

SEMINARY COURSE REQUIREMENTS FOR FULL MEMBERSHIP

¶324.4, 2016 Book of Discipline

☐ Old Testament

Every candidate pursuing ordination as elder or deacon must review the sub-paragraphs of ¶324 of the 2016 Book of Discipline. For a candidate to be qualified for ordination (either deacon or elder) in the United Methodist Church, he or she must have taken courses covering the following basic graduate theological studies:

 Old Testament
New Testament
Theology
Church History
Mission of the Church in the World
Evangelism
Worship/Liturgy
United Methodist Doctrine*
United Methodist Polity*
United Methodist History*
*The United Methodist courses are sometimes offered in combination for less than 3 credits.
ndidates on the elder track: The West Virginia Conference requires that candidates on der track must also complete the following courses prior to ordination:
Church administration (may be titled differently, but should include themes of leadership styles and organizational systems)
Pastoral care
Preaching
ng with the University Senate guidelines, West Virginia Conference students may engage in fully ourses only at one of the 13 United Methodist seminaries (or Asbury Seminary). Students

In keeping with the University Senate guidelines, West Virginia Conference students may engage in fully online courses only at one of the 13 United Methodist seminaries (or Asbury Seminary). Students attending a non-United Methodist seminary accredited by the University Senate may participate in courses by distance learning format that includes at least 50% face-to-face interaction.

For more information, see West Virginia Conference Miscellaneous Rules, Section XI, Part B.III. on Licensed or Ordained Ministry in the conference journal, found on the conference website. These rules were updated in June 2023.