southern District of the conference. Working in collaboration with the Raleigh County Office of Emergency Management, the conference disaster response ministries relocated its supplies and equipment into one large warehouse. This building also provides office space, restrooms with showers and a large area for volunteers' overnight stays. Moving into this facility will allow for disaster response supplies and equipment to be stored in one place and will be more convenient to the area of the conference most often affected by disasters. Opportunities exist for mission teams and youth groups to work in the warehouse preparing supplies to be used in disaster. Plans for this facility is also to become a hub for the Mission Central Warehouse in Mechanicsburg, Pennsylvania. Again, we want to thank all for your support of this much needed ministry.

Theological Implications for the Disaster Response

"We are not lords, but instruments in the hand of the Lord of history; and we can share in other people's sufferings only to a very limited degree. We are not Christ, but we must have some share in Christ's large heartedness by acting with responsibility and in freedom when the hour of danger comes, and by showing a real sympathy that springs, not, from fear, but from the liberating and redeeming love of Christ for all who suffer.

Mere waiting and looking on is not Christian behavior. The Christian is called to sympathy and action, not in the first place by his own sufferings, but by the sufferings of his brethren, for whose sake Christ suffered."¹

There are many logical and practical reasons why churches respond to disaster. Sociologically² churches are grass roots institutions which...are being looked to for help, comfort and leadership in the times of stress and crisis. "They are among the basic institutions within any social unit...they have 'territories' within which they have social, physical, and economic, as well as 'spiritual concerns'. They have visibility and strength which their individual members do not have."

In practice, churches are involved in response to disaster from the very first hour. The church gives unique help in four areas.³

Spiritual (dealing with questions of life, death, eternal hope, why me?, why not me?, values, etc.)

Emotional ('caring presence', support, re-establishing a sense of community, resolving the emotional conflicts of such trauma.)

Physical (people involvement, clean-up, transportation, etc.)

Material (those areas which are crucial for living, but to which no other source can give.)

"These are all essential. They have to do with the quality of life for persons suffering great trauma from disaster. No one except the Church can really function well in these areas – especially the first two."

Theologically, there are reasons central to the Church's existence which calls for compassionate response to the needs occasioned by disaster. Churches "have a mandate: they must be concerned with the welfare of individuals. They must address the concerns of the poor, the needy, and the victimized." The Church's mission is found within the Biblical and theological background of our faith. The Church is about the reconciliation of people with themselves, with each other, and with God, in the face of disruptive forces within and without.

It is the Church which comes proclaiming, in a profound way, a significant message of continuity between what has been, what is now, and what will be in the future. It is the church that comes representing the essence of eternal values that transcend the immediate.

The task of the church, in the break-up of community occasioned by disaster, through its involvement in community organization, pastoral care, and involvement in local leadership, is to re-establish the presence of a supportive, caring community.

Through the work of local ministers, lay persons, pastoral counselors, and Church and Community Workers, the message is strong and clear. "You are a disaster victim, but you still have eternal strengths and potentials for coping. You have abilities to regroup. Most important, you have the unique qualities that God has given you to discover hope in the midst of disaster."

The church is involved in disaster response to project a prophetic message related to the future. The prophetic voices of the church....seeks to prevent conditions which make the possibility of future disaster less prevalent than necessary.

GLOBAL MINISTRIES

PREFACE

Our United Methodist disaster response effort has been for years called a ministry of pastoral care. We now realize the term pastoral care is insufficient to define what we do in our disaster response ministry. To many, the term means mental and spiritual health counseling. Yes, there is a counseling component, but our disaster response ministry is much broader.

To others, pastoral care is even more narrowly defined as services provided to or by ordained religious leaders. However, disaster response ministry is not the exclusive territory of clergy. Perhaps what we do is best described as a Ministry of Care.

Our multifaceted ministry of Christ's Church has theological, material, mental health, advocacy, and social service components designed to provide for the spiritual, emotional and physical recovery of disaster survivors and for the well-being of their caregivers.

Remember a disaster erodes some relationships and cuts others. The aim of our caring ministry is to strengthen and reconnect these relationships—between persons and God, persons and families, persons and communities. Whatever you plan, do it so relationships are built and /or restored, not further damaged.

The parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-37) tells of two religious officials and a man from Samaria. The Samaritan holds no religious office, and is, in fact, of a race despised and considered "unclean" by those arrogant officials. When the three are confronted with a call to care, it is the Samaritan who answers and gets the approving nod from Jesus. He performs his caring ministry at some cost and personal risk. Those hearing Jesus tell of it were no doubt surprised to hear that an "unfit" Samaritan is portrayed as capable of compassion.

The story is a reminder to any who call themselves followers of Christ that when strangers lie wounded, each of us is called to respond. We have no choice but to set aside our personal agenda and embrace inconvenience in order to offer care, always at some cost and risk. All of us, laity and clergy alike, are God's designated caregivers, urged by Jesus "to do likewise."

WV Conference Policies and Procedures for Disaster Response Ministries

(Adopted: 2013, Global Ministries Team)

Administrative Policies

There are levels of disaster: local, parish, district, annual conference, and national. As the scope of disaster extends beyond a particular level, the next level's resources are accessed. For example, if a local church can handle the needs of a localized disaster, then there is no need to seek further assistance. If not, resources should be found at the parish or district levels. If a Parish Coordinator, District Superintendent or District Disaster Coordinator senses the disaster is beyond the scope of the parish or district, then the Annual Conference Disaster Response Coordinator should be notified and annual conference resources made available.

District Disaster Response Coordinators

Each district shall have a district response coordinator to coordinate district disaster response and cooperate with the annual conference response coordinator. The district coordinator and the parish coordinator (s) should work together to provide response to disasters beyond what a local church can handle. The district coordinator along with the District Superintendent will decide if the Conference Disaster Response Coordinator needs to be contacted. The district coordinator will become a member of the Annual Conference Adhoc Disaster Committee, when the affected area is within the district's boundaries.

Annual Conference Disaster Response Coordinator (s)

The coordinator(s) is responsible to coordinate conference response to disasters as they occur. The Episcopal office and Conference Coordinator (s) will assess whether UMCOR should become involved. The conference coordinator (s) is responsible for the disbursements of conference funds and the signing of vouchers.

- In some level II and all level III and IV disasters, any active clergy serving as the West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Coordinator must be relieved of pastoral duties in the local church for at least one month. A supply pastor should be appointed and paid with disaster funds. The District Superintendent should interpret this necessity to the congregation.
- The West Virginia Conference Disaster Response Coordinator should serve at least four years, and should be recruited with the understanding that she/he will enroll in training classes offered by UMCOR in the form of UMCOR's Training Academy or Jurisdictional Academies. The West Virginia Annual Conference will be responsible for cost associated to this training.

The adhoc committee will meet when a disaster requires further action and/or long term support.

Response to Damage to Church Property

1. There are immediate grants to churches, affected by a disaster, of $1000 per church (rebuilding church property or serving the citizens of the disaster area) upon request of the district superintendent of the district where the church is located. The grants will be disbursed by the Conference Disaster Response Coordinator(s).
2. Additional grant requests (to help churches restore church property) will be acted upon by the Conference Adhoc Disaster Committee.
3. Local churches may make application to the Revolving Loan Fund for emergency grants through the Division on Missions.

Limited Access to Disaster Area

Disaster response training is mandatory for anyone wishing to help in a disaster area. Admission to a disaster area or contact with victims/families will be prohibited unless the person can provide disaster training certification. Person trained by the WV Annual Conference can be identified by proper badging credentials.

Financial Policies

The primary purpose of Disaster Response is to meet the needs of the people through agencies and programs. A disaster response fund exists for disbursement of funds. This fund is comprised of donations given by individuals and organizations for disaster response.

The conference disaster response coordinator(s) is responsible for the disbursements of funds and reports the status of the disaster fund annually to the Conference Global Ministries Team and the Annual Conference. Vouchers will be signed by the disaster response coordinator(s) and sent to the Conference Treasurer for checks to be written from the disaster response fund. The voucher limit is $5000 per voucher. Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior and from our nine campus ministries: Concord, University of Charleston, Potomac State, West Virginia University, West Liberty, Fairmont State, Marshall University, Glenville State, and West Virginia Wesleyan. Again, I am happy to report that college ministry is alive and well because of your churches and the hard work of our campus pastors.

Our ministries have had a great year and we are excited to announce some new styles of campus ministry that are presently being tried in our conference. For example: in Morgantown at West Virginia University, the Higher Education and Campus Ministries have developed a partnership with Suncrest United Methodist Church, and New Church Development to not only re-launch our campus ministry, IgnightC, to West Virginia University but we are part of the launching of a new fellowship: IgnightU that is reaching out to college ages and young professionals. The IgnightC system mentors new leaders and then sends them out to start new groups

Here is what is happening around our conference with other Campus Ministry:

Fairmont State: they have been offering a free lunch provided by the area churches that has been reaching a cross section of student both locally and within the international communities; they started a game night for students to come and relax and play board and computer games; there have been two discussion groups with one of the topics “God is not Dead!”; and this year they hope to begin dorm study groups and begin training students to lead them.

Marshall University: provides “Lunch for a Buck” with 150 students being served two times per month; they provide pancakes one late night during finals week with 400(+) students; they sent a group of students to “Imagine What’s Next” (a national gathering that helps students explore their Christian calling) in Denver last November; their Thursday night meeting attendance has been on the rise and they are looking to begin training students for continued leadership roles for the coming school year.

West Liberty University: they have been involved in a number of service projects with an outreach focus; this year has been a really healthy spiritual year for them as a group and that the trip to Denver “Imagine What’s Next”, which was sponsored through your apportioned dollars, was a key event in the ongoing spiritual growth of students and student leaders; they have been involved in a Suicide Prevention program and awareness campaign on campus; held a spiritual retreat off campus that was well attended and drew individuals closer to Christ; the local board has been involved in fund raising to assist the ministry on campus.

University of Charleston: only has a small office space and is only part-time and works in conjunction with St. Marks United Methodist Church. They have movie nights and food service that feeds about 100 individuals; Bible Study on Wednesday at Noon; a small scholarship for choral music from St. Mark’s UMC; pastoral care on Thursdays on campus. You don’t need much to do something for Christ, just go do it.

Glennville State: is looking to develop and move into a larger space on campus this year; they offer two Bible Studies each week; Rev. Mark James is a reference person and helps produce seminars and discussion groups on campus around issues of faith and science; the group feeds the basketball teams during the school breaks when the cafeteria is closed and the team has to be on campus to play games; they provide lunches and snacks during study times and have been meeting with small groups of students just to discuss issues of life and faith in the dorms or student common areas.

Campus ministry is made possible through your continued support and prayers throughout our conference. I was made even more aware this year as I traveled to the Western Pennsylvania conference where they are trying to revive their campus ministry in their conference which they discontinued nearly 20 years ago. Their total budget barely covers even small amounts of travel and no startup money for new ministries to college campus' tied to the local churches.

A small team of three people went to a training seminar sponsored by the West Ohio Conference of the Church Networking of Campus Pastors. In the different conferences represented, our conference was the only one that provided substantial support not only with salary but also unit support. Again I wish to thank you and your churches for their continued support and ask that you increase your prayers for our campus minister as they are truly front line missionaries.

Blessings and peace in Christ:
Rev. Keith Forkey, Chairperson

Conference Lay Leader

Greetings Brothers and Sisters in Christ. I look forward to our time together in Buckhannon at West Virginia Wesleyan College as we celebrate together our love of God through worship, song and fellowship. I want to thank you for electing me to attend the General Conference in Portland, Oregon. I spent much time in preparation for General Conference through meetings, reading, study and most of all, prayer. We will share some of the excitement of how the Spirit moved through the delegates and leaders in Portland during this conference. The general conference provided the time to open ourselves to the Holy Spirit as we prayerfully considered actions that would “Do no Harm”, “Do Good” and show us how to “Stay in Love with God”. I am aware there are issues, but I want to stay focused on God and the main purpose the church exists. That is to bring people who do not know Christ into the kingdom.

Be in prayer for our 2016 Annual Conference. Pray also for the Jurisdictional Conference which will meet in July. We will elect bishops, move some bishops and celebrate the retirement of a bishop. This will be a very busy time for the delegates you elected last June as we attend all three of these conferences.

Back home in our Annual Conference the TEL Team (Team of Effective Laity) met with five youth who had attended the RDAA (Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia) for a brainstorming session regarding the Bishop’s Confirmation Rally. Out of this meeting came the ideas that have now become the “Rally on the Mountain” event at Snowshoe. The TEL team is also working on ways to publicize all Lay Academies across the conference so more laity can obtain their class work to become Lay Servants. If a lay person in one district is unable to attend their district’s Lay Academy, they are welcome to attend in another district. We will be working on plans to help meet the Conference’s target of 2400+ new confessions of faith.

As I traveled and shared with congregations across our conference, I saw the Holy Spirit working among you as we prayed and acted in ways that will draw others to our Lord and Savior.

May God continue to bless each of you in your ministries where you worship, work and fellowship.

Rich Shaffer, WV Conference Lay Leader

Lay Servant Ministries

Significant progress has been made since the 2012 General Conference discontinued the Lay Speaking program and replaced it with Lay Servant Ministries. Most of our laity understand how the new program works, and every district is attempting to comply with the current standards. One of the questions most frequently asked is “do I have to retake the Basic Course even though I took it years ago?” The answer is yes, unless the course was taken after 2012 when a new Basic Course was instituted. I’ve heard from several people who refuse to retake the Basic citing that they have been substituting in the pulpit for years and don’t feel they should be asked to retake his course. My answer to them is “I’m sorry, but unless you take the new Basic course, which covers new material, you no longer will be listed as a Lay Servant regardless of how many advanced courses you have taken.” This is not my decision....it comes from the General Conference and is part of our Discipline.

Another issue which causes concern for the District Committees on Lay Servant Ministries centers around the required number of teaching hours for each class. Ten (10) hours is the minimum for each class; however, our conference has elected to allow a maximum of two (2) hours credit be given for directed study (homework) or for outside assigned reading, thus making the on-site requirement eight (8) hours. This is not intended to be taken lightly as some form of follow-up must be in place in order to assure compliance. When possible, the full ten hours of classroom study should be the standard.

The goal within our conference is to create as much standardization as possible from district to district so that courses offered can be taken with credit given no matter what home district is involved. In order for this to become most effective, every district should notify the Director of Communications as to when, where, and what classes are being taught.

Every district has a Committee on Lay Servant Ministries with a director. Questions which arise (and there have been many) should be addressed to the applicable District Director.

Change is always difficult in every organization and we, as United Methodists, are no different. The changes from the old Lay Speaking Ministries to the new Lay Servant Ministries have not been easy, but we are resilient and we are learning. To become the very best at serving and the best group of lay people possible, we will continue to learn from the old, accept the new and move on, as Mr. Wesley said, “to perfection.”

May God oversee our work and bless our efforts.

Shalom,
Fred Kellerman
Conference Director of Lay Servant Ministries

Board of Ordained Ministry

The West Virginia Annual Conference Board of Ordained Ministry is comprised of members from all nine districts including retired and active Elders, Associate Members, Deacons, Local Pastors and Laity. The Discipline enumerates no fewer than 35 tasks for the Board of Ordained Ministry ranging from the enlistment and recruitment of new clergy in cooperation with the Cabinet to the recognition of clergy retirements. All of the Board's policies and procedures can be accessed through the Conference website: go to www.wvumc.org then click on "About" at the top. The "Licensed & Ordained Ministry" link on the left sidebar will guide you to the "BOOM" (Board of Ordained Ministry) information. Available on the website are checklists, forms, applications, information about Candidacy, PMLS, Course of Study, Leaves of Absence, ordination, continuing formation, scholarships and grants, as well as Board contacts and the Sexual Misconduct Guidelines. The Rev. Dr. Bonnie MacDonald is the Conference staff person designated to assist the board and can be reached at 304-344-8331, ext. 27; bmacdonald@wvumc.org.

Below are some of the quantifiable 2015-2016 Conference year Board activities:

- During the February and March 2016 interview cycle, the Board interviewed and approved the following for recommendation to the Clergy Executive Session at Annual Conference:
 - 7 - Full Membership/Elders' Orders
 - 2 - Full Membership/Deacons' Orders
 - 6 - Provisional Membership/Elders' Orders
 - 1 - Provisional Membership/Deacons' Orders
 - 2 - Associate Members
- Our annual conference involves all new "inquiring" candidates in a group mentoring process including a retreat and 4 mentoring sessions. Since beginning in July 2013, 6 retreats have been held, with 77 candidates completing the process, from 8 districts. Retreats are scheduled in July and October.
- Summer 2016 will be the 15th year of our BOOM Summer Intern Program. We anticipate 2-3 students participating in various ministry settings this year. Selected college and seminary students are placed in 10-week ministry settings within the Annual Conference with the hope that the internships will provide encouragement to those considering full-time ministry. Each intern receives a $2,500 stipend and the local congregation or ministry setting is asked to provide housing, plus $750 for living expenses. Over the past 13 years, 51 young persons have been placed in ministry settings, a third of whom have pursued seminary training and vocational ministry.

- Pastoral Ministry Licensing School was held in April at Huttonsville, WV with 24 students from 8 districts in attendance. PMLS is the first step in the Course of Study for licensed ministry. Classes focus on Church Leadership, Administration, Pastoral Care, Mission, Evangelism, Worship and Sacraments, Preaching, Christian Formation, Church History and Theology. In addition, students are introduced to the structure of the Annual Conference, given an overview of fiscal matters of the church and explore various paths to licensed and ordained ministry.
- Each year Board members and other clergy colleagues travel to connect with the students at various seminaries including Asbury Theological Seminary, Wilmore, KY; Duke Divinity School, Durham, NC; Perkins Theological Seminary, Dallas, TX; Pittsburgh Theological Seminary, Pittsburgh, PA; The Methodist Theological School in Ohio, Delaware, OH; United Theological Seminary, Dayton, OH; Wesley Theological Seminary, Washington, DC; and Eastern Mennonite Seminary, Harrisonburg, VA. This year visits were made by Micah Blanks, Andrew Tennant and Larry Buckland.
- The Board oversees the approval and renewal of Specialized Ministry Certification on behalf of the General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. Dr. Bonnie MacDonald, Director of Leadership Formation and Ministry Support, guides applicants and receives reports biennially from those who are certified within the Conference. Certification areas include Christian Education, Music, Youth, and Spiritual Formation, Camping & Retreat Ministry, Children's Ministry, Collegiate Ministry, Older Adult Ministry, Evangelism, Ministry with People with Disabilities, Urban Ministry and Ministry with the Poor. For 2015 - 2016 there have been 11 Specialized Ministry Certification renewals; the next period for renewals will be 2017 - 18.
- Currently 19 provisional members from the WV Conference are a part of the three-year Residency Program required of all provisional members and coordinated by Rev. Michael Atkinson and Rev. Elizabeth (Butch) Baker. Meeting throughout the year, the Residency Program is designed to develop basic ministry skills, offer resources and provide peer support and group mentoring in the early years of ministry. Faithful covenant group leaders are: Rev. Tim Kelley, Rev. J.J. Roller and Rev. Claudia Fizer.

