Calling all West Virginia Conference
United Women in Faith
The 63rd Spiritual Growth Retreat
April 21-22, 2023
Cedar Lakes Conference Center, Ripley, WV
Theme: "Working Together to Show Our Faith"

Speaker: Rev. Janet Harman

Rev. Janet Harman is a woman who is passionate about servant ministry. As a United Methodist Deacon, ordained to ministries of compassion, justice, word and service, her two-year participation in the Academy for Spiritual Formation has guided her to be an encourager for spiritual formation at her church, St. Marks UMC, Charleston.

As a counselor and social worker for over 30 year, she provides counseling and social work throughout WV. Besides counseling, she weekly volunteers at Hubbard Hospice House in Charleston, providing pastoral care and sings with the WV Symphony Chorus and her church choir. Janet co-leads a small circle of Women in Faith (known affectionately as "The Sister Chicks").

Music: Rev. Dustin and Carrie
McCune

Rev. Dustin and Carrie McCune have been leading worship together for many years all around the state of WV. Dustin was recently ordained and is the pastor at Cross Roads UMC in Huntington, WV. He graduated from Asbury Theological Seminary in 2018 with a Master of Divinity degree. Dustin also has a BS degree in Marketing and Business Administration from Fairmont State University.

Carrie has her Cosmetologist license and works at the Village House in Barboursville, WV, and Yabba Dabba Doos in West Union, WV. Dustin and Carrie have a passion for Jesus, relationship building, and doing ministry outside the walls of the church building and into the community. The couple was recently married in 2021 and have three fur babies Gracie, Harper, and Paisley.