- Ministerial Education Funds were awarded to 17 students this year, totaling $87,000. $47,500 was granted for fall 2015 and $39,500 for spring 2016 to students attending: Asbury, $26,500; Duke, $6,000; Eastern Mennonite, $3,000; MTSO, $12,000; Perkins, $6,000; United, $21,500; Wesley, $12,000. The recipients included five (5) women and twelve (12) men ranging in age from twenty-two (22) to fifty-nine (59) years of age. The MEF awards ranged from $2,250 to $6,000 with an average of $2,806. The 2015-2016 awards to seminarians represent a 6.7 percent increase over the 2014-2015 awards and the number of 2015-2016 recipients increased by one person. The amount increased by $5,500.
- For the 2015-2016 year two Francis Asbury Educational Fund loans were made totaling $1,800; one student received $1,200 sent to Wesley Seminary and one student received $600 sent to Eastern Mennonite Seminary. In addition, a one-time special grant of $13,680 from the Francis Asbury Education Fund was made to a minimum of 30 leaders to attend the Northeastern Jurisdiction Transformational Leadership event. A second one-time grant of $500 was made to a seminarian for educational travel.

In Closing.....

My 12 years on the Board of Ordained Ministry facilitated a wonderful journey into the blessed connection of United Methodism! The past four years serving as chair of the Board have been an indescribable learning and spiritual opportunity with a remarkable group of gifted clergy and laity. I have been surrounded by the warmth of the denomination; the relationships have been enriching. It has been an incredible privilege to serve our church through membership on the Board and I look forward to the future where our paths will cross in other ways. Blessings.

Martha J. Hill, Chair

Order of Elders Coordinating Committee

Our Order is engaged in the continuing formation and building of community and fellowship of its members through intentional education opportunities.

We have moved our official welcome for newly ordained Elders to the early fall. We did this so that the whole Order has the opportunity to welcome our new sisters and brothers. Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball preached and presided at the 2015 welcome service. We gave each new Elder a chalice and paten. We also had cake. You can't beat cake to say, "Welcome."

We instituted the Bishop's Convocation on Preaching in September 2015. This is sponsored by the Order; it is open to preachers from every category of laity and clergy. The goal of this convocation is to equip the preachers of the WV Annual Conference with practical tools to be authentic proclaimers of the Word. Our scholar was the Rev. Dr. Kempton Hewitt. Dr. Hewitt is emeritus professor of Biblical Interpretation at the Methodist Theological School in Ohio, where he also served for many years as academic dean. His interest in preaching and lay study is witnessed by a life-long devotion to serving local congregations in various capacities. He is an Elder in the Oregon-Idaho Annual Conference. Our theme was "Preaching Paul the Second Time Around." Dr. Hewitt reminded us that capable preachers don't want to be told how or what to preach. Good preachers know that powerful sermons come from sacred encounters with the Spirit working in the space between the preacher and the Scriptures.

In the spring our Elder's Day Apart was focused on formation made by prayer. We had a workshop on intercessory prayer and we intentionally prayed for our General Conference.

Our Order is in transition as we welcome a new Chair, Rev. Julia Halsted, for the new quadrennium. Julia brings fresh eyes, new perspectives, and a wonderful cooperative spirituality. As Rev. Halsted begins this work, she needs our prayers and support.

I want to thank the Order for the privilege of being your chair for two years. I hope that you saw faithful progress, loving order, future-oriented formation, and true fellowship. May we continue to do our best to love God and neighbor.

Respectfully submitted,
Rev. Bart R. Thompson
Chair of the Order of Elders Coordinating Committee 2014-2016

Order of Deacon

Members of the Order of Deacon are ordained clergypersons called to lifetime ministry of Word, Service, Compassion and Justice. As servant leaders, Deacons help form and nurture disciples of Jesus Christ. By teaching and proclaiming God's Word, leading in worship, and assisting with administration of the Sacraments, we strive to connect the gathered community of faith with its ministry and mission to the poor, the sick and the oppressed in the world. Our obedience to God's call and faithfulness to covenant undergird our mission of equipping and empowering the laity, of witnessing to the love of Christ through transformational ministries in our communities, our conference and in the world.

West Virginia Deacons presently serve in a variety of specialized and complementary ministries which include Christian education, music, hospitality, chaplaincy, higher education, senior adult ministry, financial stewardship, worship arts, youth ministry, UM agency leadership and special education teaching. Some of us are Deacon Associates, giving servant leadership alongside our Elder brothers/sisters. Deacons must discern and secure their own place of ministry/employment and seek approval/appointment by the Bishop. In this way, we are authorized by the church in our ministries as ordained clergy to the community-at-large, local congregations, and in district and conference level capacities that connect the church and the world.

In December we were pleased to share a day apart with our Bishop, Sandra Steiner Ball. The activities of the day centered on reflecting on our calls and sharing about our ministries. It was a gathering designed to help us reconnect with ourselves and our Order, to clarify our relationship with God and with one another. The weather was supportive of travel, and participation was stellar! Bishop Steiner Ball indulged us with a Q&A session so that we could get to know her better too.

At the end of April we will gather at Bishop Hodges Pastoral Center in Huttonsville for our annual OoD Retreat. Bishop Sandra and others will be getting ready to go to Portland OR for General Conference. As I compose this report, Retreat is two months away; revealing details of our gathering is not in the cards right now. Suffice it to say that we have been to that site several times and are looking forward to returning there. Their hospitality is second to none, the venue lends itself to activity or solace, the food is worth the trip and the fellowship is priceless! We will be in prayer for the church and the world, as General Conference definitely will be focused on both. Let us all be found faithful.

As this report goes to press, our WVAC Order of Deacon is comprised of nineteen ordained and five commissioned Deacons. Two of our number are appointed here while retaining their membership in other conferences; two of our members are serving in other conferences. Eight of us are in retired relationship with the conference, while two are due to be newly ordained at this Annual Conference.

Thanks be to God, we also have prospects among exploring candidates and commissioned members yet to seek ordination. "Active" or "Retired," we are by no means static as to ministry and mission and/or number and connection within the Order.

This year we celebrate twenty years of the order of ordained clergy called Deacon. In 1996 the WVAC had several active and dedicated Diaconal Ministers who were serving the church and the world in a variety of consecrated ministries. With the action of General Conference that year and the ordination requirements established, Phyllis Coston, J.F. Lacaria, Janet Harman, Ginny Lowther, Dan Farley, Dallas Bailey, Nancy White, Butch Baker and Susie Echols all decided to transition to Deacon (first called “Full Deacon” to differentiate from those in process to Elder.) By their continued witness and example, as well as their enthusiasm for formation and opportunity, the new Order of Deacon began on sure footing in our conference. How grateful we are to God and to those saints for trodding the new clergy path. And yes! We are yet alive! Praise God!

Peace of Christ,
Reverend Claudia A. Krebs Fizer
Order of Deacon Chairperson

Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors

“Each annual conference shall organize a Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members. All licensed local pastors and associate members shall be members of and participate in the Fellowship. The Fellowship will provide mutual support for its members for the sake of the life and mission of the church. By: providing for regular gatherings of local pastors and associate members for continuing formation in relationship to Jesus Christ; encouraging local pastors in continued study beyond Course of Study; developing a bond of unity and common commitment to the mission and ministry of the UMC and the annual conference; and enabling the creation of relationships that allow mutual support and trust.” (§323)

Local Pastors are approved annually by their District Committee on Ministry. Upon recommendation of this committee they may be licensed by the bishop to perform all the duties of a pastor including the sacraments within and while appointed to a particular charge (§316).

The Associate Member is in the itinerant ministry of the Church and is available on a continuing basis for appointment by the bishop. They shall be amenable to the annual conference in the performance of their ministry and shall be granted the same security of appointment. (§321).

The most recent Conference Directory reveals that there are 30 Associate members serving churches in the WV Annual Conference (8 are serving retired status) and 250 Local Pastors (part-time, full-time, and retired status). It continues to be the intention of the FAMLP leadership (chair, vice chair/secretary and district reps) to organize three events per year which will promote the spiritual, relational and professional well-being of its members (ALL associate members and local pastors).

FAMLP met on March 30 at WVWC for Spring Day Apart with Rev. John Lepp as preacher and facilitator. On Thursday, June 9, the Fellowship will gather for its Annual meeting on the campus of WV Wesleyan. Our gathering will begin at 11:30 a.m. with a time of fellowship before our meal is served. The cost to AMs and LPs and their guests will be $5.00. Conference budgeted dollars will cover the remainder. There are plans for a Fall FAMLP Day Apart in Weston, WV, on October 22. AM and LP colleagues please make plans to be a part and to bless and be blessed.

Sincerely,

Gwen Wolford, WV Annual Conference Fellowship Chairperson and NFAMLP Chair

PS – I hope all of my AM and LP colleagues will consider becoming a member of the National Fellowship of Associate Members and Local Pastors by going to www.nfamplp.org and printing the membership form, writing a check for $30 and mailing to Mary Biesemeyer, membership secretary.

Outdoor Ministries

The following are brief reports from our district camps, Asbury Woods and Crossroads, and a more thorough report from our conference camp, Spring Heights.

Shea James

Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries

Asbury Woods Camp - Western District

Asbury Woods is our United Methodist camp located in Salt Rock (Western District). In recent years the camp has undergone many renovations, and more are planned. Most recently, the dining hall was updated to include air conditioning, new lighting, ceiling, bathroom updates, and a new roof. It has truly made the facility a year round retreat and camping center. If you haven't been to Asbury Woods, we invite you to come visit this beautiful camp.

We do offer four camping opportunities each summer. This year our day camp (K-2nd Grade) will be June 27-30. Elementary Camp (3rd-5th) is June 27-July 1. Senior High Camp (9th-12th) is July 3-8, and Middle School Camp (6th-8th) will be July 10-15. Camps are open for everyone so spread the word at your churches. Asbury Woods is available throughout the year for retreats, lock-ins, church picnics, reunions, wedding receptions, etc. It's always a great time in the Woods, look forward to seeing everyone there.

Crossroads UMC Camp - Little Kanawha District

Another year has come and gone. Great things have continued to happen at Crossroads UMC Camp. The camp has opened back up to be a year round camping and activity facility. We have seen an impressive increase in usage over the last three years. We are seeing our mission statement in action:

“Crossroads United Methodist Camp is to provide a positive Christian environment where people of all ages are encouraged, equipped, and commissioned on their journey of Christ-like holiness. The camp is a natural setting where people experience knowing they belong to God, where they are filled by God, and leave prepared to serve God.”

In 2015, there were a total of 30 weekends used and 12 week-long church camping events. The usage by groups has expanded from the Little Kanawha District/Mid-Ohio Valley area to across West Virginia and parts of Ohio.

The Little Kanawha District Camp is “holy ground” to many who have spent time volunteering, working on projects, or just stopping by to plan their camp, retreat, or wedding. Young and old are touched by the simplistic and rustic setting.

The camp board and some volunteers from local churches began renovations on the maintenance building to remodel it into a cabin to sleep 16-20 people. Although it is not complete it was able to be used for housing as of June 2015. The added sleeping capacity has been well received by those who came in 2015 including a group of 100 staff and campers. Work continues toward completion. This project is just the beginning of many long range upgrades for Crossroads Camp.

We also have been blessed by Scout Troop and Pack #47 from Crossroads UMC who have actively supported the camp over the years with Eagle Projects that continue to help keep Crossroads Camp in sidewalks, ramps, and upgrades to the lodge. Their most recent project began 2 years ago: They built a bluebird box trail that requires the scouts to track and chart the activity of each box. This project has impacted all who visit and enjoy the relaxing benefit of bird watching. The past year has been one of blessings and forward progress here at camp. God has provided and the Little Kanawha District is proud of the churches that keeping showing a positive interest in Crossroads UMC Camp as a valuable place for youth and adults. We love our volunteers and it takes everyone to make a successful camping experience! If you would like more information on Crossroads UMC Camp, email us at lisa.withee1970@gmail.com. You can also check us out on Facebook at Crossroads United Methodist Church Camp or by mail at 6827 Old St. Mary's Pike, Parkersburg, WV 26104.

Spring Heights - West Virginia Conference Camp

I begin this year as the Site Manager of Spring Heights with excitement as I anticipate the many ways we will introduce young people to the Lord. God created all things, and they are indeed beautiful. Here at Spring Heights people get a glimpse of God's glory at the lake, sitting around the fire, or exploring our 1,000 acres.

I am happy to report that last year we had around 345 campers and our goal for this year is a 3% increase in camper registrations. We are always trying to improve our programs at Spring Heights and this summer we will introduce specialty camps for our older youth, such as night owls and adventure bound. It is our hope that these new programs continue to draw youth outdoors so that they can experience creation, and better understand God's design for humanity to care for creation.

We continue to grow our retreat business through community activities and special weekends like our Easter Fest, trail rides, weddings, and much more. We are excited about a women's retreat planned for May, and to be hosting the Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia again this summer. Burlington Family Services continues to use our facilities to have camp for children in their care. We also host Course of Study meetings for local pastors.

We believe that God is calling us to experience creation and the Word in order to help others have a deeper sense of community and worship. We want to include persons both near and far from Spring Heights. If you haven't had the pleasure of visiting Spring Heights, come out for a visit! Please call the office at least 24 hours in advance so someone can be there to share information with you.

While things continue to improve, Spring Heights is always in need of volunteer help and donations. If you would like to bring a volunteer crew out for a day (or a month!) please contact the office. We're happy to host volunteer groups who can help us maintain the property so that Spring Heights can continue to be a place where people grow in their understanding of God for generations to come. If you have a donation, please contact the camp office for arranging pick-up/drop-off. Checks should be made out to "Conference Treasurer" with "Spring Heights Donation" in the memo line. Donations can be mailed to:

Conference Treasurer
Attn: Cheryl Sutton
P.O. Box 2469
Charleston, WV 25329

I want to thank the Conference Trustees and members of the Covenant Council for having faith in us and supporting us as we continue to make improvements in the property and program. In the past year we have upgraded the washer and dryers, painted the dining room floor, and I am looking forward to what this year brings us. We are excited about dreams for the future that include sustainable land use, growing local produce, and teaching creation stewardship in a way that reflects God's hope for creation.

We are looking forward to a great year and hope that you will join us in some way! Please follow the progress of our ministry at www.springheights.org, on Facebook at www.facebook.com/springheightsfb, on Twitter @springheights, on Instagram @springheights or on Pinterest, SpringHeights. Pensions

The Board has continued to attempt to keep cost under control. We have now gone six years without increasing medical insurance premiums! We believe our cost can be maintained if all participants of the plan continue to work toward healthier life styles.

We are excited that the board creatively managed to declare the "Pension Holiday" for 2016. This action places over two million dollars in the hands of local churches for ministry in our conference. Every local church whose pastor participates in the pension program has money already in their budget for new ministry. We hope that churches will send pictures and stories to Jim Berners's office that we can share during our Annual Conference report.

From a personal stand point my time on the Board will be completed at the conclusion of Annual Conference. It has been my privilege to serve as chair. I would like to thank all the board members for their work. I would also like to thanks Jim Berner and the staff. They work very hard in what some times is a thankless job!

Rev. Dr. Okey Harless, Chair

Retired Ministers' Housing Loan Fund

History

At the 1981 session of the West Virginia Annual Conference, upon recommendation of the Board of Pensions, a Ministers' Retirement Housing Loan Fund was established to provide low interest loans to ministers at or near retirement for the purpose of purchasing a retirement home. The Board of Pensions, at their August 19, 1999 meeting, revised this fund to be loans of no more than $100,000 per family.

Pension Funds, Inc. administers this housing loan fund through the Executive Secretary's office. The fund is supported by gifts, Day of Remembrance offerings, and interest earned on existing loans.

Eligibility

All United Methodist ministers retiring in the current calendar year and surviving spouses of deceased ministers (provided application is made within one year after the minister's death) are eligible to receive loans from this fund. Applications may be secured by writing the office of Pension Funds, Inc., P.O. Box 2469, Charleston, WV 25329, attention Jim Berner. ALL APPLICATIONS MUST BE RECEIVED BY FEBRUARY 1. Applications will be reviewed at the Board's February meeting.

Donations

Donations of money, stock, bonds, real property, and other convertible assets are welcomed. The Executive Secretary of Pension Funds, Inc., and the United Methodist Foundation of West Virginia, Inc. will cooperate to provide channels of giving and investment for persons who would like to provide gifts to the Retirement Housing Loan Fund.

Loan Fund Guidelines

Loans are available to surviving spouses of deceased ministers and to ministers of the West Virginia Annual Conference who will qualify for pension after serving on a full-time basis as a Local Pastor or Conference Member at least ten (10) consecutive years immediately preceding the date of retirement.

The following criteria will determine the availability of loans:

1. Fund Balance.
- Number of Applications received.
- Applicant's financial need.
4. Nearness of applicant to retirement (must be within one year of retirement).

This provision does NOT apply to surviving spouses.

The purpose of the loan is to assist in the purchase of primary retirement housing. Loans will NOT be made to assist in refinancing a house or to purchase a second home if the first home is sold.

Loans will be limited to eighty (80) percent of the appraised value or purchase price of the property, whichever is least. If the home is later sold, the loan is NOT assumable.

Interest rates shall be two thirds of the prime rate as reported in the Wall Street Journal with a minimum rate of 6% on the day the loan application is received in the office of the Executive secretary of Pension Funds, Inc. Loans shall be amortized over a period of not more than twenty years. All costs relative to loan procurement shall be borne by the borrower.

The borrower shall provide the following documents:

- Deed of Trust
- Evidence of property and liability insurance
- Termite inspection (existing home) or termite treatment (new homes)
- Promissory note covering the full amount of the loan
- Certificate of title or final title letter

- Home Inspection Survey

Religion and Race

The work of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race is identified in Paragraph 643 of the 2012 Book of Discipline. Responsibilities assigned to the Conference Commission on Religion and Race include the following:

- a) Interpreting the intent of all responsibilities given to annual conference commission on religion and race so that the responsibilities reflect the context for ministry and realities of the areas in which they exist.
- b) Providing resources and training to enable the work of the local church ministry area of religion and race as specified in Paragraph 252.2b, with particular emphasis placed on pastors and congregations involved in cross-racial/cross-cultural ministry.
- c) Reviewing and making appropriate recommendations for total inclusiveness and equity within the conference staff and on all of the conference boards, agencies, commissions, and committee. Reports will be made yearly to the conference.
- d) Partnering with annual conference boards and agencies as they seek to develop programs and policies of racial equity and inclusiveness.
- e) Consulting with the Board of Ordained Ministry and the cabinet to ensure racial/ethnic inclusion and equity in the recruitment, credentialing, and itineracy processes of the conference. The executive committee of the Board of Ordained Ministry and cabinet shall meet at least once per year in joint sessions with the Conference Commission on Religion and Race to create and assess long-term plans for identifying and developing clergy leadership who will serve the growing racial and ethnic populations in the Church.
- f) Consulting with local churches that are experiencing changing demographics in the neighborhoods where they are located that may be different than the church's racial/ethnic constituency and have a desire to be in ministry with the community.
- g) Coordinating conference leadership in and support of racial and social justice movements impacting local communities in consultation and partnership with other entities within and outside of the conference boundaries.
- h) Supporting and providing programs of education in areas of cultural competency, racial justice, and reconciliation at every level of the conference.
- i) Partnering with the appropriate denominational bodies to assist in resolution of complaints of racial/ethnic discrimination made by clergy or laity.

The Commission of Religion and Race (commonly referred to as CORR) has met three times since the 2015 annual conference session. We met in October with BOOM, the Cabinet and Giovanni Arroyo. During the three meetings of the Commission, members asked how do we as a Commission assist in moving the West Virginia Annual Conference toward greater inclusiveness and a consensus was established to prioritize our work for the quadrennium in the following manner:

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will work with the General Commission on Religion and Race to acquire the resources and training necessary for the Commission's work plan to be successful. Commission members will be trained to lead cultural competence workshops in the conference, district and local church levels. The General Commission on Religion and Race will assist the Conference Commission to develop additional resources to assist the Annual Conference in becoming a more inclusive church. Examples include: local church self-assessment tools, study guides, models of effective local church transformations.

RECRUIT, RECRUIT, RECRUIT. The Commission is committed to working with the Bishop and other church leaders in calling church members to service by seeking to develop a talent bank of persons willing to serve on conference boards, committees, and taskforces. The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will build the talent bank utilizing the membership and attendance records of our historically African-American churches.

The Commission will organize and host mentoring and training events for racial/ethnic persons who agree to serve on Conference board and agencies, lay members to Annual Conference, etc.

The Commission on Religion and Race will work with the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to clarify, and more broadly communicate conference practices which lead to racial/ethnic inclusion and equity in the recruitment, credentialing, and itineracy processes of the West Virginia Annual conference. The Commission Chairperson, Reverend Jeremiah Jasper, initiated a joint meeting with the Executive Committee of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, the Bishop and cabinet, and the Conference Commission on Religion and Race, as mandated in Discipline Paragraph 643.e. The joint meeting was held on November 14, 2014, at Stonewall Jackson Resort. As a result of this joint meeting, the Commission on Religion and Race and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry have agreed to partner in the following efforts:

a. Recruiting clergy and lay leaders by building a more diverse team for seminary visits and broadening seminary visits to include Howard University, ITC in Atlanta, and other seminaries that have historically trained more racially diverse populations.

b. Supporting the vast demand to grow “in” leadership in the West Virginia Conference Area, the Conference Commission on Religion and Race and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry will join the bishop and the cabinet in supporting leadership development training events, in the West Virginia Conference and beyond the conference borders. Examples of leadership training events include the Radical Discipleship Academy and the Black Pastor's Convocation in Atlanta every other year.

- c. Encouraging the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry to include racial ethnic persons as teachers in the Board's PMLS training events.
- d. Utilizing various forms of communications, the Conference Commission on Religion and Race will assist in informing persons of the vast resources available in supporting and shaping effective ministry through The United Methodist Church.
- e. Encouraging the Conference and District nominating committees to be inclusive in its membership and encourage the submission of the data profile for all conference members. The data profile sheet should be made available on the Conference Website and all District websites.

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race is inclusive of all racial ethnic ministries. While in the past, one may have thought that our primary focus was with African-Americans, the times are calling for a very diverse and global church. The Commission on Religion and Race seeks representation and participation from the Korean congregation in Huntington in the Western District and to explore more opportunities for Native-Americans throughout our conference bounds.

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race will structure our work so as to gain input, guidance and participation from the growing number of diverse communities in the West Virginia Conference Area.

As we hope that you can tell from reading our report, the members of the Conference Commission on Religion and Race eagerly assume the responsibilities assigned to it by the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. We believe that in the days and years to come, our Church will see diversity as one of the denomination greatest strengths.

We invite you to join us on our journey. We welcome your feedback, participation and your prayers.

Grace and Peace,
Reverend Jeremiah Jasper, Chair

West Virginia CONAM

This year has seen tremendous growth for our WV Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM). Perhaps most importantly, we became a formally recognized committee within our annual conference. Such recognition supported our reaching out to all the United Methodist churches within the conference to contact their Native American representatives and to encourage their participation with Native American Ministries Sunday celebrated in April. We also assisted by mailing some related materials that could be used for this service.

Another milestone was our extended involvement with the annual conference in June. Through an initiative begun by Bishop Steiner-Ball, boe harris-nakakakena and Ragghi Rain Calentine (both long-time members and contributors to the New Jersey CONAM and to the NEJNAMC as well) were major speakers at the 2015 conference. Their many and varied appearances and activities helped pave the way for the 2016 “Trail of Repentance and Reconciliation” services that are culminating this summer, as well as setting the stage for WV Conference holding the 2016 NEJNAMC meeting in Wheeling. Members of the WV CONAM also participated in several activities at the annual conference, including a large display about our organization that stayed up over several days and was very well received.

Our CONAM made a real effort to attract new members and began strategizing about how best to organize our future projects. Last summer Ellesa High met with various other Native American interest groups around the conference. These included members of the WV Native American History Council, the Indian and Native American Job Training Assistance and Employment Program in Charleston, and the Native American Studies (NAS) Program at WVU. Possible networking with other organizations already has benefitted all involved and led to joint endeavors. For example, in February 2016, the CONAM partnered with WVU’s NAS Program and other organizations, churches and concerned individuals, to repatriate the body of a First Nation’s woman who died in West Virginia, so that her remains could be given a traditional burial in Canada within her community. In the future, we hope that such networking may help us better serve Native people within our area, as well as identify more of their gifts and talents.

Last fall the CONAM initiated a Native American spiritual outreach to inmates at the Huttonsville Correctional Center. Native American books were gathered and donated to the prison’s library, and the CONAM now is exploring how best to meet some of the spiritual needs the inmates have voiced. Creating new programming within the accepted bounds of the institution remains both exciting and challenging.

The CONAM held an overnight retreat at Ellesa’s farm in August to revitalize our energy, to share some of our dreams for the future of our CONAM, and to begin making concrete plans for 2016. Our other meetings were held at various sites around the state. We were pleased that one of our new members, Edith Brabender (Navajo), joined JF Lacia and Ellesa High (in addition to special program presenter and facilitator, Sharon Schmit) on a panel, “Advancing Native American Ministries” at the Bishop’s Summit on Diversity and Inclusion in October in Huttonsville, WV. Representatives from the CONAM continued to be involved with the General Commission on Religion and Race (GCORR) in the West Virginia Conference, and participated in a joint session held by the CCORR and the BOOM Executive committee and cabinet that met at Stonewall Resort on October 25, 2015.

Several CONAM members traveled to Briarcliff, New York to represent our WV CONAM at the Northeastern Jurisdictional Native American Ministries Committee annual meeting. This three-day event networks Native leaders in the United Methodist Church across the region, acting on shared challenges, and offering successful strategies and activities developed over the preceding year. We now are hard at work planning the 2016 meeting, which we will be hosting in Wheeling on October 6 – 8, 2016.

Finally, Ellesa High received a scholarship generously awarded by the Native American Comprehensive Plan (NACP) of The UMC to attend the Native American New Fellowship/New Church Start Summit held on November 19 – 21, 2015, in Oklahoma City, OK. Welcomed by Rev. Anita Phillips (NACP director), Bishop Robert Hayes (NACP chairperson), Rev. Chebon Kernell (Executive Secretary for Native American & Indigenous Ministries), and other leaders, participants from across the country discussed different models for growing new churches and Native American fellowships, and how such ministries can be sustained. Ellesa felt honored to be included as part of the summit and was excited to bring back to the annual conference and put into action some of what she learned at the meeting.

With Christ's continued help and the wonderful dedication of our committee members, the WV CONAM is discovering new possibilities for better serving Native Americans within our conference. In addition, we are developing materials so that our churches can be more deeply enhanced and touched by the traditional knowledge of the "First People's" cultures and histories within our region. Please join us in this exciting work!

For more information or to become a member of the CONAM, please contact Ellesa High, CONAM Chairperson, at Ellesa.High@mail.wvu.edu or phone 304- 435-2338.

Submitted by Ellesa High, Chairperson, with input from other Committee on Native American Ministries (CONAM) members.

Rules

The Rules Committee met February 29, 2016 via WEBEX. All members, except one, were present with two members and the Conference Secretary present at the Conference Center office and four with WEBEX. The committee is scheduled to meet again on June 8, 2016, 5:00 pm. Two proposed rule changes were discussed and prepared for presentation to the 2016 meeting of the West Virginia Annual Conference.

Patsy Flensburg, Chairperson

The following proposed amendments to the Rules were approved by the Rules Committee to be brought before the 2016 Annual Conference for adoption.

Old language bold and stricken with ~~one line~~

New language bold and underlined with two lines.

IV. Miscellaneous Standing Rules of the Conference, Section 8.

Strike the following:

~~An accurate record of the proceedings of the District Conference shall be submitted to AC Program Committee for review.~~

Insert the following:

A current and accurate report of all elected officers and committee chairpersons shall be submitted to the WV Conference office. The report shall include name and current contact information.

Rationale: In discussion with the Program Committee, it has been determined that the review of the required District record by one member of the committee has served no purpose to the Conference. However, there may be a need to have contact with the District officers and Committee chairpersons.

II. Rules of Order and Business Procedure

21. Procedure for Consideration of Substitute Motions. When a resolution or committee report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments are pending, a substitute may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report, resolution, or amendment under consideration.

The substitute shall be an alternative to what is before the body and not simply a negation of the main motion as determined by the presiding officer. Debate on the motion to substitute will be limited to the question of substitution only. No amendments to the main motion or the substitute will be considered during this period of initial consideration.

The Conference shall proceed first to perfect the original report or resolution, including consideration and action upon any amendments that may be offered to it.

Following the debate on the motion to substitute, a vote on substitution will occur. If the motion to substitute prevails by majority vote, the substitute motion becomes the main motion. If the motion to substitute fails to receive a majority vote, the original main motion remains on the floor for consideration. Debate, including the offering of amendments, moves forward on the main motion as per the rules of procedure.

The same perfecting process shall be followed with respect to the substitute. (4) The questions shall be put first on the motion to substitute, followed by the motion to adopt the report or resolution provided, however, that Rationale: This is the rule used by the General Conference. It differs from Robert's Rules in that the body is allowed first to choose the direction that it wants to go in regards to a substitute motion. It does not require perfecting two motions before it chooses the direction that it prefers. For example, the Conference might spend 20 minutes on amendments to a proposed substitution and then reject the substitution in favor of the main motion when a simple vote at the beginning would indicate which direction the body is leaning. After choosing the preferred direction, the body then can perfect the motion. This saves time, frustration and confusion when a substitute is presented.

Stewardship

As the annual conference stewardship coordinator, I have been blessed with opportunities to work with churches and individuals in our conference: #1 To help them grow in their stewardship knowledge and practice, and: #2 To challenge them to use the resources God entrusts to them, wisely and responsibly. I have tried to offer insight for these two stewardship areas by utilizing the "New Consecration Sunday Stewardship" program with churches; by teaching district workshops on stewardship practices such as "Extravagant Generosity" (R. Schnase's Five Practices of Fruitful Congregations); by offering to clergy and laity a district "Finance Committee" workshop with emphasis on stewardship and a "year-around stewardship program" for the local church; by working with individual pastors and churches on stewardship matters; by providing information on the "Measurable Outcome Based Budgeting" approach through our Conference Covenant Council.

In working with churches and individuals as the stewardship coordinator, I see God at work through our stewardship efforts. And I believe God is pleased with our efforts as evidenced by these words of Jesus, "Well done, good and faithful servant; you have been faithful in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master." (Mt. 25). As more and more churches, clergy, and laity in our conference grow in their stewardship knowledge and put into practice this knowledge in an effort to be good stewards, I believe God will be pleased!

In the hopes of developing a stewardship lead team, the following “Stewardship Ministry Areas of Focus” will be a useful guide to our team.

Stewardship Ministry Areas of Focus

“Financial Resources” --- “Time, Talent & Ability Resources” --- “Environment Resources”

Assumptions: God provides resources to all! (Mt. 25:15).

We are called to use these resources, wisely and responsibly.

We are called to use these resources to glorify God/grow God’s kingdom.

Vision: Individuals, churches and the conference will effectively use what resources they currently have, as they develop and grow their resources (Mt. 25:20).

Goals: Identify churches in the stewardship ministry areas of focus which would be models of good stewardship throughout the districts; Establish successful stewardship practices and develop a network to share these stewardship practices; Utilize social media to promote stewardship; Continue to provide training opportunities for growth in stewardship knowledge and practice.

In closing, I share with you these words, “Joyful, faithful Christian stewardship is our way of living with all that God has entrusted to us, sharing and using it on behalf of God.” (GBOD).

Trustees

The Trustees of the West Virginia Annual Conference have the responsibility to maintain, care for, and administer matters relating to the various properties owned by the West Virginia Annual Conference and to help secure funding for these properties for ongoing maintenance and capital improvements. The largest of these properties is Spring Heights Camping and Educational Center. As with any large facility, Spring Heights has ongoing maintenance needs, which are addressed on a year-to-year basis; therefore, the Annual Conference Trustees are recommending to continue the amount of $30,000.00 in the 2017 budget for general maintenance at Spring Heights. This past year the Trustees have entered into an agreement of selective timbering. This was done in a way to preserve the beauty of our wild and wonderful natural environment at Spring Heights and to promote careful and responsible stewardship of the forests and land entrusted to us. This will also produce some funds for future capital improvements at Spring Heights.

Another aspect of the work of the Trustees is the selling of and/or conveyances of abandoned and discontinued churches and properties. The Trustee’s agent, Rev. Clifford Schell, together with able assistance from the Conference Chancellor, Attorney Robert File, completed sales of the following properties during the period of March 1, 2015 through February 29, 2016.

United Methodist Men

When the time came, Jesus charged - commanded - the disciples to go to the lost sheep and preach that the Kingdom of Heaven is at hand, for them to heal the sick, cast out the devil, and to bring those back into the fold for their love of the Lord. The United Methodist Men are like those first disciples. We as a whole are charged to declare the centrality of Christ in every man's life, to have spiritual growth of men through effective discipleship, and to model servant leadership of Christ in our daily lives.

The West Virginia Conference United Methodist Men again stepped to the plate and followed the teaching of Jesus by feeding the hungry and thirsty with such programs as the potato drops, by giving monetary donations to places like Scott's Run Settlement House, Heart and Hand House and other food pantries and mission projects to help our brothers and sisters that have fallen on hard times.

The year of 2015 was a very good and busy time for the United Methodist Men. Our first big event was to host the Bishop's Dinner, for the first time in almost 14 years. This was in conjunction with the Boy Scouts at the Summit Bechtel Reserve, the new home for the Boy Scout Jamboree. Churches from the conference were invited to attend this event if they were interested in starting a club or Boy Scout troop at their church or expanding into a venturing group. Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball was the guest speaker and she spoke on how the scouting program is a part of the United Methodist ministry. We would like to thank the West Virginia Foundation for funding this event. Although the weather was wet and cold, we still had a tour of the Summit for those who were willing to brave the elements. After speeches from difference organizations, the two Boy Scout Torch Awards were presented to Rev. J.F. Lalaria and Mr. Gary Maffioli.

We are very thankful to the men of the MonValley District for the time and effort they spent spearheading the Arnold Eddy Golf Tournament again this year. Without funding from this event, the United Methodist Men would not be able to provide the Circuit Rider event at no cost for scout troops. The tournament was held at Bel-Meadow Golf Course. A team from Suncrest United Methodist Church took 1st place and a team from Spruce Street United Methodist Church took 2nd place. The score was actually a tie at -7, with Suncrest winning the tie breaker.

This year the West Virginia Conference United Methodist Men's Gathering was held September 11 - 13, 2015, at Jackson's Mill Resort, the home for this event since 1954. This year's theme was 'Men in 21st Century Changing the United Methodist Church,' with the Rev. Dr. Timothy Allen as the guest speaker. His focus was on what men should be doing in The United Methodist Church. The United Methodist Men hosted the Saturday evening meal for the scouts and their leaders with over 500 in attendance. As the scouts were leaving, they received either the 'Life Book' or 'Strength for Service' to God and Country. Let me make it very clear that the event we hold at Jackson's Mill is not just for Boy Scouts, it is also for the Girl Scouts. We truly enjoy having all who are interested in attending.

This year turned out to be one of the most productive business sessions the United Methodist Men has had in a number of years. Since there had never been an official criteria establish for the awarding of the United Methodist Men ‘Man of the Year’ award, the criteria were written and approved at the gathering. A scholarship for Boy Scouts to attend the 2017 Jamboree was established and a panel was appointed to write the criteria requirement for the selection of one who would like to attend. We hope to be able to help more than one scout who may need a couple of hundred dollars; we can award a scholarship for that amount.

The election of new officer for 2017 are as follows:

President	Don Davis
Vice President	George Hohmann
Secretary	Ed Rancjik
Treasury	Danny Murphy
Scout/Youth	Ralph Herron
Pray Advocate	Harold Lankevin
Nomination	Paul Hanko
Funding	Rev. George Webb

Mr. James Snyder of First United Methodist Church, South Charleston, was named the West Virginia Conference United Methodist Men ‘Man of the Year’ for 2015. The Arnold Eddy Golf Tournament award was presented to the MonValley United Methodist Men for having the most golfers attending this event. The Palmar Award for the second year was presented to Westover United Methodist Church for having the most men attending the gathering. This year the United Methodist Men’s Gathering will be held September 9 - 11, 2016, with Mr. Joe Kelley, President of National Pray Advocate as the guest speaker. His topic is ‘God had done with my Life.’

May the Lord shine a little light on each one of us and God Bless.

Don Davis, President

United Methodist Women

In 1869, eight women met in Boston, Massachusetts, in response to a lack of women's health in India. These eight women heard "the Call" and responded. That number of eight has now grown to 800,000 in the 147 years that the United Methodist Women have been in mission serving women, children and youth around the world. The women of the West Virginia Conference continue to hear and obey the "Call." The year 2015 has been no different. We have been "Welcomed by God," "Working for God" and "Called by God" at our three conference wide events.

Our first conference event was the Spiritual Growth Retreat, held at Cedar Lakes in Ripley. We had 251 women who listened as the speaker, the Rev. Randall Flanagan, told how he had been "Welcomed by God" through the United Methodist Women in his life who influenced him. He also reminded us to take some time for ourselves and renew our commitments. Craig Hinchman was our pianist as well as song leader. We were blessed with some old hymns and some new songs from Faith We Sing.

Our second conference event, Mission u, was a three-day event held at West Virginia Wesleyan College in Buckhannon. "Working for God" was the theme of our time together. There were 102 women who chose to study one of three different studies: "Created for Happiness," "The Church and People with Disabilities" and "Latin America." The 19 children and youth who attended studied "Latin America." The attendees also were part of Focus Groups that discussed the subjects of Bullying, Children's Hunger and Poverty, and Music.

We closed out 2015 with our Annual Meeting at Lewisburg United Methodist Church. The Greenbrier District welcomed 206 attendees as they hosted this event. On Friday evening we were blessed by the music of the John Wesley UMC Senior Choir. President Judy Raines led a Memorial Service as we remembered those women who had touched our lives. We celebrated Holy Communion and an offering of $1527.00 was collected for the Love Gift fund which supports our Church and Community Workers in the West Virginia Conference. Our speaker, Rev. Monty Brown, talked about the United Methodist Women in his life and the women in the Bible. On Saturday, Judy Raines brought our President's message. Mission Moments were shared by Rev. Ellen File with Burlington, Beckley campus, and Belinda Toms of Tyrand Cooperative Parish. These Mission Moments helped us understand the mission work that occurs at both sites. Saturday's offering of $986.95 was taken for the Scarritt-Bennett Center. We were blessed with a solo by Connie Copeland and the music of PUMC Silent Praise. Diane Braun brought her Director's Report. Conference Officers for 2016 were elected and installed.

It never ceases to amaze me how the women of the West Virginia Conference have their hands in mission work on the local level as well as the national level. The women of this conference met and exceeded our 2015 pledge of $216,400.00 by 6% to the National office of United Methodist Women. The lives of many women, children and youth have been changed because you care and because you responded to "the Call" in 2015. Let us continue to change lives in 2016 one by one.

Dorothy Siemiaczko, President

Young Adults

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Greetings in the name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ! We are continuing to look for opportunities to grow and are open to new ideas and ministry opportunities across the Annual Conference. Further, we are very interested in partnering with ministry teams, local ministries, and churches across the Annual Conference to incorporate young people into the life of the church in a meaningful way. One of the ways we were able to support young adults this year was by co-sponsoring a gathering time for all young adults at Annual Conference. This gathering is scheduled for Thursday night at 9 p.m. Listen for the location to be announced at Conference.

In God's Grace and Peace,

Rev. Lauren A. Godwin

Conference Council on Youth Ministries

This has been a very exciting and innovative year for the Conference Council on Youth Ministries (CCYM) as well as the youth of the West Virginia Annual Conference. Our mission is to strengthen the faith of youth, call youth into a relationship with God, and strengthen youth ministries on a conference and district level. With some changes that have happened already, 2015-2016 is shaping up to be a big transition year for the youth. The second Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia took place, Fall Workshop 2015 was a success, and we have some plans put in place for a thrilling summer. CCYM is very grateful for all of the support and assistance we have received!

For the second year, the Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia (RDAA) was able to reach out and connect with youth. There were nine new participants this year: Brooks Anderson, Jared Schmidt, Julia Olachea, Katie Anderson, Marcus Phillips, Olivia Strother, Rachel Johnson, Sarah Davis, and Sonja Harris. Along with them were five 2nd year RDAA members: Allie Sears, Ian Schmidt, Jenna Soltesz, Louisa Smith, and Madison Dean. These 14 youth plus other adults and young adults spent one week together diving deeper into their faith and answering theological questions. They had communion together, worshiped, and made memories along the way. After their week at Spring Heights, they spent the next 11 months within their covenant groups learning and growing closer in their relationship with God.

“Going the Extra Mile to Love” was the theme for Fall Workshop 2015. We were very fortunate to have over 200 youth join together at Cedar Lakes in Ripley, WV, to hear this wonderful message. Our speakers for the weekend were Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball, Rev. Joe Hill, Madison Dean, and Bob Cover. Youth learned how to love their enemies and invite the uninvited, learn how science and faith can go together, and share fellowship with others from all over the conference. Over $700 was raised for the Youth Service Fund (YSF) which will be used to help youth groups and individuals all over the nation and world with mission trips or service projects.

How many of you have seen the “Chuck Knows Church” videos? Over 170 youth and adults from WV got to meet Chuck this year at Youth 2015. Youth 2015 was held in June in Orlando, Florida, and we learned how to “Go On.” We learned teachings from Hebrews 6:1 on how to go on toward perfection and to help spread Jesus’ teachings. Over 4,500 youth from all over the nation gathered for this monumental event. Along with all of the worshipping, singing, and meeting new people, many youth groups spent an extra day exploring Florida. This was a very exciting time for youth and we are very thankful for the opportunity. The next national event will be Youth 2019 and the location has yet to be announced.

The Northeastern Jurisdiction (NEJ) takes a pilgrimage every year to a different country. This year, the NEJ Mission of Peace (MOP) traveled to the People’s Republic of China. Three youth from West Virginia, Catherine Morris, Claire Hemme, and Madison Dean, along with J.F. Lacaria, traveled with other youth and adults from the NEJ on this spiritual journey. As they returned, they have gone and shared their stories and experiences with others. For the 2016-2017 year, MOP plans on voyaging to Nicaragua.

This year, we were extremely elated to welcome two new adults to CCYM and Camping and Outdoor Ministries. Joe Hill joined us as our Conference Youth Coordinator in July. Joe is the senior pastor of Crossroads UMC in Huntington, WV. We were also blessed to welcome Shea James as our new Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries. Shea comes to us from Bowling Green, Kentucky, where she was a campus minister and we are very excited to have her join us in West Virginia.

Some very big, new things are happening this summer for youth! The first ever Rally on the Mountain has been dreamed and now planned for this summer. Rally on the Mountain will be held July 14-17, 2016, at Snowshoe Ski Resort in Snowshoe, West Virginia. This year’s theme will be “Change 2016” and we are so excited to welcome any and all youth to join us this summer. Render the Hearts will be providing music and we will be joined by Gary Shockley as a sand artist. Along with the event, we will be having Bishop Steiner Ball join us to recognize any youth being confirmed into the church at Rally on the Mountain. We will be able to explore Snowshoe as well as joining together in fellowship and worshipping with one another. We hope to see your youth group there!

Once again, we’d like to thank anybody who has shown support and encouragement to the youth. Thank you to all who have helped with dreaming, planning, designing, and who have walked with us along this journey. An incredibly big thank you to Bishop Steiner Ball, the Team of Effective Laity, and the RDAA Planning Team for all of their hard work assisting us through this transformation. We pray for continued support in the years to come!

Grace, peace, and blessings!

Conference Youth Coordinator

When leading young people it is vital, for their sake and ours, to sometimes follow. When trying to navigate today and to anticipate tomorrow, what we know from yesterday can only help us see so far. It is vital that youth learn to lead because they will be going much farther into the future than the rest of us. When I accepted the invitation to serve as Conference Youth Coordinator, I understood that one of the most necessary roles of this ministry would be to give youth space to lead. Having done that, they have never failed to impress me.

The Conference Council on Youth Ministries is an amazing group of youth and adults. I am blessed to have been chosen to work them. It has been a year of learning and Nancy White has been very gracious in helping me to get a handle on the position.

Fall Workshop was a great success. CCYM did an outstanding job in brainstorming new ideas for this year's workshops and YSF fundraisers. We welcomed a lot of middle school participants which bodes well for coming years. We were grateful to have the Bishop with us for opening worship. The musicians, a/v team, and our featured youth preacher, Madison Dean, did an outstanding job. It was a joy to see many youth developing a new sense of connection to their church at the conference level. We even brought two new people into CCYM during the event. We were very happy to find that, after all fees were collected and invoices paid, we came out with a positive net balance on the event. Additionally, more than $600 was raised for the Youth Service Fund.

I enjoyed getting a better understanding of all of the behind the scenes work that goes into planning and executing the weekend well. I am grateful to the many adults who support this event year after year through their time as deans, counselors, and teachers. Special thanks are due to Myra Bess and Chris Ridgeway for their efforts on the administrative side of this event.

The youth on the council are a terrific group with which to work. Lauren Shanholtzer does an exceptional job as chairperson. I am always impressed with the passion and maturity of their faith and with the wonderful ideas they come up with. They give me great hope for the future of the conference and for the Body of Christ as a whole. I am equally impressed with the commitment of the adults on the council encouraging and supporting the ideas of the youth. Thank you for willingly offering your ideas and for patiently answering all of this rookie's questions. Bob Cover has been an especially valuable help to me in this first year.

Rev. Shea James has been a joy to work with. It is a blessing to have her with us a Director of Youth and Outdoor Ministries. She brings a lot of fresh ideas to our work and shares my passion for nurturing youth as leaders who can take responsibility and ownership for their own ministry.

We are very excited for the Rally on the Mountain at Snowshoe this summer. It is a new venture that tries to honor and retain the most meaningful experiences of past Summer Youth Celebrations while offering some new experiences as well. Among other things, we are making space during the long weekend to recognize and celebrate young disciples confirmed in the past year. The council has put a great deal of thought and energy into the Rally and we are very proud of the work they have done. It has been a tremendous help in organizing the event to have a dedicated staff person in Shea to bring all of the loose ends together. We are also very grateful to have had the support of the Team of Effective Laity. Again the Bishop will be making time to be with us which the youth greatly appreciate. The theme of the Rally, not surprisingly, is Change. We anticipate transformation in the youth that come to the Rally and, as a result, transformation in their churches and in their communities as well.

Early in the conference year, we had considered the possibility of taking a year off from Fall Workshop in 2016 in order to overhaul the event. However, at the last CCYM meeting we began some preliminary planning and the team has already generated some great ideas. Plans are to return to Cedar Lakes in November for the annual gathering. It will not largely depart from the traditional format. You might say we are thinking in the box but keeping the lid open so that new ideas have room to spill over.

As the Spirit leads, we will follow.

Rev. Joe Hill, Conference Youth Coordinator

Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia (RDAA)

The Radical Discipleship Academy of Appalachia is a twelve-month spiritual formation experience for youth. The central purpose is to enable young people to live their faith in a way that consumes and directs their whole lives. The Academy gives participants a chance to learn more about themselves, their gifts, and where God might be calling them into service.

After the initial summer week, participants are placed into a covenant group that meets monthly over the next 11 months to continue learning and growing together, and to help participants begin leading in new ways in their church and community. Over the year two mentors guide each Covenant Group in intentional discussion, reflection, prayer, and support.

The Academy is completing its second full program cycle. In 2015-2016, fourteen students, six mentors, and more than 15 program volunteers and leaders were immersed in spiritual formation inside intentional community. Gathered around “baptism” as a theme, The Academy’s participants and volunteers sought to discover what it means to be in a baptismal family—how to welcome a stranger, how to live into God’s reality, how to exercise the freedom and power gifted by God, how to disagree with integrity, recognizing the many shapes of forgiveness and understanding the church as a community across time. Through covenant group discussion, worship and play, participants and volunteers grew both in their relationships with one another and their relationship with God as they connected the theological theme with their daily living.

The group met again at Jackson's Mill in January to focus on The Academy's goals for leadership development, community advocacy, and continued covenant group participation. During the Mid-Year Gathering students engaged in discussion and worship. It was a powerful time to share faith stories and to be refreshed for the last six months of work in the program.

The design team is overwhelmed with joy by the enthusiasm and dedication of all participants, mentors and program volunteers. We are humbled by the encouragement we receive from local churches in the form of volunteers, scholarship and donations. Likewise, we are grateful for the affirmation and support we receive through the Bishop's Lead Team, and through denominational boards like Discipleship Ministries and The General Board of Higher Education and Ministry. We are struck by the way God has blessed The Academy and look forward to planning the next program cycle.

We are currently accepting applications for the 2016-2017 program year. Early admission deadline is May 6, with a reduced cost of $350.00. Our final deadline for applications is June 24, with a $400.00 tuition. The program launches with a week at Spring Heights, July 24-29. All rising 9th-11th graders are eligible to apply. For more information or for access to an application please go to <http://www.springheights.org/radical-discipleship.html>.

West Virginia Wesleyan College

I write this 2015-2016 academic year report with a heavy heart as this year's Annual Conference will be my last as President of West Virginia Wesleyan College. I announced my upcoming December 31, 2016 retirement to our Board of Trustees in February. This time frame will allow for a thorough national search for a new President who will begin in January 2017. It has been a great decade for our college and I have cherished our relationship with The United Methodist Church and all of the personal friendships.

In review of the 2015-2016 academic year, we are proud of many achievements. This was the celebratory year for our 125th Anniversary of the founding of West Virginia Wesleyan College. It was, thereby, appropriate to hear the passionate words from Bishop Thomas Bickerton at our October 2015 Founders Day Convocation. Bishop Bickerton, a 1980 graduate of West Virginia Wesleyan College, provided an inspirational message for all. We also awarded Bishop Bickerton with Wesleyan's Honorary Doctor of Divinity degree.

We also launched the public phase of our $30 million capital campaign, "Enhancing Our Tradition, Empowering our Future." Our goal is to reach or surpass our five year total by June 30, 2017.

We have also had a productive year with campus improvements. Thanks to the research by our Archivist, Brett Miller '06, we have a new Athletics Traditions Room, adjacent to the main gymnasium. It was the vision of Director of Athletics, Randy Tenney '77, and funded by the West Virginia Independent Oil and Gas Association. In addition, the West Virginia Wesleyan College Emeritus Club provided the resources to complete classroom 200 in the Martin Religious Center.

Our Title III staff members, led by Alison Clausen, have achieved and exceeded goals to support our students, faculty and staff.

- 15 first-generation students are receiving one-on-one advising in the spring of 2016.
- 56 students are receiving one-on-one advising in the spring of 2016.
- 80 faculty have been trained in new or alternative teaching techniques.
- 111 of 117 faculty (full time plus adjuncts) have participated in development activities (seminars, workshops, technology, etc.).
- 31 faculty have been trained in how to use the new classroom technology.

Our $10 million Title III grant, in this second year of five, has been extremely important in allowing us to transform our campus facilities. To date, we have completed ten facilities projects and classrooms with state-of-the-art technology and flexible seating furniture. Another ten classrooms are in progress for summer.

Another outstanding accomplishment that we appreciated this year was a successful accreditation visit by the Higher Learning Commission. The team members praised our progress in the assessment of student learning. Also, they stated that, “Much progress has been made to improve the financial condition of West Virginia Wesleyan College over the past five years. This is evidenced by the increase in unrestricted net assets, steady increase in net tuition and fees, reduced dependence on the line of credit, growth in the Endowment and the five-year (2014-2019) $10 million Title III grant. Additionally, the College has raised nearly $24 million of the $30 million capital campaign goal.” The team also praised the Board for its commitment to the College and for providing oversight and expertise as appropriate, while leaving day-to-day operations to the administration, faculty and staff.

Our students continue to make us proud and they are the heart of what we do. They continue to do incredible service, participate in fellowships and internships, succeed in athletics and co-curricular experiences, perform in prestigious national musical performances, and successfully compete in national academic settings.

Our new Chaplain and Director of Religious and Spiritual Life, Reverend Chris Scott, is inspiring our students in many venues, and is an appreciated mentor and listener.

Thank you for your support over the years of passionate team work. This year and the decade of working “from good to great” have been rewarding and fulfilling. John Wesley would be proud!

Africa University

Dear West Virginia Annual Conference,

More than 6,200 alumni. Fifteen hundred full-time students from 26 African countries. More than 750 continuing education or part-time students. Students from all three United Methodist African central conferences. Graduates working in more than 30 countries. That's Africa University.

For 24 years, Africa University has nurtured principled, effective and ethically and spiritually grounded leaders for the church and the world. We are grateful for your conference's investment in the Africa University Fund in 2015. Thank you!

Who is the "typical" Africa University graduate? That's a tough question. Our alumni serve their communities and the world as college and seminary presidents, faculty members, district superintendents, communicators, hospital and clinic managers, farmers and agricultural workers, peace-building advocates and much more. Your gifts are essential.

Please continue to invest in and make a difference through Africa University. Set a goal of increasing your conference's engagement and support. Most importantly, pray for Africa University.

Encourage your General Conference delegates to approve the Africa University Fund apportionment at the same level as approved in 1988. Urge them to support re-approval as per recommendations in the General Council and Finance and Administration Report #4 in the Daily Christian Advocate.

Please share and highlight your conference's Africa University Report at your 2016 annual conference sessions. (It appears in your conference journal.)

Grateful for your commitment to Africa University,

Candler School of Theology

For more than 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, over 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as Christian leaders who put faith and love into action, transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is also one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in Atlanta provides a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century. Simply put, there is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

In order to keep pace with the needs of the church and the world, Candler now offers 17 degrees: seven single degrees and ten dual degrees pairing theology with bioethics, business, development practice, law, public health, or social work. One of our newest degrees is a retooled Doctor of Ministry that is 90 percent online, so students can remain in their places of ministry as they study—and apply what they learn in real time. We’ve also partnered with the University of Georgia’s School of Social Work to create an M.Div./MSW where students learn to maximize their effectiveness by combining pastoral skills such as spiritual counseling with social work practices such as family therapy and community assessment.

Our student body continues to reflect the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. 466 students are enrolled, with 48 percent women, 34 percent people of color (U.S.), and a median age of 29. Students represent 44 denominations, with 51 percent coming from the Methodist family. 82 percent of students are seeking a degree to prepare them as ministry professionals.

Candler has a deep commitment to alleviating student debt and employs a multi-pronged approach to tackle this issue. In 2015-2016, we awarded nearly $5.5 million in Candler scholarships, with 92 percent of M.Div. students and 84 percent of all students receiving support. And our comprehensive financial literacy program teaches money management skills that serve our students now and will continue to serve them—and the churches they serve—well into the future.

At the end of the 2015-2016 academic year, Candler says goodbye and Godspeed to a handful of noted faculty as they retire: Barbara Day Miller, Luke Timothy Johnson, Steve Tipton, and Bishop Woodie White. Yet even as these legends take their leave after distinguished careers of scholarship and service, we look forward to welcoming a new crop of scholar-leaders who will join us in the coming months and grow with us in the coming years. We are especially pleased to welcome Bishop Larry Goodpaster, who will join the faculty as bishop-in-residence in the fall of 2016.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

Drew University Theological School

A Cohering Vision: Curriculum, Community, Co-Curricular Initiatives

After much collaborative discussion, discernment, and evaluation of the current state of theological education, those of us who lead, teach, and support Drew Theological School have launched on an ambitious course. Nearly 150 years after our founding, we envision a future as bright as the best eras in our past. I am pleased to share with you here the concrete steps we have taken—and are taking—to bring this future to light.

First, our efforts have been attentive to the history of Drew, in particular its Methodist roots, its long commitment to the Church and its ministries, and draw from this wellspring for inspiration and direction. Also, we have honored our progress to achieve denominational, ethnic, gender, and racial diversity in our faculty and student body. This rich diversity has become both a hallmark of Drew and an expansion of our wellspring. Forces beyond our campus—notably, that the reasons for pursuing a theological education and expected outcomes are shifting dramatically—further press the need for us to align our vision and its supporting systems with our communal reality.

Given this imperative, we are focused on the three “C’s” of our cohering vision: redesigning our curriculum, strengthening our community of learning, and deepening training through revived co-curricular initiatives. These three aspects of a Drew Theological School education will work together to enable us to empower creative thought and courageous action to advance justice, peace, and love of God, neighbor, and the earth—as well as uniquely position us to lead evolving expressions of Christianity.

Designing distinct pathways from curriculum to vocation

To remain meaningful and offer the greatest value to our students, each of the six degree paths that we offer must be as distinct as the ministry to which it leads. For example, our Master of Arts in Ministry program, which forms students for the broadest spectrum of theologically-informed advocacy and ministry, or our D.Min. program, which has become the “new” terminal vocational degree, must be custom rebuilt for current and emerging student needs and outcomes. This also holds true for our Master of Arts, Master of Sacred Theology, Ph.D., and, most critically, our Master of Divinity programs.

We have achieved our roadmap for curricular change through a period of intentional discernment, which included discussion with consultants, and with colleagues at peer institutions, who led a curricular formation retreats with our faculty; through the discernment and guidance of our faculty, and with the generous financial support of the Jesse Ball duPont Fund. Our next steps include a comprehensive analysis of pedagogical and technological trends in theological education, enrollment, and outcomes. Our redesigned curricular paths will be announced in the fall of 2017, concurrent with the 150th anniversary of the founding of Drew Theological School and the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Student experiences rooted in community

Despite the increase in students pursuing their education through evening classes and online enrollment, we remain committed to the on-campus experience of community. This begins with a student-centered educational experience that better attends to the scheduling needs of our students, offers broader course content and availability, and more intentionally integrates vocational or career aspirations with coursework.

The success of these efforts are inextricably linked to scholarship support. Only by removing the financial barriers for students pursuing vocations can we hope to attract and retain the most promising students and free them to learn and grow in community. Related to tuition support is the need for more affordable and modernized housing for those students who choose to live on campus. Together, scholarship support and housing relief will also unburden our students from unsustainable debt.

Fostering innovation in ministry and the work of spirit-filled justice

To round out changes in our curriculum and on-campus learning experiences, we are also reviving co-curricular initiatives. The existing Center for Lifelong Learning will be recast as the new Center for Innovation and Leadership in Ministry and serve students, alumni, and others seeking to find creative and courageous approaches to revitalizing ministry. Here, programming will train pastoral leaders, in particular, for service in rapidly changing church.

Our second co-curricular center will be an expansion of the current Communities of Shalom. This initiative will focus on action, advocacy, and social justice work in both pastoral and lay environments. Projects will range from student interns supporting the work of A Future with Hope in our home state of New Jersey, advancing social justice in non-profit settings across the country and around the world, initiatives which seek to transform and end systemic poverty, expansion of our Partnership for Religion and Education in Prisons (PREP) program, and teaching residencies at Drew for prophetic leaders.

Success so far through our One and All Campaign

As the 14th dean of Drew Theological School, I am deeply committed to continuing our long and distinguished legacy. To this end, our vision is innovative, forward-looking, and grounded in the practical needs of our students - we hope, too, that it is an inspiration to the various constituencies we serve. I fully subscribe to the inimitable words of Antonio Machado, that “we make the road by walking.” The road to this bright future we envision will be made by the dedication, determination, and generosity of those who love Drew and believe in its future.

Our vision is coming to light, in part, because of the generosity of our many alumni-donors and friends. Our One and All fundraising campaign has raised more than $12 million to date for the Theological School and has seed-funded many of our burgeoning efforts.

Also, I encourage our alumni to embrace your power of influence to help grow philanthropic support for Drew Theological School. Many of our largest gifts have come from the influence of alumni, particularly pastors who serve in our church communities.

Yes, the needs ahead are many, yet our hope is high for a bright future for Drew Theological School. The road is made by walking. Let’s walk it together.

The Reverend Dr. Javier A. Viera
Dean of the Theological School & Professor of Pastoral Theology

Duke Divinity School

The academic year 2015–2016 has been one of transition as Dean Richard Hays was diagnosed with cancer and forced to step down from his role as dean a year sooner than anticipated. Ellen Davis, Amos Ragan Kearns Distinguished Professor of Bible and Practical Theology, accepted the invitation from Duke University President Richard Brodhead to serve as interim dean this year. A robust search committee to select candidates for the dean position had already been assembled, and they have spent this year conducting a thorough and thoughtful process to present final nominations to the president and provost of Duke University, who will make the final decision. The final slate of candidates was presented to the president and provost on Feb. 1, 2016, and we anticipate a final decision later this spring.

In the midst of this year of transition, we continue to engage with the church, academy, and society on important ecclesial and cultural issues. The heart of our work remains the preparation of men and women for Christian ministry and leadership within the church. This year we welcomed students from a range of backgrounds who are called to serve God and the church. In 2015, our total enrollment was 626 students: 449 are enrolled in the M.Div. degree program; 36 in the M.T.S.; 19 in the Th.M.; 44 in the Th.D.; 71 in the D.Min.; 33 in the M.A.C.P.; 16 in the M.A.C.S.; and 12 who are special students. Thirty-eight percent of our students are United Methodist, with an additional 4 percent from other Wesleyan traditions, and 43 percent of our M.Div. students are United Methodist. Fourteen percent of all students are Baptist, eight percent are Anglican or Episcopalian, three percent are Roman Catholic, eight percent are Presbyterian or Reformed, with the rest from 22 other denominations or nondenominational churches.

This year we made a number of strategic staffing decisions to ensure that we are meeting the priorities of the Divinity School. Lacey Warner, Associate Professor of Evangelism and Methodist Studies, has been named our senior strategist for United Methodist collaborations. Warner, whose background includes academic administration, parish ministry, theological teaching, and denominational leadership, will bring oversight, guidance, and new ideas about ways that the Divinity School can work with our United Methodist partners in the work of serving local churches and local pastors. She has been named interim regional director and head of Course of Study at Duke, one of the largest Course of Study programs. She will build on the strong existing curriculum to explore new forms of pastoral formation, as well as develop more formal assessments about the effectiveness of Course of Study to ensure that it delivers the best preparation for local pastors and churches.

Warner has also worked with Pastor David McNitzky of Alamo Heights UMC in San Antonio, Texas, to create a certificate program. People in the church were interested in learning more about theology, church history, and biblical studies. The church offers courses and helps people use this training to be transformational leaders in their church and community, and Duke Divinity School recognizes this.

Jeff Conklin-Miller, the E. Stanley Jones Assistant Professor of the Practice of Evangelism and Christian Formation and Royce and Jane Reynolds Teaching Fellow, has been named the new associate dean for academic programs. He is also the director of the master of arts in Christian practice (M.A.C.P.) program. Conklin-Miller is an ordained elder in the California-Pacific Conference and has served local churches as an associate pastor, co-pastor, and senior pastor. In addition to his extensive church ministry, he has experience in academic administration and Christian formation. In his role as academic dean, Conklin-Miller draws on these various aspects of his experience in order to ensure that academic and other formation programs at the Divinity School equip our students to further God's work in the church and the world.

We are well aware of the changing landscape in theological education: fewer people express interest in pursuing theological degrees, and the costs of education continue to rise. As part of strengthening our commitment to the priorities of recruitment and financial aid, we have appointed Todd Maberry to the new position of senior director of admissions, recruitment, and student finance. Maberry, who earned an M.Div. from Duke Divinity School and an M.P.A. degree from North Carolina State University, has served in academic administration and church leadership. Most recently he was the community pastor at the Church of the Resurrection (Downtown) in Kansas City, Mo., and he comes to Duke under appointment of Bishop Scott Jones in the Great Plains Conference.

Another notable new hire is the appointment of Meghan Feldmeyer Benson as Divinity School Chaplain, following the retirement of Sally Bates. An ordained elder in the Rocky Mountain Conference, she served for nine years as Director of Worship at Duke Chapel. Shortly after Rev. Benson began her chaplaincy last summer, both Richard Hays and Professor Kate Bowler were diagnosed with cancer, and she immediately demonstrated her gift for offering comfort and guidance to the Divinity School community through both skillfully designed worship and pastoral care. In the months since, Benson has continued to foster a spirit of prayerfulness, while also overseeing the Divinity School's worship life and opportunities for spiritual formation.

Our initiatives, centers, and programs are a vital resource for us in connecting the work of Duke Divinity School with other disciplines and constituents. Our Thriving Rural Communities initiative hosted "Fan the Flame," a weekend retreat on growth and sustainability for small-membership churches. In partnership with the Western North Carolina and North Carolina Conferences, they also sponsored the 2015 Convocation on the Rural Church, "Living in Community," to discuss issues important for transforming rural churches and communities. The Hispanic House of Studies, supported by both North Carolina Conferences, hosted a retreat for pastors serving the Hispanic and Latino/a community. Duke Divinity School remains committed to supporting local churches and local pastors, particularly in under-resourced communities.

Spirited Life, a holistic wellness program and behavioral health study conducted by the Clergy Health Initiative, has concluded its direct services to pastors, after working with more than 1,100 United Methodist clergy in North Carolina since 2010. The program provided resources for improving mental, spiritual, and physical health through evidence-based programs, coaching, and support. The initiative will continue to conduct and publish research, and will continue to offer information for clergy, congregants, and denominational officials to support the well-being of pastors.

Since 1979, the Center for Studies in the Wesleyan Tradition has been a source of internationally acclaimed research and support for Methodist and Wesleyan studies. The Center hosts the Wesley Works Editorial Project, which this year published a new volume of the works of John Wesley and launched a new website. The new volume, The Works of John Wesley Volume 27: Letters III (1756–1765), is the third of seven volumes devoted to Wesley's correspondence. The new website provides information on the previously published work as well as other resources for the study of John and Charles Wesley.

Several initiatives, specifically in the areas of health care, reconciliation, and the arts, provide opportunities for theological reflection to intersect with the pressing needs in our world today. Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts (DITA), Theology, Medicine, and Culture (TMC), the Office of Black Church Studies (OBCS), and the Center for Reconciliation (CFR) each sponsored numerous speakers and events during this past year. Faith & Leadership, the online magazine published by LEADD, continues to reach over 300,000 readers and provide a resource for theological reflection and “traditioned innovation” for all in ministry. Their continued excellent work was recognized again this year with awards from the Associated Church Press “Best of the Christian Press” contest.

Our faculty continue to be recognized for their scholarship and interdisciplinary expertise. Xi Lian and J. Kameron Carter were both named Henry Luce III Fellows for 2015–16. Ross Wagner, Kate Bowler, and Jennie Grillo each received prestigious research grants and fellowships to support their book projects. Faculty continue to be in demand as preachers, speakers, lecturers, and conference presenters all over the world, from academic conferences to leading Sunday school classes, to preaching in churches.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among the United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. To learn more about Duke Divinity School, please visit our website at www.divinity.duke.edu.

Respectfully submitted,
Interim Dean Ellen F. Davis

GAMMON

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Dr. Albert Mosley

President-Dean

Gammon Theological Seminary, located in Atlanta, GA, is the United Methodist constituent member of the Interdenominational Theological Center (ITC), a consortium of six historically African American theological schools. Gammon/ITC is a co-educational, professional graduate school of theology. Its faculty personifies vigorous scholarship, rigorous academic discipline, and significant research in the service of the church and other communities in the world. Gammon/ITC is the world's premier resource for black church scholarship and faith-based solutions to the spiritual and socio-economic challenges confronting the African American community and beyond.

Founded in 1883 by the Methodist Episcopal Church and with assistance from the Freedman's Aid Society, today Gammon Theological Seminary is one of the 13 theological schools of the United Methodist Church. The faculty and administration of Gammon/ITC create an environment in which critical thinking, investigative reflection, decision making, and responsible action are fostered. Gammon/ITC is a member of the Atlanta University Center Complex, the world's largest enterprise of African American higher education. It is also a member of The University Center of Georgia and the Atlanta Theological Association. The school is fully accredited by the Association of Theological Schools and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools.

Gammon/ITC offers the following degree programs: the Master of Divinity, the Master of Arts in Religious Education, the Master of Arts in Church Music, the Doctor of Theology (Th.D.) in Pastoral Counseling, and the Doctor of Ministry (D.Min.). There are also a number of dual degree programs offered in cooperation with seminaries and schools in the Atlanta Theological Association. Admission is open to qualified men and women of the United Methodist Church.

Because of the support of this Annual Conference, Gammon/ITC students carry on a proud tradition. They are taught to think independently and communicate effectively. They are also challenged to become involved in finding solutions to problems that affect the human condition, and to become active in the community beyond this campus. Additionally, graduates of this institution are encouraged to maintain a lifelong desire for intellectual growth, spiritual development, and the acquisition of skills for the practice of ministry.

Gammon/ITC has had a very exciting and busy year living out its mission, which is to recruit, support and educate pastors and leaders for the United Methodist Church. There are several significant ways that we have lived out our mission and furthered our vision:

1) Strengthened and Diversified the Board

Added eight new members from various industries and professions, including a former Vice President for the Coca Cola, a former Executive Vice President for United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta, a former Vice President for Grants and Sponsored Research at Grambling State University, et. al. These individuals, along with Gammon's current Board members, bring a wealth of gifts and talents that will enable Gammon to re-position itself to weather the formidable storms occurring in theological education.

2) Strategic Realignment of Resources

After significant negotiation and numerous rounds of discussion, the Gammon Board approved the strategic realignment of the institution's resources by selling a significant piece of property to the Friendship Baptist Church of Atlanta. The proceeds from the transaction, nearing $4.5million, have enabled Gammon to significantly increase its endowment.

3) Reaffirmation by SACSCOC

At the December 2015 annual meeting of the Southern Association of Schools and Colleges Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC), the ITC's reaccreditation was fully reaffirmed without any further recommendations or sanctions. This is joyous news for Gammon and the ITC, and this announcement follows 4 years of warning and probation status for the ITC. ITC's successful reaffirmation by SACS was due in large part to a substantial gift from Gammon in the amount of $500,000 to help shore up the ITC's finances.

4) Implementation of the Pathways Program

Over the course of the summer, Gammon began the implementation phase of the Gammon Pathways Program by welcoming five Pathways Scholars to campus. These scholars included students from Wiley College, Rust College, and Paine College. The students spent 6 weeks of the summer serving in internships in the following churches and agencies in Atlanta: Central UMC, Warren Memorial UMC, Impact UMC, and BMCR.

5) Ebony Exploration

This past October, Gammon welcomed 65 undergraduate seniors and pre-seminary students from Bethune-Cookman University, Claflin University, Paine College, Rust College, Wiley College, Alcorn State University, the North Georgia Black Church Development Office, and the Baltimore-Washington Conference for its first ever Ebony Exploration. This was an innovative event for young African Americans (ages 18-35) to hear, discern, and respond to God's call to ordained ministry and to explore their gifts and graces for service in the United Methodist Church. Gammon, as the epicenter of black leadership for this denomination, is reasserting its historic role in producing principled and called leaders for the church and society.

Gammon Theological Seminary is extremely grateful to this Annual Conference for your support of theological education, and for your commitment to ensuring that God's church will be served by persons who are called and trained to lead us forward.

Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary

The 2015-2016 academic year has been dedicated to these priorities:

Black Sacred Music and Worship

Following careful consultation with national leaders and musicians, we have announced the launch of a program that will not only honor and help to preserve the historical contributions of the black church to sacred music and worship, but that will also train contemporary church musicians to incorporate the gifts of the black church into a variety of liturgical styles. Rev. Dr. Cynthia Wilson is the Director of this new program, and Rev. Dr. Bobby McClean will chair the Board of Advisors.

Strategic Plan

Our 2016-2021 Strategic Plan was approved by the Board of Trustees on October 22, 2015. It is based upon extensive dialogue with students, alumni, faculty, administrators, staff persons, trustees, bishops, pastors, and community leaders. The Plan is sensitive to the changing landscape of theological education and recognizes both the exciting and challenging nature of these days. The times require innovation that is responsive to shifting needs. We believe the plan embodies our call to be a servant seminary for the church, the world, and the academy and to attract students with a relevant and robust 21st century theological education.

Racial Equity and Diversity Inclusion

We have engaged external consultants, working with a representative task force, to do an assessment of the school through interviews, focus group discussions, and surveys. A report of findings will be given in the spring. As a result, training processes that address identified needs for growth and improvement will engage the whole community.

New Patterns of Worship for Chapel

We welcomed a new dean of the chapel this year, Rev. Dr. Tércio Junker. Recognizing the variety of worship dynamics and traditions present at the school, we are establishing new chapel times and experiences that will allow more options for our community. We affirm and welcome expressions of this diversity in our worship life together.

Thank you for your continued interest in our work. We are grateful to serve The United Methodist Church and the church at large. For more information about Garrett-Evangelical, I encourage you to visit our website, www.garrett.edu, and to visit us on campus.

Cordially,
Lallene J. Rector, President

About Us

Garrett-Evangelical is the result of the interweaving of three institutions:

- Garrett Biblical Institute, the first Methodist seminary in the Midwest, was established in 1853 by largely the same church people who founded Northwestern University.
- Chicago Training School, established in 1885, was an important force for women in ministry and for developing service agencies throughout Chicago. Chicago Training School merged with Garrett Biblical Institute in 1934.
- Evangelical Theological Seminary, located in Naperville and founded as a seminary of the Evangelical Church (later the Evangelical United Brethren) in 1873, joined with Garrett Theological Seminary in 1974 to form Garrett-Evangelical Theological Seminary.

Garrett-Evangelical is committed to making seminary education affordable as reflected in the awarding of more than $2.5 million in scholarship aid to students each year. Garrett-Evangelical also leads all United Methodist seminaries in the Dollars for Scholars program with 45 recipients.

Iliff School of Theology

Greetings from the Iliff School of Theology in Denver, Colorado. We wish you blessings as together we continue the work of strengthening the Church and offering a compassionate presence to the World.

The Iliff School of Theology's commitment to the Wesleyan ethos of providing hopeful, intellectually alive, and spiritually grounded theological education for each and every student over the course of their lifetime continues. Iliff's identity is focused on educating leaders for three primary publics: the world, the church, and the academy. At Iliff, we refuse to choose between being a training home only for ministerial candidates, a center only for activists and scholar-activists, or a school only for academics. We believe all three are inseparable and enhance one another as we deliberately situate ourselves in the world and critically operate out of the world's complexities.

As such, we recognize that the world's religious landscape is changing and there is much at stake. Iliff recently completed its strategic plan, revised its curriculum, transformed its library, and initiated new relationships with other institutions. In collaboration with the people of Africa, we've started a discussion with Africa University (AU) to foster an educational alliance that will benefit Iliff and AU students. We've also begun work with Wiley College to strengthen the presence of minority students in seminaries.

Iliff's enrollment continues to be strong with 365 students joining us this academic year, 60% female and 40% male, 35% Methodist – all actively engaged in a host of ministry contexts. Their interest continues to be strong in Iliff's online and hybrid classes. A concerted move by Iliff to reduce student debt and grow the ability of students to lead financially sound, engaged communities continues with many MDIV students participating in the Spiritually-Integrated Financial Resiliency Program, funded by a $250,000 grant from the Lilly Endowment.

Iliff's numerous events for area clergy and supporters remains part of our foundation. Via forums on social justice, food justice, the role of faith in politics, world events, and more, campus speakers included Rev. Gerald Durley, nationally-known civil rights leader and this year's Jameson Jones Preacher, Heather Jarvis, student debt reduction advocate, and more. Our efforts were duly noted by McCormick Theological Seminary's Center for Faith and Service when we were named as one of the nation's "Seminaries That Change the World" and our Master's of Theology Program was ranked seventh in the nation by OnlineColleges.net.

We continue to look forward with a courageous theological imagination. We are sincerely grateful for your support.

United Theological Seminary

United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio continues to educate a significant number of pastors and local church leaders for the West Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church.

United has always focused on developing faithful, fruitful, inspired and inspiring pastors and local church leaders. United is one of the most racially and gender diverse seminaries in the United States and produces a higher percentage of local church pastors than most other seminaries in the United States. There are 83% of the 2015 graduates of United now serving in local congregations. This compares with 53% of the 2015 graduates from all other seminaries affiliated with the Association of Theological Seminaries who are serving in local congregations. Furthermore, 44% of the current 449 students at United are African American which makes United one of the most racially diverse seminaries in the United States. An average of 12% of the student body at most seminaries in the United States are African American. There are 43% of the students at United who are female compared to an average of 33% at other United States seminaries.

United is also in the process of leadership transition. In November, 2015 President Wendy Deichmann resigned as President and, after a well-deserved sabbatical, will return to serving as a Professor of History and Theology. Under President Deichmann, United was listed as one of the 12 fastest growing seminaries in the United States largely because of the growing Doctor of Ministry program and our on-line degree programs. The breakdown of degree programs are: 44% of United's students in the Master of Divinity program; 41% in the Doctor of Ministry program and 15% in other degree or certificate programs.

In January, 2016 the United Board of Trustees selected Dr. Kent Millard, former pastor at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Indianapolis, as Interim President while they search for a new President.

St. Paul wrote to his young friend Timothy these words of advice: "I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands." II Timothy 1:6

United Theological Seminary, along with the other 12 United Methodist Seminaries in the United States, is committed to helping persons "rekindle the gift of God that is within" to provide educated, inspired and inspiring spiritual leaders for The United Methodist Church throughout the world.

Wesley Theological Seminary

Called. Answered. Sent.

Wesley Theological Seminary has been equipping and sending forth prophetic preachers, teachers, and leaders into diverse ministries throughout the church and around the world. Near and far, our alumni point to God's love even as they join the Spirit in making disciples and shaping healthy communities.

- With more than 410 master's-level students preparing for leadership in the church and the world, Wesley remains one of the largest and most diverse theological schools in North America.
- The Lewis Center for Church Leadership informs more than 17,000 pastors and lay leaders on trends and ideas through its e-newsletter. The center has influenced more than 5,600 church leaders through leadership assessments, sexual ethics trainings, and fundraising trainings.
- The new Institute for Community Engagement is forwarding Wesley's mission of raising prophetic leaders in the public square through classes, partnerships, conferences, and resources.

Wesley Students Are Answering God's Call

Wesley provides more than $2 million dollars annually in scholarships to our students thanks to the consistent support of alumni, congregations and friends of the seminary. The Ministerial Education Fund and conference partners help us equip a broad range of students to serve the church as pastors and leaders. These include:

- Two Master of Divinity students who are exploring ordination in the UMC that have created outreach opportunities for people who ordinarily would not consider going into a church. Zach Spoerl and Matt Wilke, working with three United Methodist Churches and Wesley, have started Pub Theology in downtown D.C., drawing spiritual-but-not-religious young adults into Christian community.
- Master of Theological Studies student Jane Adams is working with denominations and congregations on issues of poverty and hunger in the U.S. As an intern at the Center for Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships at the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services, she provides tools for building on charitable activities such as food pantries and backpack ministries. As a member of a local United Methodist congregation, she's putting her knowledge to work in her local church and neighborhood, too.

Christian leadership must innovate for greater faithfulness and be able to engage the full diversity of people within our society even while holding true to the foundations of our faith and tradition. The people named above – as well as so many more of our students – exemplify these aims. Read more about our students at wesleyseminary.edu/stories.

Mourning the Loss of a Christian Leader

The Rev. Clementa Pinckney was a Doctor of Ministry student at Wesley in the Leadership Excellence track. He was working on a research project on the combined role of pastor and statesman, when his life was taken along with eight others at Mother Emanuel AME Church in Charleston, S.C. Rev. Pinckney exemplified the spiritually powerful and prophetic leadership that is at the core of our mission.

To ensure Pinckney's legacy continues, Wesley has established scholarships in his name for Doctor of Ministry candidates seeking to empower their congregations, engage their communities, and influence public discourse. Additionally, Wesley has developed a Doctor of Ministry track exploring the intersection between public life and church leadership. This degree focus amplifies Wesley's mission and location and, we hope, will raise up leaders to continue Pinckney's legacy. <https://www.wesleyseminary.edu/doctorofministry/>

RULES - PROCEDURE - ORGANIZATION
WEST VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE - THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
(All paragraph references are to the 2012 Book of Discipline unless otherwise noted)

PART A: RULES AND PROCEDURES FOR THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE SESSION

I. RULES

1. Adoption of Rules. During the first business session, each Annual Conference shall adopt its rules which will then be in effect for the order and organization of the Annual Conference.

2. Suspending or Amending Rules.

- a. Any person or persons desiring to present an amendment or amendments to the Conference Rules must present the proposed amendment or amendments in writing to the Conference Rules Committee by February 1st of each year.
- b. The Conference Rules Committee shall assemble, edit and reproduce and present such proposed amendments to the Conference, with its recommendation, but they shall not have the power to change the essential meaning of any proposed amendment or amendments. However, where the proposed change is so simple as to be readily understood, the committee shall not be required to reproduce the report. Provided, further, however, that the Committee on Rules shall have the right to propose any alternative change or new rule or rules that the committee deems advisable and which may be given as a part of the committee's report to the Annual Conference. Any agency proposing a substantive revision or amendment to one of the present Conference Rules, shall send a representative to appear before the Committee on Rules for the purpose of clarification and interpretation.
- c. If in the course of Annual Conference session, a motion is made from the floor that would amend the rules of the Annual Conference, a motion to suspend Rule I.2.A. and any other rule interfering with said proposed action must first prevail, and then said amendment shall be referred to the Rules Committee prior to vote by the Annual Conference session. Proposed rule will be brought back before the Annual Conference Session within 24 hours.
- d. All amendments must be adopted by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.
- e. All amendments shall become effective immediately upon their adoption unless otherwise indicated.
- f. These rules may be suspended by a two-thirds vote of those present and voting.

3. Supplemental Authority. The latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order shall govern all questions of Parliamentary Procedure where such questions are not otherwise provided for by these standing rules.

4. Printing of Rules. These rules, with any modification as adopted, shall be published in the Pre-Conference Workbook and in all Conference publications of minutes and Journals so as to enable Conference members to refer readily to them.

II. RULES OF ORDER AND BUSINESS PROCEDURE

1. Sessions. The Annual Conference sessions and such special or adjourned sessions as may be required shall be held with the resident bishop presiding as provided in ¶¶603.2,4,5,6 of the Book of Discipline.

2. Roll Call. The roll call shall be taken, as the conference may direct, upon recommendation by the Secretary of the Annual Conference.

3. Bar of the Conference. An area of the assembly room sufficient in size to seat all clergy and lay members shall be designated as the bar of the Conference. Except by special invitation and where accessibility issues exist, visitors to the Conference shall not sit within the bar of the Conference, but shall occupy an area designated for their use. When the bar of the Conference shall have been established, only members within that area shall be entitled to vote when the vote is taken.

4. Order of Business. After devotional service the daily business session of the Conference shall be conducted as follows:

- a. Report of Program Committee on daily proceedings, courtesies, and other responsibilities.
- b. Report of other standing administrative and special agencies.
- c. Calendar and agenda.
- d. Miscellaneous business.

5. Adoption of Conference Session Agenda ¶) 605 Upon recommendation of the Committee on Annual Conference Program, the Annual Conference shall adopt an agenda and calendar for Conference Sessions.

6. Expediting Conference Business. The Committee on Annual Conference Program shall be responsible for interpretation and promotion of the missional and program ministries of the Annual Conference at conference sessions.

The Conference Secretary shall present, at the opening session, a consent calendar consisting of printed reports not requiring discussion. Twenty-four hours later, items may be removed from the consent calendar upon motion with an affirmative vote of 50 persons. The items remaining on the consent calendar shall then be voted upon in an omnibus motion.

Individuals, local churches, parishes and districts may submit resolutions to be printed in the Conference Workbook, or may submit them later under Rule 15 of Section III (Business Procedure).

Resolutions that deal with structure or administration and are proposed by an Annual Conference agency shall be included in that agency's report. Agency resolutions dealing with all other matters and resolutions from all other sources shall be grouped in a section of the Workbook headed Resolutions with the submitting group clearly defined, and presented by the Committee on Annual Conference Program.

Proposed agenda, submitted by the Committee on Annual Conference Program, shall include time each full day of the Annual Conference Session for presenting resolutions.

7. Securing the Floor. Members desiring to speak to the Conference shall arise at their seat within the bar of the Conference, respectfully address the presiding officer, using the term, Bishop "(last name)", or "Mr./Ms. Chairperson," and, after recognition, proceed to the nearest microphone, where, before speaking, the member shall be identified by name and local church.

8. Interrupting the Speaker. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, or a misrepresentation, or to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that the time has arrived for an order of the day, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.

9. Debate. After a question has been stated by the chair, it is before the Conference for consideration and action. All resolutions, reports from agencies, communications to the Conference, all amendments proposed to the Conference, and all other motions, except undebatable motions, may be debated before final action is taken on them, unless by a two-thirds vote the Conference decides to dispose of them.

10. Length of Speech. Each speech from the floor must be limited to three minutes unless the speaker's time is extended by the Conference by a majority vote. This three-minute limit may be reduced by a majority vote of the Conference at any time, and for any period of duration.

11. Speaking More Than Once. No member of the Conference shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not spoken desires the floor, and no more than twice on the same subject under the same motion.

12. Question of High Privilege. A member of the Conference claiming the floor at any time for what the member believes to be a very urgent question of high privilege shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it is adjudged by the chair to be such, the member may proceed until the chair judges that such privilege has been exhausted.

13. Voting Procedure. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Presiding Bishop or Presiding Officer. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-third of the members present and voting, in which case, the members shall rise from their seats and stand until counted. An “aye” or “nay” vote by secret ballot may be ordered on call of any member, supported by one-third of the members present and voting.

14. Division of Question. Before a vote is taken, any member shall have the right to call for a division of any question, if it is subject to such division as the members indicate. If no member objects, the division shall be made; but, if there is objection, the chair shall put the question of division to vote, not waiting for a second.

15. Precedence of Secondary Motions. If any one or more of the following motions shall be made when one or more other motions are pending, the order of their procedure in relation to another shall be the same as the order on their listing below:

- a. To fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn. (This motion is subject to amendments, or it may be laid on the table.)
- b. To adjourn.
- c. To take recess.
- d. To order the previous question.
- e. To lay on the table.
- f. To limit or extend the limits of debate.
- g. To postpone to a given time.
- h. To commit or refer.
- i. To amend or substitute (one amendment being allowed to an amendment).
- j. To postpone indefinitely.

16. Tabling Related Motions. No motion that adheres to another motion, or has another motion adhering to it, can be laid on the table by itself. Such motions, if laid on the table, carry with them the motions to which they respectively adhere, or which adhere to them.

17. Motion to Adopt. A motion is a proposal that the assembly take certain action or that it express itself as holding certain views. Any member of the Conference may make such a proposal. When the motion is seconded by a member saying, “I second the motion,” which may be done without obtaining the floor and generally without rising, it shall be before the body.

18. Undebatable Motions. The following motions shall be acted upon without debate:

- a. To adjourn, when unqualified, except to adjourn the Conference finally.
- b. To suspend the rules.
- c. To lay on the table.
- d. To take from the table.
- e. To call for the previous question, and motions to close, limit, or extend the limits of debate.
- f. To amend an undebatable motion.
- g. To consider an undebatable motion.
- h. To dispense with the reading of the minutes.
- i. To call for the order of the day.

19. Right of the Main Question. The main question may be opened to debate under the following motions: to adopt, to commit or refer, to substitute, to postpone, and to reconsider. No new motion, resolution or subject shall be entertained until the one under consideration shall have been disposed of except as provided for under “voting procedure.” This does not apply to undebatable questions.

20. Reference of a Report. It shall be in order for the Conference to refer to an agency committee a section or a part of a report or resolution that is before the Conference for consideration, or any amendment offered thereto.

21. Procedure for Consideration of Substitute Motions. When a resolution or committee report is properly before the Conference for consideration and action, even if amendments are pending, a substitute may be offered by any member moving that the same be substituted for the report, resolution, or amendment under consideration.

The substitute shall be an alternative to what is before the body and not simply a negation of the main motion as determined by the presiding officer. Debate on the motion to substitute will be limited to the question of substitution only. No amendments to the main motion or the substitute will be considered during this period of initial consideration.

Following the debate on the motion to substitute, a vote on substitution will occur. If the motion to substitute prevails by majority vote, the substitute motion becomes the main motion. If the motion to substitute fails to receive a majority vote, the original main motion remains on the floor for consideration. Debate, including the offering of amendments, moves forward on the main motion as per the rules of procedure.

22. The Previous Question. When any member moves the previous question (that is, that the vote be now taken on the motion or motions pending), they shall indicate to what they intend it to apply, if any secondary motion or motions are also pending. If they do not so indicate, it shall be regarded as applying only to the immediately pending question. This motion shall be taken without debate, and shall require two-thirds vote of those present and voting for its adoption; and if it is adopted, the vote shall be taken on the motion or motions to which it applies without further debate.

23. Unlawful Motion After Speech. It shall not be in order for a member immediately after discussing a pending question, and before relinquishing the floor, to make a motion whose adoption would limit or stop debate.

24. Exceptions to Majority Vote. A majority of those voting shall decide all questions with the following exceptions:

- a. One-third of those present and voting shall suffice to sustain a call for a count vote in case the decision of the chair is doubted. A tie vote sustains the chair.
- b. A two-thirds vote shall be required;
 1. to sustain a motion to suspend or amend the rules;
 2. to sustain a motion for the previous question (see, "Previous Question" above), or any motion whose adoption would limit debate;
 3. to set aside a special order;
 4. to consider a special order before the time set therefore;
 5. to sustain a request of the Committee on Annual Conference Sessions Program Committee for the presentation of any person after the second day of the Conference Session.

25. Reconsideration. A motion to reconsider an action of the Conference shall be in order at any time if requested by a member who voted with the prevailing side. The motion to reconsider may not be debated, if the original motion was non debatable.

26. Questions of Order. It is the duty of the presiding officer to enforce the rules and orders of the Conference, without debate or delay. It is also the right of every member who notices the breach of a rule, to insist upon its enforcement. In such a case the member rises from his/her seat and says, Bishop (last name), or Mr./Ms. Chairperson, "I rise to a point of order". The speaker immediately takes his/her seat. The chair requests the member to state the point of order, which he/she does and resumes his/her seat. The chair decides the point and, if no appeal is made and the member has not been guilty of any serious breach of decorum, the chair will permit him/her to resume his/her speech. But, if the member's remarks are decided to be improper and any one objects, he/she cannot continue without a vote of the Conference to that effect.

27. Motion to Adjourn. The motion to adjourn, when unqualified, shall be taken without debate, and shall always be in order, except:

- a. When a member has the floor.
- b. When a question is actually put, or a vote is being taken, and before it is finally decided.
- c. When the previous question has been ordered and action is pending.
- d. When a motion to adjourn has been lost, and no business or debate has intervened.
- e. When the motion to fix the time to which the Conference shall adjourn is pending. The foregoing does not apply to a motion for final adjournment of the Conference.

- (3) Personal data information shall be assembled by the Data Collection Committee with the nominees listed in alphabetical order. The information collected shall be available through the Annual Conference web-site to all clergy members prior to Annual Conference.

c. Voting Procedure

- (1) Tellers shall be elected by the Annual Conference, on nomination by the District Superintendents and presentation by the Secretary of the Annual Conference.
- (2) All ballots shall contain the exact number called for on that specific ballot. A ballot will be considered invalid if it:
 - (a) Contains more or fewer names than persons to be elected.
 - (b) Contains name(s) of persons already elected.
 - (c) Contains name(s) of persons ineligible to be elected.
- (3) When reporting the results of each ballot to the session of the Annual Conference, the head teller and/or Conference Secretary shall read the names of all persons receiving ten or more votes on the first ballot; fifteen or more votes on the second ballot; twenty or more on the third and all succeeding ballots. The names shall be read in descending numerical order indicating the number of votes received.

- (4) The results of each preceding ballot, and any qualifying factors related to the preparation of the next ballot, shall be announced by the presiding officer, or person designated by him/her, before voting continues.
- (5) Delegates will be elected by the majority of valid votes cast.

11. Procedure For Episcopal Endorsement and Nomination. In order that an Episcopal candidate might be endorsed by the West Virginia Annual Conference, the delegation to the Jurisdictional Conference shall meet together at their mutual convenience prior to the Annual Conference immediately preceding the Jurisdictional Conference. At that time, the delegates may in private session, and after prayerful consideration, select a candidate for endorsement.

Viable candidates shall be identified by written ballot, with no speeches being given by or on behalf of any prospective candidate. There shall be one vote per delegate. Balloting shall continue until one or more persons receive 25% of the votes of those present and voting.

Those persons receiving 25% or more of the votes shall be interviewed by the delegation with a layperson, selected by the delegation, presiding. Care shall be given to the development of key issues to be addressed by each person interviewed. Decision concerning length or time for interviews shall be determined by the delegation.

At the close of the interviewing process, written ballots shall be taken until one Episcopal candidate receives at least 60% of the votes cast or the delegation decides to end the process.

The delegation shall place the name of the endorsed person before the Annual Conference at the session immediately prior to the session of the Jurisdictional Conference, for formal nomination as the Episcopal candidate with the disciplinary privilege of nomination from the floor.

Only one Episcopal nominee shall be chosen. The Conference shall elect by written ballot. A majority of ballots cast shall be needed to elect. Balloting shall continue for no more than three (3) ballots. If no person has received a majority after the third ballot, the process shall cease.

12. Election of Conference Secretary of Global Ministries. The Annual Conference, on nomination by the conference global ministries agency, shall elect annually a Conference Secretary of Global Ministries, to be publicly assigned by the Bishop. This Secretary shall promote the policies and plans of the Board of Global Ministries, and shall be its representative in the Conference. The Conference Secretary of Global Ministries shall work in full cooperation with the Director of the Annual Conference Connectional Ministries.

13. Annual Conference Budget Process. The Council on Finance and Administration sets the overall budget parameter for the calendar year budget and will inform the agencies, boards and teams of the Annual Conference. The Treasurer's office will provide historical year information for teams and boards. The Director of Administrative Services sends all information and budget materials to agencies in Category I & III. The Director of Connectional Ministries sends all information and budget materials to Category II boards and teams. Category II budget is proposed by the Covenant Council to CF&A after a budget review is done and the proposed budget is adopted by the Covenant Council in its Spring meeting. All proposed budgets for the new calendar year are due to the Treasurer's office by March 1. The CF&A adopts the proposed budget for recommendation to the Annual Conference and includes the proposed budget in the Conference Workbook published for Annual Conference.

14. Printed Materials. Lay and clergy members of the Annual Conference shall be given an opportunity to read all reports, recommendations, resolutions, and other supporting material for agenda items prior to their presentation at the Session. All such materials shall be submitted to the Annual Conference Secretary by April 1st each year and a Workbook mailed by May 1st. Each item submitted for the Workbook shall be clearly identified as to authorship. Items requiring Conference Action not printed in the Workbook shall be assigned a document number by the Annual Conference Secretary, printed at the expense of the presenter, and distributed at the time of registration or 12 hours prior to presentation. The standard format for documents shall be 8 ½" x 11" paper, punched for three ring binder. Items not requiring Conference Action are to be received by the Annual Conference Secretary by June 1. These items will be placed in a Conference publicity packet that will be distributed at registration. These items will be printed at the expense of the presenter. Motions from the floor, including amendments, shall be presented to the Annual Conference Secretary in writing. Only those reports, resolutions and recommendations requiring Annual Conference action may be distributed within the bar of the Conference. All other material shall be distributed at the place of registration.

15. Displays. Display space is available at the place of registration. The assignment of space will be on a priority basis by the Annual Conference Program chairperson. Requests are due by May 15th. Because space may be limited, assignments will be made in the following priority:

- a. Official General and Annual Conference Boards and Agencies, approved Conference Advance Specials, and approved ministries and foundations of the Annual Conference.
- b. Seminaries.
- c. Official affiliated ministries.
- d. Caucus Groups.

Non-United Methodist entities must apply for approval of the Chairperson of the Annual Conference Program Committee.

ORDINATION SERMON - Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball

The following sermon was delivered on June 12, 2016, at the Sunday Morning Ordination Service by Bishop Sandra Steiner Ball. The text which is presented here was prepared to be delivered orally and may contain stylistic features that would not normally appear in a printed version.

“Turning Aside”

Scriptures: Isaiah 55: 12 - 13; Exodus 3:1 - 12

In the Old Testament lesson this morning we encounter Moses, the Shepherd. And we know that Moses is a good shepherd because the scripture clearly states that he had led his flock beyond the wilderness and brought them to God, or at least to the mountain of God.

Now that speaks to us as leaders of the church. We know something about that journey and process. We know about the call to Deploy. The call to organize and go forth, to lead, and to bring hope and life. Moses’ call to deploy, his charge, his responsibility, his duty was the same as ours: keeping the flock, leading the flock beyond the wilderness to a place of celebration and peace, to a place of food, to a place of safe sanctuary or pasture, and to a place of nurture and growth. We are leading the flock to the place of God. Our call is to fulfill this mission and vision. It is similar to that of Moses. He was no doubt a good shepherd. He knew the flock. They followed him and knew his voice. He cared for them, kept them happy, and anticipated their every want and desire. As a matter of fact, Moses was so in tune, so busy with his flock, that he almost missed the fact that God was trying to get his attention.

Now, we don’t know how many times God had tried to capture Moses’ attention as he religiously tended to his flock, for the scripture tends to record the “Aha!” moments; when the person involved finally “gets it.” But, I can just imagine that God had tried many times to get Moses’ attention. Finally, God had to resort to this strange, miraculous burning bush. Hoping that this time Moses might be able to hear God’s voice and recognize God’s presence. Even on this day, as the scripture records it, Moses seemed torn at first. He saw it - the bush - and then it seems he still had to wrestle in his mind with whether or not he was going to risk checking it out. Finally, he says, “I must turn aside; I must see this.” When God saw that Moses had finally turned aside and God had Moses’ attention, that was when both God spoke and Moses was able to hear.

How many times had Moses walked on that ground, while religiously tending to the flock, failing to recognize that that ground was sacred? How many times had God cried out for Moses’ attention, but Moses had been too busy fulfilling his “shepherdly” responsibilities and duties to the flock, to take notice of or hear God’s voice?

Oh, Shepherds of today’s flocks, how many times have we failed to recognize the ground upon which we walk is sacred? How many times has God cried out for our attention? How many times have the mountains and hills around us burst into song? How many times have the trees of the field stood and clapped their hands, but we’ve been too busy tending to the wants, desires, and agendas of the flock to hear God’s voice?

Now, it’s not easy to turn aside. Turning aside is risky. For you know, the moment you even begin to contemplate an invitation to turn aside, to check out God’s movement over there, there's at least one sheep already on the cell phone or at the keyboard zapping off an e-mail to Jethro the priest, the D.S., the General Secretary, or the Bishop. The sheep is complaining to someone, anyone who's supposed to keep these shepherds in line. They're calling the ones you want to impress, the persons that have the power to create movement or relocation in your life. And you know what the communication is, don't you? "Hey, I'm calling about your guy, Moses. Yes, yes. Well, things were going just fine. He was helping us through the wilderness. Things were going great. There was nothing we wanted that he didn't try to do for us, but well, now we do have a problem. You see Moses has now changed direction and instead of tending to us, he wants to help these other people. You know, those that don't belong to our flock. He wants to bring them through the wilderness, too. Who does he think he is? What's he doing? You know he was appointed, assigned, nominated, hired, or elected to care for us!" Oh, turning aside is risky. Those sheep, they can get pretty feisty, and our comfortable lives can be turned upside-down.

Turning aside is not just risky for what we might encounter from our flock, but it is also personally risky. "God, if I make the decision to turn aside, to allow You to fully capture my attention, not knowing what I am going to encounter, not knowing where that might lead me, and then You are saying. Can I back out?" From the scripture, it seems to me that when you make the decision to turn aside you are already committed. Committed before you actually know exactly what you are committing to. Scary! But, I guess that's called faith, isn't it?

So, what does God say to the shepherds who allow God to capture their attention and risk turning aside? Does God say I will continually add to your flock, bring you more dedicated members of the congregation, provide an easier pathway for accomplishing ministry, bring a financial blessing? No, God says "you've brought this flock into my holy presence and they will continue to be nurtured and to grow. They will be disciplined, and Christ and the Holy Spirit will work in their lives as ministry continues." God continues to speak by saying, "there are other children of mine who are hopeless, suffering, and oppressed. I hear their cries. They are still deep in midst of the wilderness. Come, Come and I will send you to go get them and deliver them up out of the wilderness." They, too, can know and experience the Promised Land, the place of God, where instead of the thorn, the cypress will grow; and in place of the nettle, the myrtle will grow. A place where people will attest to the Lord's enduring presence and love.

Shepherds of Today: our world, our God needs passionate spiritual leaders who will risk turning aside again and again. Leaders who will risk allowing God, not the flock or individuals within the flock, to capture their attention. Leaders who will risk hearing and responding to God's presence and direction in the presence. The Holy Spirit comes to us, not so we can feel good, but rather "do good."

As Spiritual leaders, as today's Shepherds of God's people, we are called to live and to lead in a more excellent way. God gave us the model for excellence in Jesus Christ. So often we settle for less than excellence. We settle and become comfortable in doing a part of ministry, but not all that we can do. We become self-satisfied, not expecting God to do more than what God has already done.

We settle for satisfying the desires of the Flock with whom we have been directed to serve, instead of reaching for the more excellent path of satisfying the Will and Word of God. Shepherds of today, God is calling, crying out, wanting to capture our attention. For God knows, even if we don't, that we surely cannot do God's work without God's power.

Now you gathered here who have been ordained or commissioned, and you who have said "yes" to the ministry of the laity, may think that in your justice work, ministry, and advocacy you have already turned aside. You may believe that you have seen the presence of God, heard God's voice, and are religiously attending to what you have heard and experienced. But clergy and laity, Shepherds and Leaders of our Church, I maintain that God's still speaks! And in an ever-changing world with a God who makes all things new, do we allow what we have heard and experienced in the past to keep us from allowing God to recapture our attention and hear God's voice today? Will you again risk turning aside? Yes, it can be scary. Yes, doing so may change the way we go at ministry and mission. Yes, it may cause people to lodge their anger and frustration because you end up doing something new, or different, or in a novel way. But in this world torn apart by terrorism and war; in this world which grieves the death of thousands of children by natural disaster, by starvation, and by disease; in this world of addictions; in this world struggling with countless phobias, "isms" of every kind, and social injustices; in this world, God and God's people need us, the shepherds, to be willing to turn aside. God is calling us to leave the comfort of religious busyness and to connect with God's power and the excellence of ministry and mission modeled by Christ in order to bring this world and God's children out of misery, bondage, suffering, and pain. God is sending us to liberate people from situations where they are treated as "nobodies" and begin to recognize them as "somebodies."

Shepherds of today, clergy and laity, a burning bush stands here before us in this table set by Christ. This table burns with Christ's presence. From and through this table God's voice can be heard anew. This table reminds us of who and whose we are. God, through Christ, has placed within our presence this burning bush, seeking to capture our full attention! Come, turn aside, and check it out! For God is calling your name. God is speaking to us today just as God has called your name in the past.

God, through Christ, cries out from this burning bush! There is something more, something new, we need to hear from God today! Will you risk turning aside? Will you risk being the agents, the shepherds of God's deliverance? Going out with joy? Will you be the relevant reflections of Christ for this time to the needy and messy world? Will you lead people into God's peace, nurturing the growth like the cypress and myrtle instead of allowing the thorns and brier to choke out light and life? Will you? If you will, if you will deploy to do this, then there is no doubt that the mountains and the hills before you shall burst into song, and all of the trees of the field will clap their hands. Your witness and ministry will stand as an everlasting sign that the love and grace of God will not be cut off, but will endure for all people now and forever.

May it be so! Amen!

No board of trustees, officer or official of any agency or institution of the Annual Conference shall encumber the real or personal property which it owns or holds in trust or in any manner involve the Annual Conference in any obligation or indebtedness without the prior approval of the Annual Conference or between sessions of the Annual Conference with the prior approval of the Council on Finance and Administration of the Annual Conference and the presiding bishop and a majority of the District Superintendents of the Annual Conference and compliance with the provision of Paragraph 2517 of the Discipline. [The provisions of this paragraph are not applicable to West Virginia Wesleyan College, as the Conference is not responsible for the College's obligations or indebtedness].

21. Except as otherwise provided by the Discipline, any agency presenting a report to the Annual Conference requiring financial asking shall have the financial asking referred to the Council for their recommendation, before final consideration of the report by the Annual Conference.

22. Any agency presenting a budget that differs from that printed in the Conference Workbook shall place an amended budget in the hands of the president, treasurer, and secretary of the Council at the time the report is considered by the Annual Conference.

23. Operating budgets under Conference benevolences are set each year; therefore, any unspent balance remaining at the close of the Conference year will be applied as follows: First, to deficits incurred in the Covenant Council's budget; second, the Covenant Council and Council on Finance and Administration will negotiate a fair share of any deficit in the Conference Operating Fund with the remaining monies to be expended for the World Service apportionment.

24. The Fair Share portion of the total missional budget approved by the Annual Conference shall be calculated by the Conference Treasurer and sent to the District Superintendents within sixty (60) days following adjournment. The Annual Conference on recommendation of the Council shall determine the basis of the calculation.

25. The District Superintendent shall present the amounts apportioned to the local churches within ninety (90) days following adjournment of the Annual Conference. After consultation with the pastors of charges involved, adjustments shall be reported to the Conference Treasurer by December 15 of each year. Items apportioned to the churches and charges are not subject to acceptance of a lesser amount by the Charge Conference.

26. To maintain a sound financial policy, the Council may set an expenditure limitation on items other than compensation – if, in its judgment, the anticipated rate of receiving income warrants such action.

27. The Council shall have the books of the Treasurer audited by a Certified Public Accountant. Any member of the Annual Conference may inspect copies of the annual audit, kept in the Treasurer's office. As part of the audit, the accountant shall confer with the presiding bishop of the Annual Conference and the president of the Council (Par. 617.1).

28. Any agency receiving funds from the Conference which has a treasurer other than the Conference Treasurer, shall file with the Conference Treasurer within 180 days after the close of the Conference Fiscal Year an external audit by a Certified Public Accountant with standards set by the General Council on Finance and Administration (GCFA). The cost of the audit or report shall be paid by the agency for which it is made. (Par. 617.2) The Conference Treasurer shall not distribute funds to agencies failing to comply.

29. The Treasurer of the Conference may invest, in accordance with the Council's Investment Policy, and under the direction of the Council, any available balances, the income to accrue to the Conference Operating Funds, unless otherwise designated by the Council (Par. 613.5 and 619.2d).

30. The Council shall designate a depository or depositories for all Conference funds (Par. 616).

31. The Conference Treasurer shall make a full report each month to the president and members of the Council, the Bishop and the members of the Cabinet, of all funds received, disbursed, and balances under the Treasurer's direction. An annual report shall be printed in the Conference Journal (Par. 619.c1).

32. Every clergy member of an annual conference appointed to extension ministry shall furnish annually to the conference secretary at such time as the secretary shall direct a statement of his or her total compensation (including base compensation, travel, automobile, housing, and other expenses allowed and paid) for the year then ending, and said compensation of all appointed to extension ministry shall be published in the journal of the annual conference. When this information is not furnished, the appointment of the clergyperson shall be subject to review by resident bishop and the cabinet. (Paragraph 628)

33. The Annual Conference shall maintain a Conference Operating Fund of 5% of the Annual Conference budget.

34. The Annual Conference shall maintain a Conference Property Maintenance and Improvement Fund with the goal being to achieve a balance of 5% of the Annual Conference Budget. Seventy five percent of the interest income from this account shall be divided equally among the districts for use by the District Trustees for the maintenance and improvements of the parsonage located there. This amount which shall be allowed to accumulate from year to year will be placed in a holding account for each district and will be available upon application by District Trustees. The remaining interest income only shall become available for use in Conference owned properties, primarily District Parsonage emergencies. An emergency is an unanticipated expense that would cause the occupant difficulty in inhabiting that house.

35. The Annual Conference shall maintain a Conference Reserve Fund with the goal being to achieve a balance of 5% of the Annual Conference budget.

36. Once approved by the Annual Conference, all agency budgets, including the line items within them, are fixed for the ensuing year. Each agency is expected to administer its budget according to the income that becomes available. Any deficits at the end of the fiscal year shall be charged against the next budget for that agency. Exceptions to this policy may be granted by the Council, after consultation with the Covenant Council.

37. Each line item within a budget is to be executed and reported accurately as to its actual cost. When income for an agency is less than needed, the agency is responsible for identifying the priorities among the line items that are to receive support. Divisions or sections of an agency must adhere to decisions of the total agency of which it is a unit.

38. No agency or unit thereof is entitled to authorize expenditures of funds for purposes not previously approved by the Annual Conference unless expressly approved by the Council between sessions of the Annual Conference. Any funds so spent will be recovered from the next year's budget of that agency.

39. All agencies shall reimburse their members for expenses incurred in attending meetings when they submit itemized vouchers. This is interpreted to include only travel at the Conference rate (or if commercial transportation, the actual cost at coach rate), highway tolls, parking, meals and lodging. Receipts are required for all expenses. There shall be no exception unless prior approval of the expenditure is given through proper channels by the Council. Members of agencies traveling from outside the Conference boundaries to a meeting site within the Annual Conference shall be reimbursed only for that portion of vouchered expenses occurring within the boundaries of the Annual Conference to and from the site of the meeting. If this vouchered expense is for air transportation, the expense will be pro-rated by actual air mileage from the Conference boundaries to and from the site of the meeting.

40. Providing quality on-site care shall be a priority for all Conference agencies. When on-site care is not feasible and spouse care is not available, financial remuneration shall be made by the Conference agencies to its members for dependent care (child, person with disabilities, or elder care) as legitimate meeting expense so long as the total for all conference boards and agencies does not exceed $1,000. The amount to be reimbursed shall be the actual cost to provide specialized care not to the point of medical care and not to exceed $50 per dependent per day. .

41. Loans made by this Annual Conference to its agencies shall be repaid in a reasonable and businesslike manner, with interest.

42. Expenses of the Annual Conference Session shall be a line item of the Conference budget and offerings received during each Annual Conference session shall be designated for Annual Conference and General Church causes to be determined annually by the Annual Conference on recommendation of the Covenant Council.

43. The Council on Finance and Administration will not consider program related financial requests without the prior consideration of the Conference Covenant Council.

44. A bond of at least $25,000 shall be provided by the local church/charge for Treasurers and other persons who handle funds within the local church. This bond shall be forfeited if a clear separation of duties is not followed by people responsible for receipts and expenses (Paragraph 2511).

45. The term "AGENCY," as used in recommendations and fiscal policies, shall be interpreted in its broadest sense to include all line items in the conference budget.

46. When two churches are merged with an effective date immediately following Annual Conference, the current Fair Share for the new charge shall be determined by adding 50% of the Fair Share of the smaller fair share church to the larger fair share church. The merged congregation will use the church number of the larger fair share church. All current year remittances received before the merger from the smaller fair share church will be transferred in the remittance system to the larger fair share church. For future fair share calculations, the financial statistical data for the smaller fair share church will not be added to the statistics of the larger fair share church. Only the membership figure will be transferred (smaller fair share church membership to be added to the larger membership). The percentage of payout on Line 73 for the merged church will be the higher percentage figure of either church.

47. Ten percent of the net proceeds from the sale of abandoned church property shall be allocated for the purpose of creating an endowment fund for capital improvements, repair and restoration of ethnic minority local churches. These funds shall be invested through United Methodist Foundation of WV, Inc., and that the income shall be administered by the Ministry Team on Religion and Race.

48. Failure to submit Statistical Reports in accordance with the Book of Discipline requirements will result in ten percent (10%) being added to the previous years adjusted expenses to determine the current year expenses for Fair Share calculation purposes.

INVESTMENT POLICY:

I. INTRODUCTION

The Investment Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration has approved this policy in accordance with paragraph 612.5 of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church. This policy is for guidance and use of the Investment Committee, the Council on Finance and Administration, depositories of funds of the Annual Conference and others in the execution of their duties related to the management of the investment portfolio of the Annual Conference.

II. OBJECTIVES

The Conference has four objectives for its investment portfolio which shall be considered when determining the appropriateness of investments for the portfolio. They are:

- A. Preserve the capital assets of the Conference;
- B. Maintain an appropriate level of liquidity within the portfolio;
- C. Maximize the return on the invested funds of the Conference, and
- D. Be consistent with the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church.

III. INVESTMENT CRITERIA

A. Permissible Investments - The Conference will limit its investments to the classes of securities listed in this paragraph. Other types of securities may be purchased when it is in the best interest of the Conference to do so, if approved as outlined in the exceptions of his policy. Permissible investments are as follows:

- 1. Direct obligations of the U.S. Treasury;
- 2. Federal Agency securities;
- 3. Certificates of deposit, deposit notes, and time deposits, to the extent they are fully insured by the FDIC;
- 4. Commercial Paper;
- 5. Corporate Bonds;
- 6. Constant Dollar Money Market Funds;
- 7. Mutual funds and common trust funds which are principally composed of any assets in this section.

B. Credit Criteria and Quality Ratings - Credit criteria for U.S. Treasury, Federal agency securities and insured deposits are not needed because credit quality is inherent in the instruments. All other investments should meet the following credit criteria:

- 1. Corporate bonds must be rated and maintain any "A" rating by either Moody's or Standard and Poors';
- 2. Commercial paper must be rated "A-2" or "P-2" or better;
- 3. Money Market Funds used must be principally composed of assets meeting the credit criteria of this section.

C. Maturity - After all other criteria contained in this statement have been met, U.S. Treasury obligations, those of federal agencies, and those of corporations should have a maturity of three years or less when purchased directly by the Conference Treasurer or a maturity of twenty years or less when purchased as part of mutual funds and common trust funds. All other investments should be money market instruments with maturities of one year or less. At least one third of the total investment shall have maturities of 91 days or less. Exceptions to this policy can be granted when warranted in accordance with section V of this policy.

D. Diversification

1. At least one third of the total funds invested must be in money market funds or bank accounts available within 24 hours;
2. Obligations of the U.S. Treasury and agencies of the U.S. Government may be purchased without limitation as to size, as long as the limitation in III, D 1, above, is met;
3. Deposits in banks shall be limited to the amount the institutions depositors are insured by the FDIC;
4. No single investment in commercial paper or corporate bonds shall exceed 10% of the total funds invested at the time of purchase.

E. Trading and Speculation - It is the policy of the Conference that the investments of the Conference will not be involved in trading. Trading is characterized by a high volume of purchase and sale activity, when considered in light of a short holding period for securities, clearly demonstrates an intention to profit from short-term price movements. Those involved with investments are prohibited from using the account to speculate in securities. This includes prohibitions on settlement of purchases other than regular way and zero - coupon or stripped products.

F. Social Responsibility - It shall be policy of the Conference that a conscious effort shall be made to invest in institutions, companies, corporations or funds which make a positive contribution toward the realization of goals outlined in the Social Principles; and to endeavor to avoid investments that appear likely, directly or indirectly, to support racial discrimination or the production of nuclear armaments, alcoholic beverages or tobacco, or companies dealing in pornography. Any depository considered for selection by the Conference shall affirm that it is an Equal Opportunity Employer and an Equal Housing Lender, and shall make available to the Investment Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration a copy of its Affirmative Action Policy. Any minority-owned or controlled financial institution in West Virginia which meets the requirements of the Fiscal Policies and Investment Policy shall be given special consideration as a minority vendor under the Conference Affirmative Action Policy.

G. Authorities and Limitations - The Depository and/or investment Manager shall report investment activities to the Conference Treasurer monthly, including a report on all securities bought and sold during the month. The Treasurer shall inform the Investment Manager of any unusual cash flows anticipated. The Treasurer shall review the investment account with the Investment Committee not less than quarterly. The Investment Committee shall report to the Council on Finance and Administration at each of its meetings.

IV. POLICY REVIEW

This policy statement has been approved by the Council on Finance and Administration through its Investment Committee. The Council shall approve significant changes to the policy before said changes are implemented. This policy shall be printed in the Conference Journal at least once in each quadrennium.

V. EXCEPTIONS TO POLICY

Any statement of investment policy restrictive enough to be meaningful will also suffer from a lack of flexibility. At times, this lack of flexibility could cause the Conference to miss an excellent investment opportunity. Therefore, the following procedure is established for approving exceptions to the investment policy:

A. Exceptions will be made on the recommendation of the Investment Manager and with the approval of the Conference Treasurer. Verbal approval of the Treasurer is all that is required. The Investment Manager must then write a memorandum for the record documenting why he recommended the exception and documenting the approval received. This memo will be submitted to each member of the Investment Committee by mail as soon as possible, and shall be entered into the minutes of the next Investment Committee meeting;

B. If the Treasurer is not available, the approval will be delegated to the Chairperson of the Investment Committee, the Comptroller of the Conference, or to any member of the Investment Committee, in that order.

2015 Apportionment Review

As of 12/31/2015, the conference had 1,089 apportioned churches.

We received $10,373,119.06; up $105,102.69 from 2014. The percentage of apportionment payout was 86.66%; up 1.32% from 2014. The dollar amount of shortfall was $1,596,360.94, down $167,431.60 from 2014.

Four districts out of the nine achieved a percentage payout greater than 90%. They were: Wesleyan 92.88%. Mon Valley 92.87%, Northern 92.02%, and Midland South 91.37%.

Eight of the nine districts achieved a percentage increase over 2014. Little Kanawha 6.09%, Greenbrier 3.38%, Southern 2.54%, Northern 1.58%, Midland South .93%, Potomac Highlands .66%, Wesleyan .55%, and Mon Valley .37%.

Ten of our churches paid in excess of $100,000 in apportionments in 2015: Suncrest $184,478.00, Christ Charleston $160,075.00, Bridgeport $154,000.00, Forrest Burdette $133,737.00, Lewisburg $128,162.00, St. Marks Charleston $120,244.00, First Clarksburg $108,909.00, First Elkins $102,253.00, Temple Beckley $100,772.91, and Stout Memorial $100,268.00.

Forty (40) churches paid zero. $139,607.00 of apportionments went unfunded.

195 churches were apportioned $15,000 or more. This group paid 87.43%. By using the $15,000 threshold, it effectively doubles the Top 100 group that is normally reviewed. 17.91% of the number of churches (this group) paid 65.81% of total apportioned dollars.

Top 100 – in the top 40 churches, $218,987.00 was “left on the table” by 8 churches. Had these 8 churches paid 100%, the conference would have received $10,592,106.10. This would have meant that the conference payout percentage would have been 88.49%. If all of the top 100 apportioned churches had paid 100%, the Conference percentage payout would have been 91.46%.

802 churches paid 100% or more. This represents 73.65% of the total number of churches. This means that 73.51% of the Conference Budget was funded by churches paying 100% or more.

In comparing 2015 to 2014, six months were better in 2015 than in 2014.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

Council on Finance and Administration
West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church
Charleston, West Virginia

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church – Treasurer's Fund, which comprise the statement of assets, liabilities, and fund balances - modified cash basis as of December 31, 2015 and 2014 and the related statement of fund transactions and fund balances - modified cash basis for the year ended December 31, 2015, and the related notes to the financial statements.

Treasurer's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

The Treasurer is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with the modified cash basis of accounting described in Note 1; this includes determining that the modified cash basis of accounting is an acceptable basis for the preparation of the financial statements in the circumstances. Management is also responsible for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

WEST VIRGINIA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
TREASURER'S FUND
NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Treasurer of the West Virginia Annual Conference, by direction from the Council on Finance and Administration, is charged with receiving church remittances, special offerings, and miscellaneous other receipts. The Treasurer subsequently disburses these funds in accordance with the Conference approved budget for the year, donor instructions, or specific direction of the West Virginia Annual Conference Council on Finance and Administration. The Treasurer generally recognizes revenue from church remittances and Conference expenses when received or paid. However, because the local church is not always able to remit funds received late in the year prior to January 1, those funds received for the prior year are recognized as accounts receivable and recognized as revenue in the year raised by the local church. Conversely, those obligations that arise as a result of the receipts (i.e. pass-through funds) are recorded as accounts payable and recognized as disbursements for the year. All property and equipment acquired by the West Virginia Annual Conference is either expensed when purchased or not recognized when received by gift or by abandonment by a local church.

The Conference Treasurer uses the modified cash basis of accounting. The modified cash basis of accounting differs from generally accepted accounting principles primarily because of property and equipment, and receivables or liabilities pertaining to the self-funded health care plan and the pension plan are not included in the financial statements; loans and those accounts receivable and accounts payable, only to the extent described in the first paragraph, are included.

One of the primary reasons the Treasurer believes generally accepted accounting principles are not appropriate is because of the issuance, by the Financial Accounting Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, of a rule requiring the Conference to accrue all liability for the future health claims of all retired pastors and their families in the financial statements and liability for all retirement plans obligations. After consideration of all costs involved in acquiring, accumulating, and maintaining the information necessary for such an accrual, and considering that the Treasurer has never capitalized and depreciated property and equipment as required by generally accepted accounting principles, the Treasurer has determined the benefits to the Conference and other financial statement users are not substantial enough to warrant compliance with these rules.

Fund Accounting: To ensure observance of limitations and restrictions placed on the use of resources available to the Conference, the accounts of the Conference are maintained in accordance with the principles of fund accounting. This is the procedure by which resources for various purposes are classified for accounting and reporting purposes into funds established according to their nature and purposes. Separate accounts are maintained for each fund.

Unrestricted fund balances- Fund balances that are not subject to donor-imposed stipulations.

Temporarily restricted fund balances – Fund balances subject to donor-imposed stipulations that may or will be met in the future for their designated purpose.

Estimates: The preparation of financial statements in conformity with the modified cash basis of accounting requires management to estimate certain amounts reported in these footnotes. Actual amounts could differ from those estimates.

Cash: The Conference considers cash and deposits that are available on demand to be cash.

Income Taxes: The Conference, a religious organization operating under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, is generally exempt from federal, state, and local income taxes and, accordingly, no provision for income taxes is included in the financial statements. As churches are not required to file tax returns, they are not typically subject to audit.

NOTE 2. CASH and INVESTMENTS CONCENTRATIONS

Substantially all of the Treasurer's cash is deposited with a single bank. As of December 31, 2015 and 2014, $1,495,671 and $1,016,867 in deposits were not covered by FDIC insurance. All Conference investments reported on the financial statements have been deposited in the United Methodist Foundation of Charleston WV except for three investments in United Methodist General Board of Pensions short term investment fund.

NOTE 3. UNREALIZED GAIN OR LOSS ON INVESTMENTS

Investments are recorded in the Assets, Liabilities and Fund Balances – Modified Cash Basis at cost. As of December 31, 2015, the investment's market value was above cost by $68,140 and as of December 31, 2014 the investment's market value was above cost by $171,680. No unrealized gains or losses have been recognized in the accompanying statement of fund transactions and fund balances - modified cash basis. Investments made within the above agencies are not federally insured.

NOTE 4. PENSION PLAN

LAY EMPLOYEES:

The West Virginia Conference of The United Methodist Church participates in a defined contribution pension plan administered by GBOPHP covering all lay employees who normally work 20 hours or more per week (1,000 per year) and at least six months during the plan year. Under the provisions of the Plan, the Conference must contribute an amount equal to 9% of each eligible employee's gross wages. Contribution expense for the year ended December, 31, 2015 was $82,246 and contribution expense for the year ended December 31, 2014 was $79,008.

CLERGY EMPLOYEES:

Pre 82 Plan

The West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church participates in a defined benefit, multi-employer pension plan that covers Conference members and local pastors under Episcopal appointment. Benefits of this plan, which are administered by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church, are determined by two primary factors: when service to the Conference was rendered and for how long services were rendered and the Past Service Rate for the plan. Also included in this calculation are Defined Benefit Service Money (DBSM) that may have been contributed by the West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church for its participants. Benefits for services rendered prior to 1982 are determined by multiplying the number of years of credited service by a Past Service Rate that is annually re-determined by the West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Each time the Past Service Rate is increased, the unfunded past service liability also increases. Based on action of the General Conference, and due to changes approved for the overall structure of the retirement program; effective January 1, 2007 the increase in the Past Service Rate was changed to 2% per year. Currently, any increases in the Past Service Rate must be funded immediately. Consequently the Past Service Rate of 2015 of $542 was increased to $553 for 2016. The unfunded past service liability or over-funded status of the plan is based on assumptions about future events that may or may not occur as predicted. By law, this plan must be fully funded no later than December 31, 2021.

As of 1/1/2015 the plan asset value is $45,977,829 and the plan liability value is $40,405,179. The 2015 and 2014 contributions were $500,000 and $1,000,000, respectively, in which the required contribution was $-0-. The legal status of this plan is such that all assets held by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits for Supplement One to the Ministerial Pension Plan are available to pay all benefits of the plan, regardless of the annual conference from which contributions came or under which benefits were accrued.

For one year only, the Board of Pensions approved funding of the 2016 CRSP-DB by using the excess funding of the Pre-82 monies. This "holiday" would permit churches to keep their contribution and instead utilize the monies for ministry and mission projects. Churches are encouraged to share how they are using the contributions to benefit ministries, either new or established projects. The amount of this contribution shall be $1,824,963 for 2016.

Ministerial Pension Plan (MPP)

From January 1, 1982 through December 31, 2006, eligible clergy in the United Methodist Church of West Virginia were enrolled in the Ministerial Pension Plan. This plan was a defined contribution plan where the salary-paying unit (usually the church) paid twelve (12) percent of the clergy person's plan compensation into an investment vehicle that was invested by the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits. Currently, upon retirement, 65% of this money must be converted to an annuity. The balance can be rolled over or moved to other investment accounts of the clergy's choosing. The West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church remains liable for fully funding the annuities. The 2014 and 2015 contributions were $-0- and $-0- respectively. The required contribution for 2015 and 2016 is $-0-.

Clergy Retirement Security Program Plan (CRSP)

Effective January 1, 2007 the Denomination has established a new pension plan for eligible United Methodist Clergy (CRSP – Clergy Retirement Security Program). This plan has a defined benefit component and a defined contribution component. The CRSP defined benefit component is calculated for the period beginning January 1, 2007 thru December 31, 2013 (7 years) by multiplying 1.25% times the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC) in effect at the time of retirement times the years of credited service after January 1, 2007. Effective January 1, 2014 this calculation is performed using 1% instead of 1.25%. The DAC for 2014 was $66,259 and $65,186 in 2014. The conference currently bills the church 14% of the pastor's plan compensation thru out the year to be able to fund this plan by year end. The CRSP defined contribution component is a monthly contribution equal to 3% of the eligible clergyperson's plan compensation. Beginning 1/1/2014, eligible clergy only received 2% of the eligible clergyperson's plan compensation and a 1% matching contribution if the clergyperson contributes at least 1% of their plan compensation. Any investment earnings or losses on the participants share is credited to or deducted from the participants account balance. The West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church makes contributions to a deposit account with the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits of The United Methodist Church for the defined benefit component of the CRSP. The West Virginia Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church transferred $1,917,243 and $1,861,863 to the CRSP – Defined Benefit Pension Plan for the year ending December 31, 2015 and 2014 respectively. As of the most recent data available from actuarial reports, the required contributions are $1,824,963 and $1,834,927 for 2016 and 2017 respectively.

As mentioned above, for one year only, the Board of Pensions approved funding of the 2016 CRSP-DB by using the excess funding from the Pre-82 monies. This "holiday" would permit churches to keep their contribution and instead utilize the monies for ministry and mission projects.

NOTE 5. SELF-FUNDED HEALTH CARE PLAN

Effective April 1, 1989, the Conference established The United Methodist Church Family Health Care Plan ('Plan') for the purpose of providing health care benefits to participants on a self-funded basis. Funding for the Plan is provided by contributions from the Annual Conference, the local church, and participants. The West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church determines participant contribution amounts.

Generally, active full-time employees of the West Virginia Annual Conference, member churches, agencies and institutions of the United Methodist Church, and their dependents, are eligible to participate in the Plan. Additionally, retirees, their dependents and surviving spouses can be eligible for participation.

Benefits are provided as specified by the Plan. Eligible covered expenses include charges for hospitalization, outpatient services, prescription drugs, physician's services, surgery, diagnostic and dental services, among others. Participants should refer to the Plan document for specific information including limitations and exclusions.

NOTE 5. SELF-FUNDED HEALTH CARE PLAN - continued

The Plan maintains an individual stop-loss insurance policy by which benefit payments in excess of $150,000 per individual a year are considered reinsurance, with the exception of specified individuals where the reinsurance will not count until the annual expenditure exceeds as much as $275,000 for specific events. The insurance policy will pay for all reinsurance amounts above the specific deductible. Total health care expenses and administration were $7,094,743 for 2015 and $7,507,558 net of any reinsurance.

NOTE 6. HEALTH CARE CLAIMS LIABILITY

The unpaid health claims as of December 31, 2015 are estimated to be approximately $775,629 and for December 31, 2014, the unpaid health claims were estimated at $542,180. These amounts must be estimated because certain claims incurred in year 2015 have still not been submitted to the plan for payment, and certain claims are still in the process of eligibility determination as of the date these financial statements were published. As explained in Note 1 above, this liability for unpaid health care claims is not reflected in the accompanying financial statements. The West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church has insurance reserves in the amount of $1,600,808 and $1,669,137 for the years ending December 31, 2015 and 2014 respectively.

NOTE 7. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Management evaluated subsequent events through April 4, 2016 the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

NOTE 8. OPERATING LEASES / RELATED PARTY TRANSACTION

The West Virginia Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church – Treasurer's Fund has the following four operating leases. The first is an operating lease that started January 2015 from Pitney Bowes Global for postage machine equipment with a monthly payment of $525.94 for a period of 60 months billed quarterly. The second is an operating lease that started April of 2014 for reproduction equipment from LEAF Capital Funding, LLC with a monthly payment of $388 for a period of 60 months. The third operating lease started December of 2014 for phone equipment from AVAYA with a monthly payment of $248 for a period of 60 months. The fourth operating lease is for the office spaces used by the employees and volunteers of the West Virginia Conference of the United Methodist Church. This operating lease is a related party transaction with one of the West Virginia Conference's churches. The lease started January 1999 for a period of five years and then was automatically renewed for three-year increments if not cancelled. The yearly amount of the lease was $70,296 for 2015 and $70,300 for 2014.
